CLINTON — Cedar Rapids Washington used an impressive ground attack and a perfect passing night from Craig Roalson to score a 20-7 football victory over Clinton and move into the Mississippi Valley conference lead Friday night.

Wash now is 4-0 and all games have been played in the Valley. Clinton is 1-2 in league play.

The Warriors scored all the points they needed in the first quarter, tallying two touchdowns in a 23-second span.

After Clinton punted on the first series of downs, Wash drove 59 yards in just five plays. Roalson's 35-yard keeper was the highlight and Steve Blood plunged in from the one with 8:13 left in the quarter.

One play following the ensuing kickoff, Clinton's Jeff Lueders fumbled the ball and the Warriors' Darryl Hobbs scooped it up and raced in from the the 15.

Clinton's lone score came in the second quarter. Following a fumble recovery by Jay Golden, the River Kings tallied four plays later. Fullback Ken Stracener bulled over from the two after latching onto a 38-yard pass from Craig Loehndorf.

Wash's other score came in the fourth frame. The Warriors ground out 53 yards in 13 plays, highlighted by a 20-yard pass from Roalson to Ted Glotfelty and capped by Milton Turner's one-yard plunge.

Wash's Kent Cooling was the game's leading rusher with 79 yards in 15 carries while Turner had 52 in 8.

Roalson finished four for four for 44 yards in the passing department.

Beckman: TD—Pat Fayen (58, run); Rod Tegeler (18, pass from Feyen); XP—Glen Koelker (pass Feyen).

DYERSVILLE — In about a two-minute period of the fourth quarter, senior Dave Kirsch went from goat to hero here Friday night as Beckman toppled Linn-Mar 14-7 in a battle of unbeaten class 3A football powers.

With the Blazers leading by the final score midway in the fourth period, Kirsch fumbled at the Linn-Mar one-yard line on what would have been a clinching touchdown.

The ball was kicked through the end zone and Linn-Mar took over on its own 20.

Four plays later, with the Lions driving into Beckman territory and still very much in the game, Kirsch intercepted a Greg Cantaberry pass on his own 27 and returned it to the Linn-Mar 21 to seal the fate of the rated Lions.

"We alternate our guys," explained jubilant Beckman Coach Bob Timmerman, whose gutty Blazers are now 4-0 and atop the East Central Iowa conference standings.

"It was Dave's turn to go back in and I told him 'Dave, you almost lost it for us, so you'd better go in and win it back.'

"I guess he just likes to follow instructions."

It was a strange game. The fired-up Blazers dominated the first half completely, but still trailed 7-6 at the intermission.

Linn-Mar had the edge in the second half, but saw that lead dissipate into the final 14-7 defeat, its first in four starts.

"Two interceptions hurt us," admitted L-M coach Paul Carney, "particularly the deflected one that stopped our third quarter drive. We had momentum, and I think we would have won if we could have moved on in and scored."

That drive started with the second half kickoff and carried to Beckman's 29 in eight plays. Then Kirsch tuned up for his later heroics with an interception that ended the threat and launched Beckman on its winning drive.

"I don't think the race is over by any means," said Carney. "We both have Prairie yet to play and that will be the key.

"I hope we learned something tonight. You have to put four good quarters together when you play the kind of competition we have in our league."

Beckman threatened to overwhelm the Lions in the first two periods. The Blazers led in first downs, 6-1, and in yards rushing, 138 to a minus-five.

Quarterback Pat Feyen put Beckman in front, 6-0, with 5:54 left in the half when he faked a handoff and then dashed up the middle for 58 yards and the score. The extra point try was wide.

The out-played Lions got their chance two minutes later when Dave Wood, later injured, picked up a fumble on the Beckman nine. After a penalty to the 14, Linn-Mar moved to the eight in two plays and then was thrown back to the 15.

With no time left on the clock, Cantaberry hit Mike Johnson on a TD pass and Terry Stillions kicked the extra point.

The Lions came to life in the third, but just couldn't put together a consistent drive.

Kirsch's first interception then returned the momentum to the Blazers.

Beckman moved 55 yards in seven plays, plus a pair of costly first down penalties. The payoff was a third down, 18-yard pass from Feyen to Rod Tegeler.

Feyen then hit Glen Koelker with a two-point pass on the extra point try that added to the Linn-Mar comeback woes.

INDIVIDUAL SCORING

LaSalle: TD — Jim Brawner 2(1, 25 runs); Mike Sattler (31, fumble recovery); Kevin Sippy (1, run). XP — Brawner (run); Scott Tudor (run).

Benton: TD — Bill Wilson (15, pass from Denny Junge).

VAN HORNE — Two weeks ago LaSalle sophomore Jim Brawner wasn't on the Lancer varsity.

In fact, his number (30) was listed very inconspicuously at the very end of the program for the LaSalle-Benton Community game Friday night, tucked neatly under the list of 80 numerals.

On the field he was not conspicuous by his absence however, running for two touchdowns and 70 yards, as LaSalle broke a three-game losing streak with a 28-6 win.

"It's been a long, hard six weeks for us and we're extremely happy with the win," beamed Lanced boss John Meski men.

"We've played some mighty good football teams and it's just a great feeling to get that first win under your belt," he said.

It was also the Lancers' first win in East Central Iowa conference play and to get it they displayed a steady, consistent ground game that was spearheaded by Brawner and fullback Kevin Sippy.

Indicative of that ground assault was a first-quarter drive that covered 75 yards and lasted almost seven minutes, capped by a one-yard plunge by Brawner.

The Lancers quickly added frosting to that cake when defensive end Mike Sattler made a lineman's dream come true when he scooped up a fumble on the ensuing kickoff and scored from 31 yards out.

Sattler's tally put LaSalle on top 14-0 and the Bobcats never recovered from the shock.

Benton only ran six plays from scrimmage in the first stanza and one of those was a punt.

Sippy, who powered for 92 yards in 21 carries for LaSalle, stretched the Lancer's lead to 20-0 with a one-yard plunge late in the second period.

Benton stormed back at that juncture with a 62-yard TD march, capped by a 15-yard touchdown pass from Denny Junge to Bill Wilson just before the half ended.

The Lancers rolled up 204 rushing yards. The Lancer defense limited Benton to 96 yards rushing and 39 of those yards came on a ramble by quarterback Junge late in the contest.

Brawner, moved up to the varsity to add some offensive punch, provided the Lancers with their final tally on a 25-yard run around left end in the third quarter.

INDIVIDUAL SCORING

Bett.: TD — Chuck Lintgen 2(1, 2, runs); XP — Steve Drexler (run).

Kenn.: TD — Mick Bertelli (5, run); XP — Rocky Woods (pass from Dave Bennett)

Bettendorf capitalized on a pair of breaks to spoil Kennedy high's Homecoming, 14-8, on a sloppy football field Friday night at Kingston stadium.

The breaks came when Kennedy committed two mistakes—both on punting situations—and gave the Bulldogs excellent field position.

The first came midway through the second quarter when Rocky Woods went back to punt from his own 26 and the center snap from John Pinckney sailed over his head. Bettendorf took over on the one and on the first play tailback Chuck Lintgen scored for a 6-0 lead.

The Bulldogs got their next shot in the third quarter.

Woods, while in the act of punting, had the pigskin pop out of his hands at the Kennedy five. It took Lintgen two carries—the second from two yards out— to find the end zone. Quarterback Steve Drexler tallied on a keeper for the extra points and it was 14-0.

A great reception by Woods, good for 51 yards from QB Dave Bennett, moved the ball to the Bettendorf five and set up Kennedy's lone touchdown in the final quarter.

Two plays later, tailback Mick Bertelli blasted over from the five. Bennett and Woods hooked up for the two-point conversion and Kennedy was back in the ball game with 6:21 remaining.

The Cougars, who now stand 1-3 in the Mississippi Valley conference, had one other decent opportunity with 40 seconds left and possession on the Bettendorf 43. However, four straight passing attempts were unsuccessful.

Lintgen was the game's workhorse and blasted into Kennedy 26 times for 99 of Bettendorf's 159 yards on the ground . . . er, mud. Because of the punting problems, Kennedy netted only 33 yards rushing, but Bertelli had an individual high of 59 yards in 21 attempts.

Kennedy coach Jerry Mauren acknowledged the errors, saying, "Mistakes have been killing us. But it's about time we started making some of our own breaks.

"These kids played too hard to deserve this. Things are going to get better."

Bettendorf now owns a 2-1 record in the Valley and 2-2 mark overall.

DID YOU KNOW THAT: The Los Angeles Dodgers, and their predecessor the Brooklyn Dodgers, have had the fewest number of managers of any team in the Major Leagues (since 1900). The Dodgers have had just twelve managers: Ned Hanion, Patsy Donovan, Harry Lumley, William Dahlen, Wilbert Robinson, Max Carey, Casey Stengel, Burleigh Grimes, Leo Durocher, Burt Shotton, Chuck Dressen and Walter Alston.
