

Regis runs roughshod over Ottumwa, 35-6

By John Millea
Gazette sportswriter

There is a natural order to life: birds fly, fish swim, trains roll and Regis runs.

The Royals run for daylight, run for yardage, run for touchdowns and then run off the football field with another victory tucked away.

Such was the case Friday night when Regis ran all over Ottumwa, 35-6, at the Prairie High School field. The Royals, improving to 4-2, rang up 287 yards on the ground, with Doug White netting 123 in 10 carries and Roy Martin gaining 107 in 17 rushes.

White's total included a 70-yard touchdown journey that gave Regis a 20-0 halftime lead.

"I'm real pleased with everything," said Regis Coach Tom Good. "Our backs are up against the wall; we're fighting to stay in the playoff picture and every game is a must."

Martin and starting quarterback Jim Lensing each scored on one-yard runs in the first half, as did reserve quarterback Andy Scott in the fourth quarter. The other Regis touchdown came on a third-quarter, 11-yard toss from Lensing to Dave Downey.

The Bulldogs (3-3), stepping out of the Southeast Seven Conference, got on the board when linebacker Chris Goodwin raced 86 yards for a touchdown after intercepting a Scott pass in the fourth period.

Regis' domination included 20 first downs to Ottumwa's 10 and a 385-136 edge in total yardage. The Bulldogs picked up just 80 yards on the ground.

"They've got a good football team, and we knew that going in," said Ottumwa Coach Dave Clement. "They were just too physical for us."

"They just completely controlled the line of scrimmage, and when you do that you win football games."

Regis, rebounding from a 14-6 loss to Cedar Rapids Washington, opened the scoring after forcing two Ottumwa punts. A drive that began with a 15-yard burst by Martin was helped along when White crashed up the middle for 17, and two plays later Martin caught a 17-yard pass from Lensing to reach the Ottumwa two-yard line. Back-to-back one-yard plunges by Martin put the ball in the end zone.

On the Royals' next possession, Downey made a sliding catch for a 20-yard pickup, Greg Lorei ran for 26 on the next play and Lensing then slid in from one yard out for a 14-0 lead.

After Ed Walter picked off an Ottumwa pass and was brought down at his own 30, White's 70-yard scoring run made it 20-0.

Meanwhile, Ottumwa reached Royal territory just twice in the first half, but those drives ended with Walter's interception and a lost fumble at the 13.

In the second half, Downey's 11-yard touchdown grab capped a 73-yard third-period march and Scott's one-yarder put the lid on a 66-yard drive in the final quarter.

Ottumwa was limited to just two second-half first downs, and none until only 1:45 remained in the third quarter.

Ottumwa had lost to Fort Madison (31-30) and Burlington (24-13) before meeting the Royals.

"Regis is better than anybody we've played but Burlington, without a doubt," said Clement, "and they were probably just as good tonight. But it's so hard to tell, because we just played so flat."

That's something Regis — which will tangle with Waterloo Columbus Thursday — wasn't accused of.

"Our kids really wanted this one and they went out and got it," said Good . . . as his team ran (of course) off the field.

DRIVE STOPPER — Dubuque Hempstead's Kelly Mudge (right) intercepts a Brian Dixon pass in the second quarter Friday night at Kingston Stadium, after stepping in front of Kennedy receiver Paul Goode (21). Mudge's defensive heroics set up an early Hempstead touchdown. Goode finished with eight catches for 123 yards. Hempstead rolled to a 37-14 Mississippi Valley Conference football victory.

Cougars bitten by Hempstead, 37-14

By Bob Denney
Gazette sportswriter

For a three-quarter span Friday night, the brightest lights in Kingston Stadium were the Pepsodent smile of Cedar Rapids Kennedy homecoming queen Sharon Martin and the reflection of a Dubuque Hempstead helmet crashing through a Kennedy defensive line.

Hempstead's Mustangs, looking like the Mississippi Valley Conference powerhouse of old and not the .500 club it had become, rang up 21 second-quarter points to post an easy 37-14 football victory over Kennedy.

The win boosted Hempstead to 3-3 overall and 2-2 in the league. Kennedy, which dipped to 1-5 and 1-4, survived the thrashing by achieving two important goals before heading to the homecoming dance: salvaging respect and finding a new quarterback.

The Cougars, with No. 1 quarterback Larry Thomas transferring last week to Jefferson, went to junior Brian Dixon who was intercepted twice, but passed for 211 yards and one touchdown in his first varsity start. Dixon completed 16 of 25 passes, including a seven-yard TD to Tim Moen and a conversion pass. He was 8 of 13 for 123 yards the second half.

"I thought Brian handled himself real well, and I felt our entire team's attitude this week was as good going into the game as I've ever seen it," said Kennedy Coach Al Stiers. "But Hempstead is a team that if given an inch will open the flood gates on you. We had a letdown in the second quarter, found ourselves in a hole and were late getting started."

Kennedy scored its two TDs in the final seven minutes, and almost trimmed the deficit on the final play of the game when Steve Burke's dive was short from the one.

Senior tailback Mike Waters led Hempstead and all rushers with 70 yards on 12 carries, while scoring on touchdown runs of 35 and one yard.

Kennedy's defense was put in a hole on the opening kickoff when Kevin Shetler returned the ball to the Cougars' 30, but stiffened in time before Tom Ottavi booted a 27-yard field goal.

The Cougars dug its second-quarter hole after Dixon was intercepted by Kelly Mudge at the Cougar 48. Eight plays later, Eric Bredesen crashed in from the one. Kennedy again failed to move on offense, and Hempstead needed only two plays before Shetler brook loose up the middle on a 40-yard scoring jaunt with 5:24 left in the half. Waters intercepted a Dixon pass with 3:58 left, and then lined up for a 25-yard run to make it 24-0 at halftime.

Hempstead padded its lead with a 32-yard scoring run by Dave Kohl four minutes into the third quarter. Kennedy's Brad Pospisil, who leads the Valley in interceptions (6), stopped the next Hempstead drive at the Cougars' 49, but failed to ignite a rally.

Hempstead again thrust ahead, marching 87 yards in 13 plays, with Waters scoring from the one with 9:33 left to play. Kennedy got on the scoreboard with an eight-play, 66-yard drive of its own. Dixon, under heavy pressure, hit Paul Goode for a 14-yard gain and Scott Shaffer for another 14. Goode was the No. 5 receiver in the Valley last week, and picked up eight catches for 123 yards.

Blaine Shaffer scored two plays later on an eight-yard run around left end.

UNI hopes to rebound against Whitewater

CEDAR FALLS (AP) — Northern Iowa's football team will try to bounce back from its first loss of the season when the Panthers host Wisconsin-Whitewater tonight.

UNI is 4-1 after a 40-10 setback at Southern Illinois last week. The Panthers went into that game ranked 11th nationally in NCAA Division I-AA, but they fell out of the top 20 this week.

Wisconsin-Whitewater is ranked third in Division III, and UNI Coach Darrell Mudra said the Warhawks will be a tough opponent. Whitewater, which brings a 5-1 record into the UNI-Dome, is working on its eighth straight winning season and 26th in the last 29 years.

"This will not be a breather for us," Mudra said. "Every game now is a key one for us. They'll have a tough time in the Dome and we have the advantage of having played a tougher schedule."

Mudra said he did not expect to go through the season undefeated, but added the Panthers may not make the Division I-AA playoffs if they lose another game.

The running game is Whitewater's strength. Tailback Mike Miller has rushed for at least 100 yards in eight of his last 10 games and his 108 yards in last week's 58-7 rout of Wisconsin-Superior gave him a school record 2,277 for his career. Miller suffered a pulled hamstring in that last game, however, and will be held out of action this week.

Linn-Mar rallies by Benton

VAN HORNE — Bill Marko ran for one touchdown and fired a 26-yard pass to Bill Stroschein for another to lead Linn-Mar to a 26-14 come-from-behind victory over Benton Community in an East Central Iowa Conference football game Friday night.

Benton Community took a 14-13 lead in to the locker room at halftime, largely behind the running of Shawn Pfiffner. Pfiffner piled up 141 of the Bobcats' 207 yards rushing and scored on a 74-yard dash that gave the Bobcats their one-point halftime lead.

But Marko, who connected on five of nine passes for 140 yards for the game, came back to score on a one-yard plunge in the third quarter and connected with Stroschein on a 26-yard scoring strike in the fourth, to rally the Lions.

Linn-Mar broke out on top in the first period, 7-0, when Keith Ochs bulldozed over from the two-yard line and Scott Collingwood booted the extra point.

Benton Community came storming back and scored on a 17-yard sprint by John McGivern. The Bobcats then took the lead on McGivern's conversion run, 8-7.

When Marko connected with Ochs on a 39-yard pass play in the second quarter the Lions went back on top. The attempted two-point conversion failed and Linn-Mar led 13-7.

Linn-Mar is 4-0 in ECIC play and 5-1 overall while Benton Community stays winless in ECIC play at 0-3 and is 3-3 overall.

middle from seven yards out for the game's first score.

Gollaher added his 19-yard touchdown run with :42 left in the first quarter and Hall's 12-yard tally with 9:05 to play in the half boosted Marion's lead to 18-0.

The two teams exchanged third-quarter punts before Gollaher did his thing again.

The 5-8, 157-pound speedster took a Doug Jackson handoff on Marion's own 20 and raced 80 yards for a score with 6:14 to play in the period. Jackson, who had missed an attempt for his 18th straight extra point kick earlier, found his groove again for a 25-0 Indians lead.

Minutes later, Hall busted up the middle from 31 yards out, leaving several Manhawk would-be-tacklers behind. His third TD run, and Jackson's PAT, capped the Marion scoring parade.

Jackson, Marion's senior field general, completed six-of-10 passes for 96 yards. Two of those strikes, of 20 and 15 yards, were hauled in by end Bill Yirkousky.
