

Dodgers and Royals Take 2-1 Playoff Leads

Bill Russell
Paces L.A.

By Ralph Bernstein

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Bill Russell, the goat of the first game, singled home Davey Lopes as the Los Angeles Dodgers rallied for three ninth-inning runs with two out and beat the Philadelphia Phillies 6-5 Friday for a 2-1 lead in the best-of-five National League championship series.

The Phillies had snapped a 3-3 tie in the bottom of the eighth and reliever Gene Garber set down the first two Dodgers in the top of the ninth before the West Division champions came to life with the help of two Philadelphia errors.

Dusty Baker and Rick Monday grounded out harmlessly for the first two outs of the ninth inning, but pinch hitter Vic Davallillo, batting for pitcher Lance Rautzhan, dropped a bunt toward second for a single.

Manny Mota, who hit .395 as a pinch hitter for the Dodgers this season, then doubled off the left field screen. Left fielder Greg Luzinski just missed a leaping, one-hand catch.

Luzinski trapped the ball off the screen and threw to second, the ball skipping past Ted Sizemore for an error on the second baseman that allowed Davallillo to score and reduce the Phillies' lead to 5-4.

Lopes then smashed a grounder that bounced off third baseman Mike Schmidt to shortstop Larry Bowa. Bowa's throw to first appeared to nip Lopes, but first base umpire Bruce Froemming called the runner safe. The television instant replay showed first baseman Richie Hebner gloving the ball a split second before Lopes' foot hit the bag.

It was the second close decision Please Turn to Page 2.

McRae Rips
Yanks, 6-2

By Hal Bock

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Hal McRae, who infuriated the New York Yankees in the second game with two controversial slides, destroyed them with a pair of doubles that paced Kansas City to a 6-2 victory Friday night and a 2-1 lead in the American League championship playoff.

Dennis Leonard pitched a masterful four-hitter for the Royals' second victory in the best-of-five series, leaving Kansas City only one triumph away from its first World Series.

Amos Otis, angered by a lineup switch that benched him, delivered a clutch two-run pinch double that supplied the Royals' wrapup runs, but it was the two-base hits by McRae that dug the hole from which the Yankees never emerged.

McRae, whose 54 doubles during the regular season was the highest total for any American League player in 27 years, lashed lead-off two-baggers in the third and fifth innings and scored both times on infield outs by Al Cowens.

McRae had been credited Thursday night with awakening the Yankees by his aggressive slides into second baseman Willie Randolph and shortstop Bucky Dent. But Leonard put the Yankee bats right back to sleep with a powerful performance. He was in control throughout.

After Roy White doubled in the first inning but was out trying to stretch his hit, Leonard retired 12 Yankees in order, and by the time New York put another man on base, Kansas City had a lead it would never surrender.

The Royals nicked Yankees starter Mike Torrez for a run in the second. Please Turn to Page 2.

Dubuque Topples C.R. Kennedy, 7-6

Special to The Gazette

DUBUQUE — Cedar Rapids Kennedy's dreams of enjoying its first unbeaten football season were swept away in the wind and rain of Dalzell Field Friday night as the Cougars were shocked by Dubuque Senior 7-6.

Previously 4-0 and ranked fourth in both state polls, Kennedy suffered its first loss in its first venture on the road. The Cougars' previous four games had been played at Kingston Stadium.

And as a result of Kennedy's initial loss, there is a five-way tie for first place in the Mississippi Valley Conference football race. Tied with 3-1 records are all three C.R. teams — Jefferson, Kennedy and Washington — as well as Clinton and Dubuque Hempstead.

The Cougars, who never have won more than seven football games in a season, scored first. The touchdown came when halfback Tracy Crocker sped off-tackle for 58 yards with 2:46 left in the first quarter. But the extra-point kick was wide.

Senior, now 2-3, took the ensuing kickoff and marched 66 yards in 13 plays for the winning touchdown. The score, on Joe Kearney's two-yard plunge, came with 10:04 remaining in the first half. Bob Edwards kicked the decisive PAT.

Kennedy's Crocker, the leading rusher and leading scorer in the Mississippi Valley Conference, led all runners with 134 yards in 25 carries.

The senior scatback has rushed for 678 yards in five games.

"I didn't think the 7-6 lead would hold up," said Senior Coach Roger Bentley. "I was afraid all of the time that Crocker would break another one."

A key play in Senior's scoring drive was a 12-yard pass from Dave Metille to Rick Link in a third down-and-8 situation. And a personal foul on Kennedy moved the ball to the Cougars' 35-yard line.

From the 35, Kearney ran three times for 18 yards and Link passed to Troy Budde for 10 yards and to Link for 13.

Kennedy moved to the Senior 29 in the third quarter but gave up possession on downs.

On the last series of the game, Kennedy quarterback Kyle Galles completed a 20-yard pass to Crocker at the Cougars' 49. But two incompletions later, Link intercepted a Galles pass to end the threat.

Kennedy's loss, coupled with Ames' 7-6 win over previously-unbeaten Newton, narrowed the number of class 4A unbeaten teams to only Sioux City Heelan. The Crusaders routed Sioux City North 33-6 Friday night.

It marked Senior's second straight 7-6 victory, as the Rams edged Muscatine by the same score a week ago. In previous games, Senior had lost to Bettendorf 28-0, C.R. Washington 12-8 and Dubuque Hempstead 41-0.

carried the ball for the J-Hawks.

Trosky, the Mississippi Valley's fourth-best rusher with 358 yards going into the fray, capped a 57-yard Jeff march on its second possession with his 38-yard strike 5:42 into the first quarter.

Jeff Overpowers City High, 24-0

By Steve Allsop

Gazette Sports Writer

Jefferson High students will have to wait until today to find out who will reign as 1977 Homecoming queen.

That's because a steady rain of the wet variety washed out all the festivities Friday night in Kingston Stadium except the J-Hawks' methodical 24-0 Mississippi Valley Conference pounding of Iowa City.

"We worked all week on our passing game and had hoped to throw maybe 15 times tonight," sighed a soaked Jeff Coach Jack Fisk afterward. "But that rain just wiped out the game plan for both teams, I think."

"We were fortunate to get some breaks early when the field was in reasonably good condition. I just hope it's a dry track Thursday when we play Washington."

The thought of passing just a fancy, thanks to the wicked wet stuff, Jeff again relied on its relentless one-two running punch of Gregg Trosky and Ron Rooney.

Trosky was the workhorse in the first half, carrying 16 times for 105 yards and he scored on runs of 38 and one yards. Fisk sent in every available runner in the second half and Trosky's work was confined to three carries for three yards in the second half.

The other half of the touchdown twins, Rooney, added 52 yards in 13 carries and also scored on a one-yard bolt. All told, 13 different players

Iowa Shakes Up Its Lineup for Gophers

The losers often shake up their lineups, and that's what Iowa Coach Bob Commings plans to do at Iowa City today against Minnesota.

The game opens at 1:30 p.m. in Kinnick Stadium, and at least 3,000 tickets will be on sale.

The Hawkeyes will have at least six starters who are different from those who opened in the 37-16 loss at UCLA last Saturday night. They include:

1. Tom McLaughlin, who started in the opening win over Northwestern before being injured, re-won the No. 1 QB job ahead of Bob Commings Jr. with his performance against UCLA.

2. Leven Weiss was moved ahead of Mike Jackson at the right line-backer spot.

3. Shanty Burks took a spot at corner back in place of Rod Sears.

4. Cedric Shaw will be the strong safety in place of Chuck Danzy.

5. Steve Wagner regained his de-

6. Joe Willis has recovered from a sprained ankle and will open at defensive left tackle ahead of freshman John Hartly.

There could be even more changes, depending on the physical condition of several Hawks. Dean Moore, left linebacker, is still questionable with a sore leg.

But there is good news on injuries, too. Jon Lazar is ready to go full speed at fullback for the first time since spraining an ankle against Iowa State. He and Jim Arkeilpane both will be there. And Ernie Shee-

E. Buchanan Turns Back Starmont

STARMONT — Gary Cook scored on a ten-yard pass from Mark Dolan in the first overtime to give undefeated East Buchanan a 12-6 victory over Tri-Rivers conference rival Starmont in high school football Friday.

The loss was the first of the season for the Stars.

The game was fitting for a battle of unbeaten teams as Starmont totaled 149 yards in total offense while the Pirates amassed 139. Both teams accumulated seven first downs.

"The game was close all the way," said Starmont coach Ken Richard. "You couldn't ask for a better ball game."

Starmont drew first blood in the first quarter when Scott Green recovered a blocked punt in the end zone.

East Buchanan came back in the third period on a 15-yard pass from Dolan to Mickey Petersen.

That was all the scoring until Dolan hit Cook with his scoring toss on a third down play in the overtime.

Jones Is Out

CLEVELAND (AP) — Cleveland Browns rookie Ricky Jones, injured in last Sunday's 28-14 loss to the Pittsburgh Steelers, will be out of action for two to three weeks.

A team spokesman said Jones, from Tuskegee Institute, suffered "a bump in the groin area" against the Steelers. Doctors drained it and the minor operation will keep him out of action for a while.

Trade Walt Frazier To Cleveland Cavaliers

WALT FRAZIER, veteran all-pro guard of the New York Knicks, was traded to the Cleveland Cavaliers as compensation for backcourtman Jim Cleamons, it was reported in Saturday's editions of The New York Daily News. Cleveland, coached by Cedar Rapidsian Bill Fitch, has reportedly reached agreement with Cleamons on a multi-year contract for $250,000 a year. Frazier, who helped the Knicks to National Basketball Assn. championships in 1970 and 1973, is one of four men who share the league assist record for one playoff game, 19 against the Los Angeles Lakers in May, 1970.

Walt Frazier

drew from the Canadian Grand Prix auto race Friday.

Ray Floyd, laughing off a reported threat on his life, defeated Spain's Severiano Ballesteros, 2 and 1, Friday and advanced to the final (against Graham Marsh) of the $225,000 World Match Play golf tournament in Virginia Water, England. Cincinnati Reds pitcher Pedro Borbon has been ordered to appear in court for a preliminary hearing Oct. 11 on assault charges stemming from a nightclub incident the last day of the baseball season.

Ilie Nastase of Romania, Jame Fillof of Chile and Dutchman Look Sanders advanced Friday to the semifinals of the $100,000 World Star tennis tournament in Amsterdam. Amy Alcott of Santa Monica, Calif., carded five birdies Friday to grab the first-round lead with a four-under-par 68 in the LPGA Houston Exchange Club Classic. of the game that went against the Phils, the earlier one also costing them a run and the television replay showing the man was out at the plate.

Lopes advanced to second when Garber's attempted pickoff sailed past Hehner for an error on the pitcher.

Russell, whose two errors gave the Phillies four unearned runs in a 7-5 series-opening victory in Los Angeles Tuesday, ripped a single to center and Lopes eased home with the winning run as the delirious Dodgers poured out of the dugout and greeted the second baseman.

Rautzhan, a rookie left-handed reliever from Pottsville, Pa., got the last out in the eighth and retired the Phillies in the ninth to get the victory. And Garber, a Dodger killer in the regular season, took the loss. Garber beat the Dodgers twice during the regular season and earned the first playoff game victory. He had an earned run average of 0.82 against Los Angeles.

The victory put the Dodgers in a position to close out the Phillies in Saturday night's fourth game with 20-game winner Tommy John going against Phillies ace Steve Carlton, again at Philadelphia's Veterans Stadium. A fifth game, if necessary, would be played here Sunday.

Los Angeles took a 2-0 lead in the second inning. Steve Garvey lined a two-strike pitch into center for a single, the first hit of the game. Then, Dusty Baker, the grand-slam hero of the second-game Dodgers' victory, ripped a double into right center, scoring Garvey.

Although Garvey stumbled rounding second, Dodgers third base coach Preston Gomez waved the runner home as center fielder Garry Maddox fumbled the ball momentarily. Maddox threw to Bowe, whose accurate relay to catcher Bob Boone appeared to get Garvey.

Plate umpire Harry Wendelstedt called Garvey safe. But the television instant replay showed clearly that Garvey never touched the plate.

Rick Monday fled out to center, but Steve Yeager singled home Baker.

Burt Hooton, the Dodgers' starter, followed with a double to left, but Yeager was thrown out trying to score from first on the hit, Luzinski to Schmidt to Boone.

The Phillies, however, went ahead in the bottom of the second when Hooton suddenly lost his control and walked four consecutive batters, forcing home three runs. The Dodgers' pitcher became incensed on a pitch that Wendelstedt called a ball with Phillies starting pitcher Larry Christenson at bat. Hooton snapped at Wendelstedt, then walked to the back of the mound and glared into center field. He came back and walked Christenson, forcing home the first run.

and inning when designated hitter Joe Lahoud walked on a 3-2 pitch and moved to second on a single by Darrell Porter, who stroked New York pitching for a .438 average this season.

Freddie Patek then drilled a base hit to left, scoring Porter, and when White fumbled the ball, Kansas City had runners at second and third with just one out. Torrez escaped further trouble, however, by getting the next two batters.

But the Royals scored again in the third. McRae, leading off, bounced a one-hop double off the right field wall. He moved to third when George Brett legged out a single behind second base and scored on Cowens' bounce to first base.

It stayed 2-0 until the fifth as Leonard, one of only three American League pitchers to win 20 games this season, moved through the Yankees' batting order with ease. Then, with two out, Graig Nettles beat out a hit to shortstop, his first hit in 10 at-bats in the series.

Lou Piniella followed with a double to left center field, scoring Nettles and cutting the Royals' lead in half. Faced with his first and only spot of trouble until the Yankees scored a meaningless run in the ninth, Leonard responded by getting Willie Randolph on a ground ball, leaving the tying run stranded at second.

In the bottom of the fifth, Kansas City got the run right back. McRae, leading off again, drilled Torrez' first pitch to the wall in left field for his second double. Brett grounded out, moving McRae to third, and even a drawn-in infield couldn't prevent the run from scoring when Cowens hit a slow bouncer to third.

Donaldson at the Iowa City 31 midway in the second quarter paved the way to Trosky's one-yard TD smash with 8:11 remaining in the first half. Trosky contributed a 18-yard run to the drive.

Jeff's defense again got into the act moments later when linebacker Jerry Jordan picked off one of Andy Piro's two interceptions at the 35 and returned in 29 yards to the Iowa City six.

From there, Rooney punched in from a yard out and a two-point extra run made it 24-0 at half time. Ex-it all offensive machinery as the mud took its toll in the final 16 minutes.

Piro, the slender senior who had hit 23 of 33 passes for 263 yards to lead the Valley going in, hit six of 14, but for only 32 yards as the J-Hawk defense completely stymied the Little Hawks.

Burly 235-pound Iowa City full-back Scott Wilson logged 52 yards in 14 carries, but three Piro sacks helped check the Little Hawks to only 44 yards rushing.

Jeff hiked its Valley record to 3-1 and Iowa City fell to 1-3. The Little Hawks did block a Jeff punt just before half time and took over at the Jeff 16, but two pass attempts failed to yield a first down and a field goal attempt was missed from the 14.

C.R. Prairie Postponed

Anamosa Slips Past W. Delaware

MANCHESTER — John Fayram's extra-point kick in the first quarter was the margin of victory as Anamosa dealt West Delaware its first Wamac conference loss Friday night, 13-12.

Randy Messer rambled three yards for a touchdown in the fourth quarter to give Anamosa its fourth victory in five games. Anamosa and West Delaware are tied with 2-1 records in the Wamac.

Anamosa, which held its opponents to 98 yards total offense, took a 7-0 lead in the first quarter on a five-yard run by Tom Breashears and Fayram's kick.

Dan Lahr recovered a blocked punt in the end zone and Al Pasker caught a five-yard pass from Steve Burke for second-quarter touchdowns as West Delaware took a 12-7 halftime lead.

Anamosa, which lost its first league game to Wamac leader Monticello (26-6) last week, plays next Friday at home against Tipton, which was rained out at Monticello last night.

Maquoketa, which defeated Independence last night for its first Wamac win, hosts West Delaware next Friday.

Iowa Valley Wins in OT

VAN HORN — Benton Community remained winless and scoreless after dropping an 8-0 non-conference decision to Iowa Valley (2-3) in overtime Friday. Iowa Valley, which got inside the Benton six twice during regulation play, had first possession in the overtime and sent Dion Heller over from the two. Heller also ran the conversion.
