Haight pulls for Jets now

• Dave Haight, who competes with Steve Thomas for Iowa's starting nose guard spot, laughingly admits, "I never was much of a fan of any pro football team, but I sure do follow the New York Jets now."

The reason, of course, is his older brother, Mike, a former Hawkeye offensive tackle, was drafted in the first round by the Jets this year.

"I talk on the phone with Mike at least once a week," said Dave. "He calls to wish us good luck. Mike suffered a hyperextension of a knee in training camp but should be able to play in another week."

The two Haights used to be a familiar sight riding motorcycles on the roads between Iowa City and Dyersville, their hometown.

'Mike got rid of his cycle because the Jets didn't permit them during training camp," Dave said. "I still ride mine, and you can be sure I wear a helmet when I do."

You also may see the players' father, Ron, driving his big semitrailer milk truck on his route from Dyersville to Marion to Iowa City.

Don't be jealous, thinking Ron gets to see the Hawkeyes practice. Coach Hayden Fry's rule barring visitors includes fathers, too.

Dave's prep team at Dyersville Beckman had a 5-4 record in 1983, but improved to 8-1 in his senior The loss was to Cedar Rapids LaSalle, keeping Beckman out of the playoffs.

"Mike and I played both offense and defense in high school, but I always liked defense better and the coaches let me play that here," Dave said.

Haight had two tackles in the opener and four last Saturday.

"Both Haight and Thomas are inexperienced," said Fry, "but they're only going to get better. I called Thomas 'Trailer Hitch' because he was overweight when he transferred here from Nebraska. However, he's been able to cut some weight, and Haight is up to about 265 now. Haight has great upper-body strength."

Haight admits his brother's Jets contract has prompted him to think about a pro future, "but that's a long way off, as I have two more seasons at Iowa after this, and for me it probably would be a one-in-amillion chance.'

He says he enjoys hunting and fishing in his spare time. He catches bass in farm ponds and other fish in the Mississippi River, "but I'm still looking forward to shooting my first pheasant."

Save the roses?

• Aha! Maybe here's a way to end the Big Ten woe in the Rose Bowl. Melvin Durslag, veteran writer for the Los Angeles Herald Examiner, had his tongue in cheek when he wrote his Sept. 17 column, but he merits an "A" for originality.

"In this age of corporate cannibalization, we are recommending a buy-up whereby the Pac-10 acquires, for cash and debentures, the Big Ten," he wrote.

"From this merger, we would form two groups. One would be called the Big Pacific. The other would be called the Little Ten. The Big Pacific would comprise USC, UCLA, Washington, Arizona State, Arizona, Ohio State, Michigan, Michigan State, Iowa and Illinois.

"The Little Ten would embrace Stanford, Cal, Oregon, Oregon State, Washington State, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Indiana, Purdue and Northwestern."

Durslag went on to propose the Big Pacific champ each year would play one of the nation's top teams in the Rose Bowl, "eliminating the ghastly spectacle of the Pac-10 going against the Big Ten." He added, "Each year the lastplace team in the Big Pacific would drop into the Little Ten, making room for the Little Ten champion to move up to the Big Pacific."

Youthful Wash gets 1st victory

Uncharacteristicly, Cedar Rapids Washington had gone three games without a touchdown pass, an extra point or a victory.

But the Warriors got all three Friday night in a 20-6 Mississippi Valley Conference prep football triumph over Cedar Rapids Kennedy at Kingston Stadium.

Washington's 0-3 start was its number of years since the Warriors had gone three games without a touchdown pass or extra point.

"They're starting to believe in themselves," Coach Wally Sheets said of his junior-dominated team. "This is one of the first clubs I've had that has scrimmaged as much this early. We just have to."

Kennedy's record fell to 1-3 overall and 1-2 in the Valley. The Cougars had five turnovers, giving turnover total to 17 through four games. But losing the ball didn't cost the Warriors this time.

"It was Wash's football game all the way," Kennedy Coach Al Stiers said. "They got to the ball faster than we did, they stayed with their game plan and their kids were intense. Anything I said about our team would take away from that."

AFTER A SCORELESS first half worst in 20 years. It also had been a in which the two rivals fumbled nearly as often as they managed a first down, Washington put together an 8-play drive for the first points.

DUBUQUE - Chris Boettcher intercepted a pass and returned it 35 yards for a touchdown with 8:16 remaining in the game as the Hawks handed Dubuque Senior a 17-6 Mississippi Valley Conference prep football loss Friday night.

It was Prairie's third straight win after a season-opening loss to topranked Iowa City High. The Hawks are 2-1 in the MVC and 3-1 overall. Senior fell to 0-2, 1-3.

Prairie's defense limited Dubuque Senior to minus-6 yards rushing.

"Our defense played a hell of a game. They kept them in the hole the entire game," said Prairie Coach Ed Johnson.

Prairie's Terry Williams booted a 32-yard field goal with 11:34 left in the first half for a 3-0 lead.

Time for small talk is over; Oklahoma, Miami play today

Associated Press

The mind games are over. It's time for the showdown between No. 1 Oklahoma and No. 2 Miami.

The war of words that has been going on since Miami upset Oklahoma last year may carry over to the football field in today's heralded rematch, but running, passing, blocking and tackling will speak loudest.

As Miami defensive tackle Dan Sileo said, "Time to stop lippin' and start hittin'.'

Jaws started flapping last year when Miami stunned the Sooners 27-14. The Hurricanes also put quarterback Troy Aikman out of action with a broken leg, although that forced Oklahoma to go back to the pure wishbone offense and quarterback Jamelle Holieway has run it superbly. But it was Miami's loose lips rather than the outcome that riled the Sooners.

"It's upsetting when people come to your place talking a bunch of junk and trying to take you out of the game," tight end Keith Jackson said.

"They shocked us with the way they were talking," defensive back Sonny Brown said. "No team had ever tried to intimidate us."

It escalated when All-America linebacker Brian Bosworth accused Miami of rolling up the score against Notre Dame last year, saying it showed a lack of class. Sileo then called Bosworth "the most overrated player in the country . . . on the most overrated defense. I don't like the stuff he said about this program and about Coach (Jimmy) Johnson. The way I look at it, he's a reflection of the team. I can't wait to get on the field against them."

Bosworth has said the Miami rematch "has taken on more importance to us than the Texas game. I kind of hate everything to do with the University of Texas but I just hate Miami's football team."

Jackson said: "What they don't understand is that we've got a bunch of lunatics, too. If I were them, I'd be nice to Boz because he just might rip their quarterback's head off."

That would be Vinny Testaverde, one of the nation's top passers.

"There's been a lot of talk about how Brian Bosworth is going to hurt this team," Testaverde said. "This team doesn't get intimidated by anyone. It's going to take all 11 people on their defense to hurt this team, not just one individual."

Bosworth said: "If Miami wants to hammer it out against us . . . I'd like to extend an invitation. Please try and do that."

At least one Miami player understands where Bosworth is coming

"My type of player," defensive tackle Jerome Brown said. "We are

C.R. LaSalle to test unbeaten Benton today

From Gazette staff reports

Unbeaten Benton Community will be gunning for its fourth straight victory today when the Bobcats tackle Cedar Rapids LaSalle in prep football at Kingston Stadium. Kickoff is set for 1:30 p.m.

Benton, unranked in Class 3A, has allowed only one touchdown in three games and twice has shut out its opponents. The Bobcats opened their season with a 21-0 win over Vinton. Benton also whipped Denver, 21-6, and last week posted a 10-0 win over DeWitt Central. Four juniors — running backs Doug Buch and Doug Traut, quarterback Ross Junge and placekicker

Jason Sebolt — have stood out this season for the Bobcats.

LaSalle, Class 2A state champions in 1982 and '83, has struggled since moving up to 3A this season. After rolling up 274 yards in a season-opening 21-7 win over Iowa City West, the Lancers lost to Mount Pleasant, 10-7. In last week's 13-0 setback at Dyersville Beckman, LaSalle was held to a minus oneyard total offense and managed only one first down.

The Lancers are led by junior running back Matt Young and 6foot-5, 215-pound junior tackle Ladd Wessels. Young rushed for 118 yards against Mount Pleasant. Wessels had 11 solo tackles and a sack against West.

Busch are really two talented kids," for his high school. said Purnell. "Jimmy had to pick up a lot of the slack tonight, and he did. He's just a person, who when the chips are down, really picks us up."

Albaugh was shifted from wingback to tailback when regular tailback Mark Lancaster had to sit out Friday's game because of an ankle injury. Albaugh, an able receiver, rushed nine times for 102 yards.

West's offense was efficient all game, but didn't function well near the Linn-Mar goal line until the fourth quarter. Trojan quarterback Jason Ross ran one yard for a TD that capped a 15-play, 80-yard drive.

West's John Hesse, who has been hurt much of this season, ran 24 times for 115 yards and came up with an interception after Curt Wheeler deflected a Sheeley pass.

"I think you can see we've got talent," said West Coach Dan Dickel. "We had breakdowns on every big play. That's the difference between Linn-Mar's winning tradition and our tradition.

"We felt we had a team that could contend for the Valley title," Dickel said. "Obviously, we're not going to. Maybe we'll destroy some other

UNI to induct healthy Sheriff

By Bob Denney

Stan Sheriff said he hasn't felt so good in 10 years. But there's a catch.

Last April 15, the former University of Northern Iowa football coach and athletic director was on an operating table in Honolulu, Hawaii. Sheriff, the University of Hawaii athletic director since August 1983, was about to undergo surgery for eight coronary artery bypasses.

The head surgeon, Dr. Richard Mamiya, told Sheriff softly a day earlier, "With your job, Stan, we're going to give you a Sheriff got the extras, a new lease on life, plus a sore leg from where veins were transplanted to repair his heart.

said he is on the islands for life.

"I suffered a mild heart attack in January and I quit smoking cigarettes then. Now I feel great," said Sheriff, who returned to the UNI campus in Cedar Falls to be inducted into the school's Athletics Hall of Fame today.

"Did you know that I was out of the hospital in five days, back to work in three weeks and played 14 holes of golf 29 days after the operation?" he said. "I never had any chest pains, just a sore leg." Sheriff may still have a sore leg, considering his return visit to UNI included a tour of Cedar Falls-Waterloo golf courses. "It's great to be back, it really is," he said. "The Dome looks great; there's a new scoreboard, and new buildings on campus and the football team's success doesn't surprise me a bit.'

Sheriff, who was head football coach from 1960 to '83, and athletic director during the final 13 years, was the man who hired current Panthers coach Darrell Mudra.

"Darrell's always done a great job, and that's why we hired him," Sheriff said. "He's a proven winner.

"I talked with him a while the other evening and told him he will continue to have more coaching opportunities in the future.' While Mudra will always be hot coaching property, Sheriff, 54,

He has helped his university maintain a $7 million athletic budget, two-thirds of which goes to football. The school averages 46,000 fans in 50,000-seat Aloha Stadium. Among the recent visiting teams have been Iowa (1984), and

Wisconsin this season. 'We're entertaining Michigan on Dec. 6, and we're going to play them tough; we won't back off," said Sheriff. "We gave Iowa all it wanted, and beat Wisconsin this year (20-17). There's a lot of tradition on the islands, and 50 percent of the kids on the team are from Hawaii."

Meanwhile, Sheriff observed, UNI continues to move upward. "It's difficult for me to get a pulse about the school since I've left, but I do know that UNI will always be in third position behind the Iowa and Iowa State syndrome in the state. That's because of the Big Ten and Big 8 ties those schools have. But with Eldon Miller in basketball, Darrell Mudra and Bob Bowlsby (UNI athletic director), they will always maintain a solid posture in the state.

"I read articles about how Iowa was criticized for not playing UNI in football, and that's always been a battle to get recognition," he said. "I know about media exposure. In Hawaii, we're the last college football team to play our games Saturday night. By the time we're going, most people are either in bed or headed to bed. It's an identity factor, but we have a damn good coach (Dick Tomey) and a

Also being inducted into the Hall of Fame are former wrestling coach-official Finn Eriksen of Waterloo; Ruby Miller, developer of girls' interscholastic athletics in Colorado; Dick Beetsch, three-sport star at UNI; and Bill Weick, two-time national wrestling champion.

Panthers host SW Missouri St.

By Bob Denney

Northern Iowa's Panthers, ranked 11th in the NCAA's Division I-AA, aren't exactly easy fodder for any visiting team, but there's still some lingering doubt they really can stop a wishbone attack.

Today's 65th UNI homecoming game against Southwest Missouri

State, with a 1:30 p.m. kickoff in the UNI-Dome, may provide an Last November UNI lost 40-33 to Georgia Southern in the NCAA Division I-AA semifinals. Georgia Southern's wishbone picked the UNI defense apart, yard by yard. Southwest Missouri State, 1-2, features what first-year coach Jesse Branch calls "the flexbone."

UNI, 1-0-1, has had a week off to begin defense of its league title, and also relish a 17-0 road victory Sept. 13 at Kansas State. Are the Panthers wishbone-wise now? "After all this time, we should be," said Coach Darrell Mudra. "We've worked hard and scrimmaged hard.' UNI comes into the game with a 5-1 lead in the series, and only one injury. Starting offensive guard Mark Botkin, a sophomore from Linn-Mar, suffered a knee sprain in a scrimmage last week. He'll be replaced by junior Ken Kolthoff.
