Jane Boyd boxers at Midwest Regional meet

DeWayne Downs and Juan Ruiz of the Jane Boyd Boxing Club will spearhead Iowa's hopes at the Amateur Boxing Federation Midwest Regional today and Sunday in Fort Dodge.

Downs captured the state's 156-pound Open Class title last weekend in Fort Dodge by decisioning Dave Plum of Monroe, Iowa, in the final. Ruiz, the state's 112-pound open class champ, went unopposed in his final bout.

Jane Boyd's Vincent Brown, 147-pound open class state runnerup, and 125-pound open class state champion Bobby Amsler of the Cedar Rapids Boxing Club, also advanced to regional competition.

IOWA CITY - Look out, Batman and Robin! A new dynamic duo has emerged for Iowa City High as the Little Hawks slipped by Kennedy, 14-13, Friday night.

Senior running backs Jeff Beard and John Summers sparked Coach Larry Brown's high-flying Little Hawks.

The fleet 5-foot-5 inch, 130-pound Summers carried the ball 18 times for 145 yards while his sidekick, the 6-3, 230-pound Beard, crashed and smashed to 101 yards on 20 carries including 2 touchdowns.

Summers was also named "Homecoming King" at a halftime ceremony that he could not attend.

"Someone told me right before the kickoff that I was king,' Summers said. "I felt honored and it might have made me more determined but the line opening the big holes is what helped the most."

With 1:53 left in the fourth quarter City High scored the goahead touchdown when Beard busted over from the four-yard line. Jim Dreusicki added the extra point kick, which would prove to be the winning margin. The touchdown was set up by a Rusty Stutzman interception at the Little Hawks' 44vard line.

After the Little Hawks failed on two plays from scrimmage Summers broke loose for a 21-yard gain to the Cougar 35-yard line. Three plays later Summers again broke open for 18 more yards to put the ball on the Cougar four-yard line. Following the kickoff Kennedy took over at its own 23-yard line. Larry Thomas hit Jeff Hrubes for an eight yard gain. Iowa City was hit with an unsportsmanlike conduct penalty putting the ball on the Cougars' 45-yard line. Thomas was then sacked on the ensuing play for an eight yard loss. Thomas then

Regis clips Columbus

WATERLOO - Junior quarterback Andy Scott engineered a pair of first-quarter scoring drives as Cedar Rapids Regis downed Waterloo Columbus, 12-6, in prep football Friday night.

Scott, who connected on 16-of-32 passes for 198 yards, marched the Royals 67 yards on their first possession. Fullback Matt Chute's one-yard scoring plunge capped the drive, which was highlighted by three pass completions for first downs to split end Kirk Haefner.

On its second possession, Regis went 78 yards for what proved to be the game-winning touchdown. Scott, who was intercepted twice, carried the final four yards.

Haefner, a 6-6, 185-pound senior, caught eight Scott tosses for 111 yards. Running back Brad Stovie led the Royals' ground attack, which produced 159 yards, with 82 yards on 14 carries.

The win boosted Regis' already slim Class 3A playoff hopes. The Royals (5-2), after dropping their first two games, have now won five straight. The loss dropped Columbus to 3-4.

Pete Kramer scored Columbus' lone touchdown on a one-yard burst

Mt. Pleasant easily handled Cedar Rapids Prairie Friday night in high school football, 35-13.

The Hawks (0-7) had several opportunities to score against the highly-touted 3A team, but failed to cross the goal line until the fourth quarter. A tough Mt. Pleasant goalline stand in the second quarter and scoring opportunities. Prairie scored early in the fourth quarter when Dave Grabe passed 31 yards to Kevin Schoner. The Hawks' final score came with just :04 remaining when Grabe threw a screen pass to Jim Mann, who ran 55 vards to paydirt. Mt. Pleasant is 7-0.
