

Just 'Routine Miracle' as McLain Gets His 30th Win

By Bill Halls

DETROIT (AP)—The two-run ninth inning rally which pulled Denny McLain's 30th victory out of the fire and gave the pennant-bound Detroit Tigers a 5-4 triumph over the Oakland Athletics Saturday was just another routine miracle, according to Al Kaline.

"Just routine," said the veteran Tiger outfielder, whose walk ignited the rally that made McLain the first 30-game winner since Dizzy Dean of the St. Louis Cardinals in 1934.

"There's been so many games like that this year it's become just routine."

Willie Horton, whose fly ball to left carried over a pulled-in outfield to drive in the winning run, added:

"I was just trying to hit the ball and run like hell. A thrill? Every day is a thrill in this game."

Two home runs by Oakland's Reggie Jackson left the Tigers behind 4-3 in the last of the ninth when Kaline, sent to bat for McLain by Detroit Manager Mayo Smith, walked.

"I was just trying to get on base," said Kaline. "I knew we would have a chance with the top of the batting order coming up."

Diego Segui, the Oakland relief pitcher, who had worked four scoreless innings, got Dick McAuliffe on a foul pop fly. But Mickey Stanley singled, sending Kaline to third.

Jim Northrup hit a routine grounder to Danny Cater, but the Oakland first baseman threw the ball over catcher Dave Duncan's head as Kaline scored the tying run.

Horton followed with his base hit and McLain had the victory.

"I can't take too much more of this stuff," said veteran Eddie Mathews, thumping his fist against his heart. "Man, national television, 30 games... everything."

The victory, Detroit's fifth straight and 28th in its final round of play, cut the Tigers' magic number for clinching the American league pennant to four.

They lead second place Baltimore by 9½ games with 13 to play.

McLain was rocked early by the A's but allowed only two hits over the last five innings and struck out 10.

Jackson's first homer—a two-run shot in the fourth—snapped a scoreless tie but the Tigers came right back to take the lead on Norm Cash's three-run homer in the bottom half of the inning.

The A's tied it against McLain in the fifth when Duncan walked, moved to second on a sacrifice and scored on Bert Campaneris' single.

Then Jackson, who had thrown a runner out at the plate in the third, tagged McLain for his second homer of the game and 28th of the season in the sixth, giving the A's lead they held until the ninth.

McLain is the 13th major league pitcher to win 30 games since baseball's modern era began at the turn of the century.

Dean watched McLain from the stands. Curiously, both Dean and McLain had the same uniform numbers, 17, and were the same age, 24, in their respective 30-game seasons.

Robert "Lefty" Grove was the last American league pitcher to win 30 games. He posted a 31-4 record for the old Philadelphia Athletics in 1931.

The modern major league record of 41 victories was set by Jack Chesbro of the New York Highlanders — now the Yankees — in 1904.

Ed Walsh of the Chicago White Sox, the only other modern day pitcher to win 40 games, did it in 1908.

Several pitchers, including Walter Johnson and Cy Young, have won 30 or more games at least twice.

Christy Mathewson of the old New York Giants did it four times in six years between 1903 and 1908.

IOWA STATE FLIPS BUFFALO 28-10

Red Peppers
By Gus Schrader

Ohio Green, Fast

COLUMBUS, Ohio—Dear Jane: Come and pick up the body.

We've finished our 15th annual Big Ten Skywriters football tour. It gets a little longer every year, and we doubt we would have lasted this time if it hadn't been for Woody Hayes' ringing defense of football, Moshe Dayan, Bear Bryant and The American Way on our final stop.

When Woody finished, to the accompaniment of an ovation from the impressed scribes, we went through our annual rite of (chuckle) picking the Big Ten champion. Sure, guess what team we put the kiss on this time.

Twenty-eight of the touring 36 typists chose Purdue, which already has clinched national honors in every pre-season poll. Now all we have to do is play 10 games apiece according to the script.

At least the Skywriters finally voted Iowa out of the cellar—8th place.

The Skywriters' poll is printed herewith. Don't take it too seriously, Jane, and bet the farm, because we've been right only twice in the last 14 years. Imagine that—with all this lore we've soaked up in the last two weeks, too!

Let's get back to Woody, one of our favorite people to interview (and we really mean it). He paraded in his top offensive and defensive units for the Skywriters to meet, and it wasn't hard to guess he's proud of these kids.

And "kids" it really is, because Ohio State is a soph-dominated team this year. It must be a tribute to Woody's coaching to have Ohio rated second behind Purdue, because usually a young team is kissed off with comments like this: "The Big Ten ain't no sophomore league, bud," or "Bob Zuppke always said you'll lose one game for every sophomore in your starting lineup."

WOODY HAYES

more crop we've ever had because of its speed. The biggest mistake a soph can make is to doubt his own ability. This team won't make many mistakes.

"Yeah, I think we're a title contender, in an outside sort of way. Maybe like Johnny Pont last year at Indiana. He did it with sophs, and maybe we could."

Dayan, Bear, Riots

What's that, Jane? You say I've written this much and still haven't explained on how Woody came out swinging for football, Moshe Dayan, Bear Bryant and The American Way? Okay, here's what he said:

Football—"I don't see how the Big Ten can be anything but great this year because we didn't graduate many good players. We're all getting better players than ever. If you haven't bought your tickets, better get 'em now because you're going to enjoy it."

Moshe Dayan, who led Israel to victory over the Arab nations in six days—"He certainly impressed me. He brought a new element into modern warfare—victory!"

Bear Bryant—"I certainly don't resent it because Bear got some votes at the Democratic convention and I didn't. It's just too bad they didn't give him more votes. Look at his record. Bear Bryant has to be the best football coach in the country."

The American Way—"In football we are taught to play within the rules. If enough of us want rule changes, there are legal ways of doing it without lawlessness. Look at one of the recent political conventions. A candidate was losing the nomination. Why? Because he didn't have enough votes. So some of his followers went out and rioted. They tried to change the rules in the middle of the game. I'll tell you this, if we don't learn to play within the rules, we ought to realize there are Communist countries who do live TOTALLY within the rules. The acceleration of lawlessness in this country worries me even more than the Purdue ball game."

When Woody finished, Jane, about the only question we could ask was this: "Does this mean you may hire Mayor Daley as your line coach?" Woody grinned. "He isn't bad," he replied.

Feet-ture of Iowa State's Defense

Buffalo's Pat Patterson found himself heels over head on this ball carrying try against Iowa State's young defensive platoon Saturday. Notice you can see nothing but feet and Buffalo's white uniforms as all the dark-clad Cyclones apparently were submarining on the play.

Kennedy Bombs LaSalle, 36-0 ground, and one of those was an excellent cut-back around the left side by halfback Paul Votroubek from 38 yards out.

Chuck Norton got the other run on a four-yard slant to cap the scoring, but other than that Kennedy enjoyed freedom through the airways as far as six-pointers were concerned.

Kirk Jamison and Paul Debban split the signal-calling chores and were equally im-lonesome down the middle and the connection was good for a 65-yard scoring play.

Kennedy's defense proved too formidable for the game but outmanned Lancers. LaSalle was held to a minus ten yards on the ground, but quarterback Tim Whitters kept the Cougars on their toes with some pin-point passing.

"I thought our defense was pretty tough," said Kennedy Coach Dale Tryon. "We decided to take LaSalle the short passes in hopes of stopping their running game and the long passes. I thought our linebackers Steve McDonnell and Steve Dodge and safety Steve Smith did fine jobs."

"I was pretty well pleased, overall. I thought our execution was good for the first game. It took us awhile to adjust to LaSalle's offense. They have a well-coached team and should get better."

Whitters was about all the offense the Lancers could muster. He hit 14 of 32 passes for 136 yards. Four of those were caught by sophomore Gary Charipar, the 135-pound split end, good for 67 yards.

LaSalle Coach Bill Rosing, in his first year, was "pretty happy the way the kids hung in there for three quarters against their ground game."

"We just made too many mistakes; this is where the lack of opposition in practice really shows up. Kennedy didn't make many mistakes... I was pleased with the way Whitters stayed in there under pressure. He showed a lot of poise."

LaSalle suffered numerous injuries, the most serious to halfback Denny Lowe who suffered a whiplash.

Votroubek was the top ground gainer for Kennedy with 60 yards in nine carries. Norton had 44 yards in seven rushes. Fullback Bruce Frana led the Lancers with 24 yards in eight attempts.

AMES—Hold up on delivering those flowers for Iowa State's football funeral.

The Cyclones, last-place pick in the Big Eight, proved a ram-bunctious corpse at their expected wake Saturday, whipping Buffalo 28-10 in Johnny Majors' first game as Cyclone coach.

A record opening-day crowd of 23,000 whooped it up in sunshine and 80-degree weather as I-State zoomed away from a precarious 12-10 halftime edge with two touchdowns and a field goal in the last 27 minutes.

John Warder's passing and running drove Buffalo to distraction, and a green Cyclone defense came up with the key play when it looked as if the decision would go right down to the wire.

Iowa State was nursing an 18-10 lead with 12 minutes to go. Buffalo was driving with the wind at its back. Quarterback Denny Mason kept the ball on a fourth-and-two situation at I-State's 43.

Tackles George Dimitri and Andy Waller grabbed Mason a foot short of the first down. The Cyclones took over against the sagging Bulls and less than two minutes later got the clinching field goal.

The three-pointer came on a 27-yard boot by Vern Skripky, junior from Cedar Rapids Washington. That was sweet consolation for Skrin, who had missed his first two extra-point tries. Last year as a soph, he had converted on all 11 attempts.

The Cyclones got a break for their final touchdown. Nick Kish, Buffalo safety, committed the unpardonable sin of handling a punt inside his 10-yard line. He called for a fair catch, changed his mind twice, fumbled the ball and watched I-State's Larry Gaffin recover it on the two with 1½ minutes to go.

Majors had turned the offense over to a second-string outfit, quarterbacked by Obert Tisdale, former Waterloo East star. He stuck with this group and was pleased to see them get the touchdown, overcoming a five-yard penalty.

Tisdale sneaked for the score. Then Skripky showed he still had some toe by booting the extra point, 28-10.

Warder and two sophs, Jock Johnson of Des Moines East and Jeff "Rat" Allen of Chicago,

If the season opener is any indication, Washington's football machine will be as good as pre-season expectations.

Coach Wally Sheets' Warriors, highly-rated in both the state and Mississippi Valley conference predictions, trounced Iowa City 59-0 Saturday night at Kingston stadium.

"I don't like to see such a wide scoring margin in the opener," Sheets said, "but at least it gave us a chance to play 52 kids and gain a little experience."

The Warrior defense looked as good as the classy offense which held the out-manned Little Hawks to only 30 yards rushing and a minus seven in the air.

Wash churned out 350 yards on the ground and an additional 109 through the air. Sheets' No. 1 backfield saw action only in the first half and briefly in the third quarter before giving way to the reserves.

Each member of the starting backfield scored on short runs with wingback Denny Smith collecting a pair on runs of 11 and 32 yards. Smith's first tally was aided by a beautiful block by full-back Skip Schumbach.

Wash end Jeff Johnson, who pounced on three Iowa City fumbles, set up two TDs with his alertness, one leading to Doug Winfrey's one-run plunge and the other by Denny Smith. Skog scored on an eight-yard run after some brilliant running LINCOLN, Neb. (AP) — Sophomore booter Paul Rogers kicked a 51-yard field goal with 21 seconds remaining Saturday, carrying Nebraska's hard-pressed Cornhuskers to a 13-10 decision over Wyoming in a grid-iron opener for both clubs.

Substitute quarterback Ernie Sigler had rallied Nebraska earlier in the period to knot the count and put the Huskers in reach of victory after they had trailed most of the sunny afternoon.

Wyoming fashioned a 10-3 lead in the first quarter and made it stand until the final period when Sigler, a senior long cast in a backup role, got the Huskers moving.

Sigler started a 71-yard game-tying drive with a 23-yard sprint of his own after being trapped while attempting to pass.

Evans Sets 400 Meters World Mark

By Ron Rapoport
SOUTH LAKE TAHOE, Calif. (AP) — Lee Evans, wearing the same type track shoes that might have cost John Carlos a world record at 200 meters, bettered the world standard at 400 meters Saturday by four-tenths of a second, finishing in 44 seconds flat.

In setting the fourth world record at the U.S. Olympic track and field trials, Evans, following a torrid early pace by Vince Matthews, caught Larry James about 20 miles from the finish and won by a meter. James, a Villanova sophomore, was caught in 44.1.

Ron Freeman of Arizona State university took the third place on the Olympic team with a 44.6 clocking.

The recognized world record at 400 meters is 44.5, set by Tommie Smith, but Matthews has a pending mark of 44.4 that he set in a pre-trial meet at this high altitude site late last month.

Evans, a 21-year-old student at San Jose, Calif., State College, generally is recognized as the best in the world at this distance after beating James for the national collegiate championship at Berkeley, Calif., in June. He also won the AAU championships.

Jim Ryun, running easily, qualified Saturday for the second round of the 1,500-meter trials.

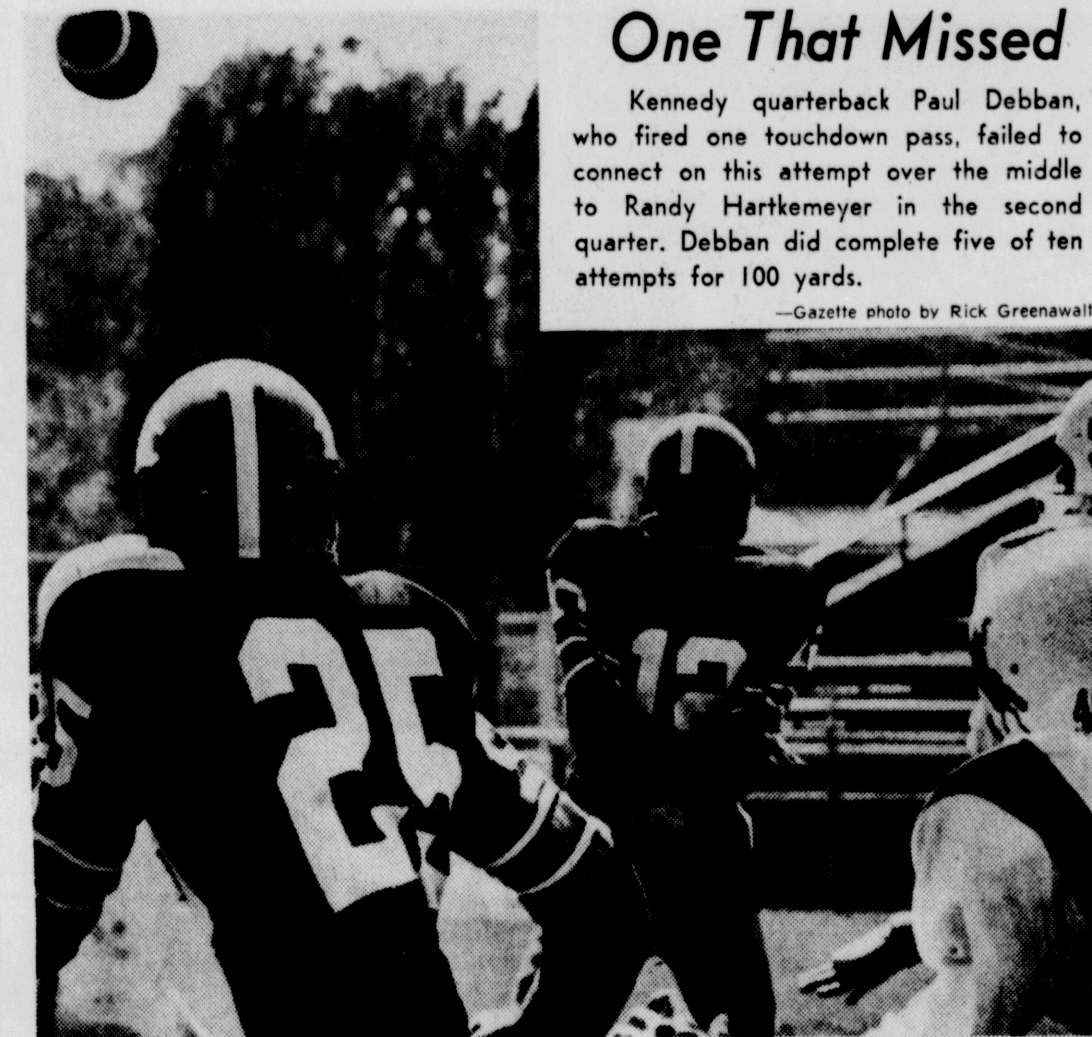

Ryun, who failed to qualify in the 800 earlier, ran last in his heat until the final turn and then sprinted up to finish second to Oregon's Roscoe Divine, who won the race in the slow time of 3 minutes 58.3 seconds. Ryan was clocked in the same time.

FAYETTE — Winona State stunned Upper Iowa with 255 yards of passing, most of it in the second half, and four touchdown passes to romp to a 34-0 victory here Saturday afternoon.

Don Rajtora, a former C.R. Jefferson athlete, fired two touchdowns to Harry Mitchell. The first one came on a 41-yard play late in the first half to break a 0-0 deadlock.

Early in the second half Rajtora hit Mitchell for an eight-yard score.

Jim Dybevik turned in the third Winona score when he intercepted Peacock pass and returned it 35 yards.

Curt Palmer clicked for two more Winona scores when he fired a 25-yard pass to Rick Starzecki and connected with Larry Mott for three yards.

Krob had four straight conversions for Winona before the last attempt, which failed.

by Winfrey. He also passed eight yards to end Bob Rusley for a score and added five conversions.

Reserves Dave Scheib, Jon Robken and Steve Jung added the final Warrior TDs.

Junge, who was the Warriors' manager last year, grabbed a one-yard scoring pass from No. 3 QB Mike Smith, a brother of Denny, for the final TD as time ran out in the game.

Vikings Pound Atlanta 47-7

By Lew Ferguson

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Minnesota turned two fumble recoveries inside the 20-yard line into touchdowns early in the second quarter, then stamped Atlanta, 47-7, on the strong passing of Joe Kapp in the National Football League season opener Saturday night.

The point total, achieved before 45,563 fans, was a regular-season record for the Vikings. Minnesota scored 45 points against San Francisco in 1963.

Drake Rolls Early 30-14

DES MOINES (AP) — Drake exploded for 16 points in the second quarter and went on to defeat Northern Arizona 30-14 in a football season opener for both teams Saturday.

Bob Chase kicked a 25 yard field goal after a scoreless first quarter and Drake quickly followed with a 34-yard scoring pass and the first of tailback Bert Perlow's three touchdown runs.

The Bulldogs took a 23-0 lead before Buffalo scored on a one-yard plunge by quarterback Mike Olson in the third quarter.

SOUTH LAKE TAHOE, Calif. (UPI) — Gayle Hopkins of Davenport was listed third in long jump qualifying summaries at the U.S. Olympic Track and Field Trials. Hopkins placed with a leap of 25-feet-6.

Wasn't His Day

NEW YORK (UPI) — Oscar Walker of Buffalo became the first National league baseball player to strike out five times in a nine-inning game on June 20, 1879.

Ken Houston, breaking an AFL record with the 44th interception of his career, made the first steal of a Griesse pass and carried 66 yards through the middle of the entire Dolphin team for a touchdown.

Later, Griesse threw end zone interceptions to Jim Norton and Larry Carwell after Miami had charged once to the Houston four and again to the six.

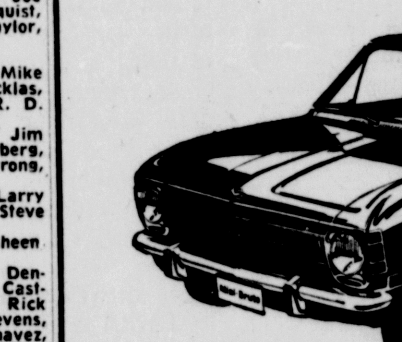

Norton's theft nullified a dazzling 95-yard kickoff return by Bob Neff.

MIAMI (AP) — The Houston Oilers, coming up with three crucial interceptions off Bob Griesse and grabbing a Miami fumble at their goal line, rolled to a 24-10 American Football league victory over the Dolphins Saturday night.
