

J-Hawk Offensive Clicks Again

Jeff Stuns Kennedy, 41-6

Jefferson's offense, which sputtered early in the season, is certainly in high gear now.

Statistics table showing game stats for Jeff and Kennedy, including first downs, yards rushing, and passing.

Jerry Mauren agreed the quick jump the J-Hawks got hurt, but declined to alibi for the one-sided city loss.

"They've certainly got their game together," said Jerry, "and they just played very well."

Thursday night, for the second straight week, quarterback Brad Trickey guided the J-Hawks to over 400 yards from scrimmage, and this time it produced a 41-6 victory over city rival Kennedy.

"The kids played awfully well and made very few mistakes," explained Jeff Coach Jack Fisk.

Holland picked off one of the interceptions and converted it into a 60-yard touchdown run that halted a Kennedy drive in the third quarter and ended any hopes of a Cougar comeback. Emmitt Doolin, who carried 13 times for 107 yards, capped the opening drive by bursting in from the one. He also got the second on a 25-yard pass play from Trickey.

One That Clicked for Jeff

Jeff quarterback Brad Trickey (12) unleashed this pass to Jim Ferguson for an eight-yard scoring play Thursday night at Kingston as the J-Hawks rolled over Kennedy, 41-6.

new. Although we have lost key people, we'll show up to play the game and hope the 'Coe gremlin' will be with us again." Clark, whose Cornell club won its first two games with a fine attack, has suddenly had trouble in scoring.

Led by Quarterback Mark Steger, the attack revived somewhat in a loss to Grinnell last week as Mark hit 24 passes for 266 yards. Bruce Frana, a Cedar Rapids native, also provided some punch as he ran for 140 yards.

uled to get the starting nod for Coe. Peter Burnett, who turned in a fine defensive game a week ago, may get the starting assignment over 235-pound Mike Griffin. Two others who could see action are junior John McCaffrey, a possible defensive line replacement, and Nick Massarella, who missed last week with a hip pointer.

There's no title on the line. In fact, Coe will be trying to shake a 5-game losing streak and Cornell will be out to snap a string of three straight losses.

Soph Bobby Thonn, a 150-pound sophomore quarterback who directed the Kohawks to two scores in a 20-16 loss to Lawrence last week, is sched-

But forget all that. It will be Coe and Cornell squaring off at 1:30 p.m., Saturday at Kingston stadium in the highlight of Coe's annual homecoming ceremonies. So you can throw the records out the window.

Des Moines School Supt. Dwight M. Davis said he was waiting for a written report from the association before making any recommendation to the school board on the matter.

The series started back in 1891 and there has never been a dull moment. Coe now holds the edge in the long rivalry with 43 wins to 32 for the Rams. There were four ties.

There's another fact that probably rankles Cornell Coach Jerry Clark. The Rams have not beaten Coe since 1963.
