West didn't score again until the fourth quarter when reserve quarterback Karl Rosenberg slipped going back to past and fell in the end zone for a safety. The first three quarters was all White and Co.

In one stretch the first half, White completed 10 passes in a row including a 27-yard TD pass to Kyle Akers with 6:06 left in the first half. But the play which seemed to break West came with one second to play in the half. White dropped back to fire a 37-yard pass in the end zone to Happel, who leaped between three defenders - Tom Svare, Lanaghan and Thad Collins — and grab the ball for his eighth scoring reception of the season and a 27-6 halftime cushion.

Washington finished its scoring with a pair of third quarter TD's. Fullback Randy Nelson scored on a three-yard run, then White completed his record-shattering series before Coach Wally Sheets gave him the rest of the night off. Wide receiver Berkhof clutched the record 19th pass, a 13-yard scoring play following a scrambling run by White.

"At halftime, he (White) promised me he would get a touchdown pass to me," said Berkhof, who celebrated his first TD of the year. "The line gave Brad time and I'd call the passing awesome tonight."
