Regis high knocked on the door of the Sturdy 24 Friday night and came away unscathed for the sixth time in as many games this year with a 40-20 triumph.

The Sturdy 24 is the name given to Prairie's depleted Jim Kurtz broke loose on a fifth-rated Royals.

Good was not particularly overjoyed by his club's performance and mused: "All we need is a lot of work on blocking and tackling and a few things like that.

"We need to keep improving each week. Red Leidigh (Prairie coach) did a fine job with his team. They've got real good speed in their backfield." Leidigh confessed he felt "good" despite the loss.

Washington high school pushed across a touchdown with just 25 seconds to go Friday night at Kingston stadium to escape a tenacious Dubuque upset bid, 20-13.

The victory, on Joe Hatchett's one-yard smash in the final seconds, preserved the Warriors' unbeaten record and kept them in a virtual tie with Moline for the Mississippi Valley conference lead. "Dubuque played very well,"

Three On the Road

Three Cedar Rapids-Marion area football teams are scheduled for action tonight, all on the road.

Jefferson, still ranked in the top 10 in Iowa despite the fact that its string of 37 games without defeat was cut a week ago, tries to start another victory string when it travels to Waterloo for a game with West high.

Marion, bumped from the ranks of the unbeaten last week, faces Monticello in a Wamac conference showdown at Monticello. The winner will share the league lead with Anamosa

Linn-Mar travels to Dyersville for a game with a Beckman high team that has lost only once this fall.
