It's all hash today

• Iowa's football team won't be on live TV today, but the Nebraska game may be seen delayed on several channels.

WMT (Cedar Rapids) and KDUB (Dubuque) will show it at 10:30 tonight, and WQAD (Moline) at 10:50. ESPN Network will carry it at several times Sunday (see Gazette listing). The game highlights will be among those on ABC-TV's "College Football 80," and because of a time problem it won't be on KCRG until 12:55 a.m. Monday (that's right: 55 minutes after midnight).

The Hayden Fry Show, also featuring highlights, will be seen on numerous Iowa channels, including KCRG at 6:30 p.m. Monday.

• Poor Cubs! They have to withstand the slings and arrows of outrageous fortune, plus some snide remarks.

John Jenney said his son asked what the Mets and Cubs were playing for on TV. "For worst place, I guess," John replied.

And Jack Stuhr even suggests there should be an asterisk placed in the record book for the feat of Bill Gullickson of Montreal when he achieved a rookie record by having 18 strikeouts recently because it was against the Cubs.

• Johnny Orr, Iowa State basketball coach, will speak in Cedar Rapids Tuesday — at Coe's Public Events Series, 11 a.m. in Sinclair Auditorium, free to the public.

Hmm, too bad one of Johnny's long-range critics can't be there to debate him. Al Grady, longtime sports columnist of the Iowa City Press-Citizen, is recovering from his third heart attack.

Before he was hospitalized last summer, Al scolded Johnny in print for his chutzpah in going around the state boasting about having a 10-2 record against Iowa's Lute Olson when he (Johnny) was at Michigan. Johnny retaliated by scolding Al in several speeches in Eastern Iowa.

• You can't weigh Nebraska's football strength entirely on the basis of its 55-9 opening landslide over Utah. The Utes were ambushed in their opener by Boise State 28-7.

Boise State, a Division I-AA school, lost its next game to Southeast Louisiana 17-13.

"We've played big teams before and haven't been beaten by big scores in others years," said Utah Coach Wayne Howard. "Nebraska is the best football team we've faced since we've been at Utah. This is supposed to be our best team. Even my first year, when these seniors were freshmen, we didn't get beat this bad by Oklahoma."

• Argentina's Guillermo Vilas beat Australia's Paul McNamee 6-4, 6-0, 6-0 in the Sicilian Grand Prix tennis final recently.

What was remarkable was that McNamee didn't win a single point in the final two sets.

Now that's really love!

• The Oakland Raiders filled questionnaires asking such things as their choice for the best dressed player, best restaurant in NFL cities, choice for the best network announcers, etc.

John Madden, the Raiders' former coach, was the team's choice for best announcer. Only unanimous pick of all the answers was the choice of "worst network TV annoucer." Sorry, Howard.

• Mark Malone, Pittsburgh Steelers' sub QB and No. 1 draft choice, on the way Terry Bradshaw throws a football:

"The rotation is unreal. Most people, when they try to throw real hard, get a wobble, but not him. It looks like it was painted on canvas."

• Eastern Iowans of Czech descent can take pride in the number of outstanding tennis players in the small country of Czechoslovakia.

Martina Navratilova, 24, started it when she defected to the U.S. five years ago and battled her way to the No. 1 world ranking among women players. Latest sensation, of course, was Hana Mandlikova, 18-year-old gal who lost to Chris Evert in the U.S. final.

Then there are Regina Marsikova, 22, and Renata Tomanova, 25. Best of the Czech men is Ivan Lendl, 20, seeded 10th in the U.S. Open. Another is Stanislov Birner.

Kennedy's Kevin Lukes picks his way through the Jefferson defense after catching a pass Friday night.

Kennedy shocks Jeff, 12-0

By Mark Dukes
Gazette sportswriter

Cedar Rapids Kennedy's objective in its football game Friday night against Metro rival Jefferson was to gain self-respect, but the Cougars gained more than that.

Outplayed in the first quarter, Kennedy completely shut off Jefferson's offense in the final three quarters while the Cougar offense produced two touchdowns in a 12-0 victory.

About 5,000 fans watched at Kingston Stadium as Kennedy scored only its third victory in 14 meetings with Jefferson. The J-Hawks had been ranked No. 5 in the state by AP and No. 6 by UPI.

It also marked Kennedy's first triumph over Jefferson since a 14-13 in 1977.

Kennedy Coach Greg Reed was asked if it was one of the school's biggest victories in recent years.

"No, but it's the biggest victory this week," said Reed, whose team is 2-1. "Our theme this week was 'self respect.' After we lost a close one to Regis and beat Dubuque Wahlert, everyone was saying this is just another Kennedy football team. We just wanted to prove something to ourselves."

The proof was in the last three quarters. In the scoreless first period, Jefferson led Kennedy in first downs 5-0, rushing yards 87-4, offensive plays 19-3 and time of possession 9:47 to 2:13.

But in the last 36 minutes, the Cougars dominated the game in the following ways:

- First downs, 16-4.
- Rushing yards, 160 to minus-2.
- Offensive plays, 49-22.
- Time of possession, 24:21 to 11:49.

"In the first half, we had only two good defensive plays and those were on fourth down near the goal line," Reed said. "I think we were awed by the big Jefferson tradition. All we asked at halftime was to execute, and we did."

It was the first time Jefferson had been shut out since Davenport Central scored a 12-0 win in the 1978 season opener. J-Hawk Coach Jack Fisk also pointed to the first quarter in assessing the loss.

"If we had scored in the first quarter, it might have been different," Fisk said. "We definitely had our chances because we had the field position, but we didn't take advantage of it. In the second half, we just didn't play like we should have."

Jefferson (2-1) took the opening kickoff and drove 68 yards in 15 plays, but quarterback Jeff Shaver was stopped for no gain on a fourth-and-goal sneak from the one-yard line. Fullback Jon Witting carried 10 times for 50 yards in the drive, but his number was called only three more times the rest of the game.

The J-Hawks got the ball back two minutes later and drove from the Kennedy 38 to the 3 before Gary Schmidt led a pack of Cougar defenders in stopping QB John Forrest one yard shy of the goal on fourth down.

Jefferson gained possession next at the Kennedy 13, as Jeff Levy recovered a fumbled punt. The Cougar defense rose to the challenge again, though, as Greg Spicher sacked Scott McEowen for a six-yard loss and Schmidt nailed Forrest for minus-16.

Mark McClintic, who was a questionable starter at quarterback as late as Thursday, directed Kennedy to a pair of 80-yard scoring drives within a period of 12 minutes, 10 seconds.

On it first possession of the second half, Kennedy marched to a touchdown in 11 plays with McClintic sneaking the final yard. Second-team fullback Tom Myers ran for 28 yards in the series while McClintic passed for 10 and ran for 11.

After the Cougar defense held Jefferson on downs, the offense embarked on a 13-play march capped again by a one-yard McClintic sneak. The running of McClintic for 32 yards and Myers for 17 were instrumental.

In the final 31 minutes, Jefferson's deepest threat was to the Kennedy 35 as Fisk used three quarterbacks (Shaver, Forrest and Todd Moore) in an attempt to find an offensive combination.

Myers was Kennedy's leading rusher with 48 yards in nine carries, while McClintic added 36 in 15, Joel Smith 35 in 12 and Spicher 33 in three. Witting led all rushers with 65 yards in 13 carries, but no other J-Hawk runner gained more than 13.

Kevin Lukes was on the receiving end of four of McClintic's six completions, totaling 28 yards.

C.R. Wash makes it look easy, wins 35-0

IOWA CITY — After two weeks of hitting the road, Iowa City High's Little Hawks came home to Frank Bates Field.

There was only one problem. Top-ranked Cedar Rapids Washington was at there at the gate, without a welcome mat.

The Warriors (3-0) unleashed a fierce pass rush, led by defensive end Doug Burrell and defensive tackle Dave Lindner, to go with well-oiled offensive tools to sail to a 35-0 victory and their second straight Mississippi Valley Conference triumph.

"We got our heads together in practice this week," said Lindner, a 6-foot, 200-pound senior. "Our pass rush was better."

First year City High coach Larry Brown agreed, as his Little Hawks fell to 1-2.

"This wasn't a very good way to come home," said Brown. "We didn't do a very good job preparing for Washington. In this league, you have to be able to run the ball."

City High was pinned to a minus 56 yards rushing.

"We worked too much on passing this week. Washington has a heck of a team and when you stop one thing, they hurt you with another. Their quarterback (Pat Dale) was doing a good job of faking, tying our linebackers."

Dale lit up the sky passing, when City High closed down the space on the ground. The 6-1 senior completed eight of 15 passes for 127 yards, with one interception. Senior wide receiver Randy Luter hauled in four passes for 61 yards. The other member of the Warrior arsenal, tailback Greg Bjornsen, was held to his lowest rushing total of the season, carrying 20 times for 77 of his team's 127 yards.

But that didn't matter, as he scored three touchdowns, two on a pair of one-yard runs in the first half, and finished with one more TD one following an Ed Mims' interception with a 13-yard dash around right end in the fourth quarter.

Ex-Hawk Speraw accepts Denver job

DENVER (AP) — Kirk Speraw, a former University of Iowa basketball player, has been named an assistant coach at Denver University.

Speraw, who starred at Sioux City North High School, will be an assistant to Floyd Theard, a one-time member of the Iowa staff. After leaving Iowa, Theard coached at Kentucky State before taking the Denver job earlier this year.

Although Speraw earned a degree in business finance, he said coaching "has been in the back of my mind for some time and this is a good chance to take a shot at it and see if I like it."

Iowa, ISU finish 'tuning up' today

Iowa and Iowa State will finish tuning up for next week's meeting in Iowa's Kinnick Stadium by playing games today.

Iowa will play in one of the headline games of the nation when the Hawkeyes invade sixth-rated Nebraska in Lincoln, Neb., at 1:30 p.m. today. It will be the 107th consecutive sellout at Lincoln with more than 76,000 expected.

Iowa State will host a dangerous, pass-minded San Jose State team at 1:30 p.m. at Ames. The stadium is expected to be close to a 50,000 sellout.

In other games around the state, Coe will play one of its rare night games when the Kohawks host Beloit at 7:30 tonight in Kingston Stadium; Cornell will host Ripon, playing under its new coach, Wayne Phillips, formerly of Coe, at 1:30 at Ash Park in Mount Vernon; Drake will play at Lamar in Texas, and seven non-conference games are slated in the Iowa Conference, as follows:

Loras at Luther, Upper Iowa at St. Thomas (Minn.), Buena Vista at Northwestern (Iowa), Simpson at St. Ambrose, Minnesota-Morris at Dubuque, Milton-Wisconsin at Wartburg and Central Methodist at William Penn.

Iowa Coach Hayden Fry announced a 60-man travel squad that had only two changes from last week's trip to Indiana. George Person replaced Jim Frazier in the defensive backfield, and Mike Hooks took Straun Joseph's spot at defensive end.

Iowa Travel Squad

Illinois QB will play today

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (UPI) — A three-judge state appeals court Friday cleared the way for University of Illinois quarterback Dave Wilson to play in today's game against Missouri.

Wilson's attorney, Robert Auler, said Wilson would catch a flight late Friday to Columbia, Mo., to participate in the Illini's third game of the season. Wilson did not attend Friday's hearing.

Attorneys for the Big Ten would not say what their next step might be but said conference officials would be immediately notified of the court's ruling.

The judges, in a 2-1 decision, granted an emergency injunction, in essence overturning a Champaign County circuit judge's order that Wilson was ineligible to play for Illinois. Wilson's attorneys and supporters burst into applause after the decision was announced following just 35 minutes of deliberation.

In its written opinion issued shortly thereafter, the appeals court said too many serious "issues of constitutional dimensions" needed to be settled in the case. The court noted that Wilson likely would win in a full trial.

"Accordingly he is entitled to an injunction until the final adjudication," the 4th District Appellate Court said.

Questions of Wilson's eligibility center around a lack of sufficient academic credit hours.

Kennedy runners 3rd at Cedar Falls

CEDAR FALLS — Randy Moore finished third individually as the Cedar Rapids Kennedy boys cross country team placed third in the Tiger Invitational Friday.

Waverly-Shell Rock won the meet with 33 points as it had both the first and second-place finishers — Dan Houston and Dave Alexander. Waterloo Columbus finished second.

Kennedy won the junior varsity meet as the Cougars' John Powrie took first individually.

Team scores

Waverly-Shell Rock 33, Waterloo Columbus 66, C.R. Kennedy 67, Cedar Falls 77, Charles City 102.

Kennedy place-winners

Randy Moore, 3rd; Craig Dzonski, 13th; Paul Natvig, 14th; Dave Campbell, 18th; Kurt Subra, 19th.

Marion sophs win

Jeff Wisehart and Dave Klein scored two touchdowns apiece to lead the Marion sophomore football team to a 34-0 win over West Delaware Friday night.

Wisehart returned the opening kickoff 75 yards for a score and later added a 7-yard TD run. Steve Panek also tallied for the Indians on a 25-yard run.

Marion is now 2-0-1 on the year.

Jeff sophs win

Al Schmitz and Steve Wise both scored touchdowns Friday night as the Cedar Rapids Jefferson sophomore football team remained unbeaten with a 14-0 victory over Kennedy.

Schmitz scored on a 33-yard run and Wise notched a three-yard TD run for Jeff. Kennedy is now 1-1-1 on the season.

Prairie prevails

VAN HORNE — John Shebetka, Charlie Brown and Brent Osland all scored touchdowns to spark the Prairie sophs to a 32-0 win over Benton Community in football action Friday night.

Chris Milke hauled in a scoring pass from Bill Shebetka for the Hawks other touchdown.

Prairie is now 2-0-1 on the year.

Brett raises mark to .400

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (UPI) — George Brett singled twice to raise his average to .400 for the first time since Sept. 4, knocked in two runs and scored two others Friday night to spark the Kansas City Royals to a 13-3 rout of the Oakland A's.

Brett collected his 13th game-winning RBI of the season with a sacrifice fly in the first to give the Royals a 1-0 lead off loser Brian Kingman, 7-19, and then singled in his next two at-bats to move his average from .398 to .401. He flew out in the sixth and then struck out in the seventh to fall to .3995037 — which rounds out to .400.

Matthews signs

FORT MEADE, Md. (UPI) — The Washington Bullets and their No. 1 draft pick, Wisconsin guard Wes Matthews, agreed to terms Friday ending a three-week holdout.

Matthews, 6-foot-1, gave up his senior season at Wisconsin to enter the NBA. He was a second-team all-Big 10 selection averaging 18.1 points for his three seasons with the Badgers.

Hawkeye field hockey team wins

IOWA CITY — Kelly Flanagan scored both Iowa goals as the Hawkeyes topped Western Illinois 2-0 in a women's four team field hockey tournament here Friday. Iowa defeated Ohio State 1-0 in a game played earlier in the day.
