

Mims scores three in 41-28 Washington victory

By Steve Allspach
Gazette sports writer

Stranger games have probably occurred. But Wally Sheets had to ponder when one of his Cedar Rapids Washington football teams had been involved in a whackier one than the Warriors 41-28 homecoming conquest of Iowa City Friday night in Kingston Stadium.

"I hoped you enjoyed that game more than the Warrior coaching staff did," greeted Sheets when he met the press afterward. "I'm just glad it's over."

"We didn't play with much defensive intensity and emotion, but give Iowa City credit, they played a heckuva game."

Washington, now 5-1 in Mississippi Valley Conference play and 6-1 overall, made it look easy on the opening play of the game when quarterback Todd Stout hit Jim Holdren with a 74-yard touchdown pass.

But Clyde Bean's City High club, pesky all evening, came right back with a short 38-yard touchdown march capped by Tom Greenwald's five-yard touchdown run with 5:42 left in the quarter.

The contest was strictly offensive after that.

In the course of the first half, Stout hit Holdren with a 20-yard pass, had one pass intercepted in the end zone to thwart a drive and had one of his punt attempts blocked for a minus-13 yard net.

On the positive side, Wash's Bruce Mims scored the first of his three touchdowns on a four-yard run and Vernon Brown scooted 50 yards for a touchdown with 4:31 left in the half to give the Warriors a 19-14 edge.

Brown, ninth in the Valley in rushing with 302 yards going in, added 125 on 17 carries and also had a 28-yard run to inflate his total. Brown's 50-yarder capped a two-play blitz moments after Iowa City's Andy Piro hit Jerry Johnson with a 26-yard touchdown pass.

Piro came into the game carrying credentials as the Valley's top passer with 33 completions in 60 attempts for 345 yards, but he completed just four of 11 for 43 yards Friday night.

Meanwhile, Stout, fifth in Valley passing, drilled seven completions in 12 attempts for 204 yards, giving him a total of 583 in Valley games.

Wash led at halftime 19-14, but Iowa City scored on Kelly Evans' nine-yard run with 2:18 left in the third quarter for a 21-19 lead. Two plays before, Piro hit Pete Wilson with an apparent touchdown pass under a heavy rush, but one official inadvertently blew his whistle to stop the play.

City High tried again and an interference call and Evans' run put them in the lead momentarily.

Stout immediately propelled Wash right down the field, hitting Mims with passes of 14 and 15 yards, before Brown lost a yard. He then connected with Mims on a 30-yard TD pass with 59 seconds left in the quarter.

Iowa City scored again when Piro went 14 yards with 8:08 left in the game. That drive of 52 yards was helped along by Dirk Wilkening's 32-yard run on a fake punt and an exchange of fumbles.

Trailing 28-27, Wash's Mims retaliated immediately. He fielded the kickoff at his 28-yard line and scooted 72 yards for a touchdown with 7:54 left.

As a final encore, Wash fumbled Iowa City into scoring position 19 yards from a touchdown with 5:33 left, but Iowa City fumbled the ball right back to the Warriors.

Iowa City was backed up to its own seven-yard line with one second left, but Kyle Doolin intercepted a dippy-do halfback pass at the 25 and ran it in for the final touchdown.

Center Point rolls over Central City

CENTER POINT — Bruce Squires and Russell Rabik each scored two touchdowns as Center Point upped its record to 6-1, 5-1 in the Tri-Rivers conference, with a 46-0 romp over Central City in prep football Friday night.

Center Point also scored on a 45-yard punt return by Larry McNeal and on Tim Weyant's one-yard run. Tim Mackey and Squires combined for 217 of the 308 Center Point yards rushing.

Central City is 1-6.

Springville win

STRAWBERRY POINT — Rick Possehl scored on three short runs, including a fourth-quarter one-yard plunge, to pace Springville (5-2) to a 21-19 win over Starmont (4-3) in a Tri-Rivers Conference football contest Friday night.

Craig Baumgartner, Bob Hoffman, and Joe Hoeffler scored for Starmont respectively.

E.B. wins 38-6

WINTHROP — East Buchanan blitzed Alburett 38-6 in prep football action Friday night. Tim Connolly and Mick Peterson each scored two touchdowns for the winners and Peterson had a hand in a third as he tossed a TD pass to Dave Cook.

Brown runs for TD

Washington's Vernon Brown ran for a touchdown in this action Friday night at Kingston stadium. Wash broke away late for a 41-28 Mississippi Valley Conference victory.

Jefferson romps past winless I.C. West, 47-0

IOWA CITY — Cedar Rapids Jefferson thumped winless Iowa City West 47-0 in a Mississippi Valley conference football game here Friday night.

The J-Hawks scored four touchdowns via passes in the contest and racked up 198 yards in the air.

Randy Trachta hurled three touchdown passes to Greg Trosky in the first half as the J-Hawks rolled to a 27-0 half-time lead. Perry Harris picked off an errant West pass and scampered 33 yards for a score in the third period.

Trachta and Trosky hooked up for 161 yards passing on six completions in the game. Jefferson quarterbacks were 10 of 14 in the passing department.

Trosky hauled in screen passes of 29 and 27 yards and anchored a 55-yard scoring toss for the winners. Trosky's 29-yard grab was the result of a 71-yard drive in the first quarter.

Trosky also led the Jefferson rushing attack with 50 yards on eight carries. The J-Hawks, substituting liberally in the second half, used eleven running backs in the game.

Jefferson, now 4-2 in MVC play and 4-3 overall, held the Trojans to three yards rushing. West managed just 49 yards total offense against the rugged J-Hawk defenders.

West recorded four first downs to Jefferson's 17. Both teams were plagued by penalties, as Jeff was rapped for 110 yards and West was charged with 85 yards in penalties.

The Trojans' closest penetration was to the J-Hawk 34-yard line early in the first period. The J-Hawks responded with a 66-yard scoring drive on eleven plays. Ron Rooney capped the march with a five-yard plunge.

Steve West and Scott Hoover each scored on short runs for the J-Hawks in the second half.

Eric Johnson was successful on five of seven extra point attempts.

Coe tops Grinnell

GRINNELL — Mounting an impenetrable defense against favored Grinnell, Coe handed the Pioneers their first Midwest Conference soccer loss, 1-0, here Friday to lock Coe and Grinnell in a tie for second in the Southern Division. The two clubs are 2-1, half a game behind defending champion Knox (2-0).

Coe Coach Mike Steitzer credited his five fullbacks with the defensive effort which produced the victory after Satoshi Matsumoto booted Coe's goal in the first half. Mark Kannowski deflected several shots on goal, including a penalty kick with four minutes left. "But Kurt Bergman, Bill See, Pete Sepe and Gary Honson also were mainstays in the unbelievable defensive effort that was the finest Coe has seen in several seasons," Steitzer said.

Kennedy escapes Bettendorf, 14-7

BETTENDORF — Underdog Bettendorf gave Cedar Rapids Kennedy a mild scare in the late going, but the Cougars, with Pete Oates and Tracy Crocker providing a domineering ground attack, survived it to register their sixth win in seven starts, 14-7, Friday night.

Kennedy is 5-1 in Mississippi Valley action. Bettendorf dropped to 4-3, all in the conference.

Fullback Oates and halfback

Crocker combined for 248 yards rushing — 10 more than the Cougars' team net — and split scoring honors.

Oates rushed 25 times for 123 yards, Crocker 29 for 125.

Kennedy mounted an impressive drive from its own 41 in the first period, moving to a first down at the Bettendorf four on 15 rushes and one of its three unsuccessful passes.

The drive ended when Crocker was stopped for no gain at the five.

Having failed to score the hard way, Kennedy made good an opportunity to do it with help.

The opportunity came when the Cougars' Mike Vance forced a fumble by Bulldog quarterback Clay Erickson. Jeff Payton recovered for Kennedy at the Bettendorf 26, and it took the Cougars just four plays to cash in.

Oates gained 15, then swept left end for the final seven.

Denny McDonnell followed with the first of his two PAT kicks.

As the third period wound down, Kennedy went 55 yards on 10 carries by Oates and Crocker, with Crocker going the last yard 1:14 from the end of the quarter.

At that juncture, Bettendorf had just four first downs and hadn't put two together.

But, starting from their own 27 after the kickoff, the Bulldogs put four together, and the last one took them all the way when a Kennedy defensive back fell down, permitting Drew Starenko to escape for 38 yards with an Erickson pass.

After Nate Smith converted, Bettendorf's inside kick attempt dribbled only five yards. However, Kennedy couldn't capitalize on its favorable field position and punted to the Bulldog 23, with 4:23 left in the game.

Erickson promptly passed 20 yards to Steve Kraft and 11 to Ben Leedle. That scare ended when Erickson was sacked for a loss of 10.

Kennedy had to punt again, and with 52 seconds left Bettendorf began its final fling from its own 28. Randy Schultz snuffed it out by intercepting Erickson and returning to the Bulldog two.

Strong passing lets Marion score 28-14 win

By Larry Tanner
Gazette reporter

MANCHESTER — Marion rode the strong passing arms of Larry Atwater and Steve Schone to dump West Delaware 28-14 in a Wamac Conference game here Friday night.

The two quarterbacks completed 11 of 17 attempts, including one scoring pass, to move the Indians' record to 4-1 in the Wamac and 5-2 overall.

West Delaware dropped to 3-2 in the league and 3-4 overall.

After a 14-14 standoff in the first half, Marion marched 67 yards in just nine plays with halfback Brad McAreavy piling into the end zone from the two with 7:59 left in the third period.

Marion iced the contest with 7:29 left in the final quarter when Atwater sneaked in from the one. A 14-yard Atwater to Tom Turner pass set up the score.

The Indians got the chance to score when Al Zalaznik, a defensive end, recovered a fumble on the Manhawk 31-yard line.

Marion scored first in the game when Schone hit end Sean Mooney on a 6-yard scoring pass with 7:14 to go in the first quarter of the Wamac conference game.

The Manhawks hit Marion with two quick scores in retaliation. Lee Logan picked up an Indian fumble on the Marion 29 and ran the ball into the end zone with 1:59 left in the first period.

Marion then fumbled the ensuing kickoff on its own 23-yard line and the Manhawks again recovered. Quarterback Steve Burke connected with wingback Rick Sedgwick on a touchdown pass with 1:31 to go in the period.

A blocked punt set the Indians up for their second period touchdown.

Mark Klopstein picked up the blocked punt on the Manhawk 45 and legged it all the way to the one-yard line.

Atwater then sneaked into the end zone for the score with 2:31 left in the half.

The victory kept Marion in the running for Wamac conference honors, just a half game off the pace of unbeaten Monticello.
