Peay didn't pick shotgun

• While attending the Big Ten's annual preseason football press conference in Chicago last summer, I quickly discovered Francis Peay, Northwestern's head coach, was one of the most interesting people in attendance.

Peay, 42, is a tall, impressive, articulate man, a Pittsburgh native who became an All-America offensive tackle at Missouri. He played nine seasons in the NFL with the Giants, Packers and Chiefs.

When Denny Green became Northwestern's head coach in 1981, Peay was the first one invited to join his staff — as defensive coordinator. He served previously as an aide at Notre Dame and Cal.

After Green resigned last March, Northwestern athletic director

Francis Peay

Doug Single finally asked Peay to serve as interim coach just before spring practice. Chicago papers reported Sam Rutigliano, former Cleveland Browns coach, had turned down the job.

"I was named head coach three days before spring practice," Peay said in Chicago, "so I now have a better understanding of the dynamics of the shotgun wedding. I also saw another coach decline the job, so I realize how it is for the other prospect to turn down the bride and choose the shotgun instead!"

"I have a premier challenge in the Big Ten and a very short time to implement things. I was offered the job as interim coach on a take-it-or-leave-it basis. If I took it, I might not have a job very long, and if I didn't, I didn't have any job at all."

So now, alas, Peay sees the result of his Hobson's choice. He did have a job, but he didn't have it very long. He announced last week he no longer is a candidate to continue as Northwestern's coach. Obviously he couldn't see much future there.

The Wildcats started the season with a 17-6 loss to Duke, but then defeated Army, 25-18, and Princeton, 37-0. They have lost by respectable scores to Indiana, 24-7; Minnesota, 44-23 (after leading, 17-0); and Wisconsin, 35-27.

Peay promised Northwestern would have a more diversified offense than in the past. This year's team certainly has demonstrated that. In previous years the Wildcats came out throwing in desperation.

Iowa's Hayden Fry calls Mike Greenfield, Northwestern's durable junior, "the best running quarterback in the Big Ten," and statistics back up this label. Despite 252 yards in sacks and losses, Greenfield has netted 208 yards rushing this season. Minnesota's Rickey Foggie is second with 189 yards.

Peay also proved he had a vivid recollection of last year's games when he said:

"We hope to shore up our pass defense, too. We had 25 touchdown passes throw against us last season. Six of them were by Iowa's Chuck Long. He threw three to Bill Hoppel and one each to Ronnie Harmon, Robert Smith and Craig Clark."

I will be sorry to see Peay leave — even if he did have to choose the bride instead of the shotgun.

Second chance?

• If Michigan State Coach George Perles had one 1986 play to call again, guess which one it would be. Sure, you say, Dave Yarema's pass that was intercepted by Iowa's Ken Sims in the end zone to let Iowa escape, 24-21.

Nope. Interviewed Wednesday, Perles said it would be the screen pass to Lorenzo White early in the fourth period of that game. Iowa's Keaton Smiley tackled White just after he caught the ball.

White suffered a sprained knee that sidelined him and kept the All-America back out of the next two games — 27-6 loss to Michigan, 29-21 win over Illinois. White will return against Purdue Saturday.

Smiley injured a shoulder on the tackle and played only long enough the following week to stop Wisconsin's final drive with an end-zone interception.

Mets happy to be home for Game 6

NEW YORK (AP) — The Boston Red Sox have got the New York Mets right where the Mets want them.

Down 3-2 in the best-of-seven World Series, the Mets feel happy just to have brought the Series back to Shea Stadium, especially after losing the first two games here.

"When we went to Boston, we felt like we had to win two out of three," Mets Manager Davey Johnson said Friday, a day off for the two teams. "When you win the first two, you want to sweep, but we are right where we wanted to be going into Boston."

In tonight's Game 6, the Red Sox will send 24-game winner Roger Clemens against the Mets left-hander Bob Ojeda. The game begins at 7:25 p.m. and will be televised by NBC (KWVL, channel 7).

One thing is certain from Boston's perspective.

"Now, we've got the homecourt advantage off our backs," Red Sox center fielder Dave Henderson said.

The Red Sox won the first two games of the Series 1-0 and 9-3 in New York. The Mets won the next two games in Boston, 7-1 and 6-2, before the Red Sox came up with a 4-2 victory Thursday night to break the deadlock and move within one game of their first World Series title in 68 years.

"THEY HAVE TO FEEL that they've got us where they want us," Henderson said of the Mets. "They're down a game and they have to win. We feel the same way. We're right where we want to be — a game up and Roger Clemens on the mound."

Clemens will be pitching on five days' rest after working three straight times on three days' rest. When pitching on five days' rest this season Clemens was 8-0 with a 2.12 ERA — including the game he struck out 20 Seattle batters in April.

Through some pitching adjustments that may have cost the Red Sox Game 4 of this Series, Manager John McNamara got both Bruce Hurst, the Game 5 winner, and Clemens back on a regular schedule. McNamara started Al Nipper, who hadn't been used since Oct. 4, in the fourth game. He lasted only six innings.

But on Clemens' last time out on three days' rest, he went just 4½ innings in Game 2 last Sunday.

"There was no brilliance to it. There was really no alternative," McNamara said. "We found out that Bruce doesn't pitch well on three days' rest, and Roger was tired. He'd pitched three times on three days' rest. The Roger Clemens you saw last Sunday was not the Roger Clemens we saw all year long. We had the luxury of being able to make the move when we jumped out 2-0."

IN GAME 2 AGAINST Clemens last week, Johnson started Danny Heep in left field instead of Mookie Wilson and Howard Johnson at third instead of Ray Knight. Johnson said he planned to have Wilson and Knight in the starting lineup this time.

Ojeda, traded from Boston to New York last November, will be working on just three days' rest, one short of his normal complement. Johnson was not sure what the effect would be.

"Ojeda's not come back on three days' rest this season," Johnson said. "I don't know what he's done the rest of his career. I don't know how he'll react."

Last time out, the 18-game winner Ojeda worked seven innings, holding the Red Sox to one run on five hits in Game 3.

"I've got to win. It's as simple as that," Ojeda said. "I'm not uncomfortable with this situation. We just have to pull together and get a team effort. We know we have to win two games. We've done it before."

If there is a seventh game, the Mets will send Ron Darling on three days' rest against the Red Sox's Dennis "Oil Can" Boyd. Darling was the winner of Game 4, working seven scoreless innings, while Boyd lost Game 3, giving up six runs on nine hits in seven innings.

Albaugh helps Lions to title share

By Mike Hlas

Gazette sportswriter

"Pound for pound," Linn-Mar Coach Greg Purnell said Friday night, "Jim Albaugh could be the best football player in the state."

Purnell didn't need the "pound for pound" qualifier Friday. Despite difficult running conditions because of a day-long rain, the 5-foot-8, 151-pound Albaugh put on a sensational offensive performance. His four touchdowns and 240 all-purpose yards led the Lions to a 42-7 pasting of host Cedar Rapids Prairie.

Thus, Linn-Mar will have a shot at defending its Class 4A state title. The win put the Lions in next week's playoffs. They will be at home against Clinton. Prairie had clinched a playoff spot before Friday's game. The Hawks play at Iowa City High. Both games are Wednesday night.

Prairie and Linn-Mar are both 6-2. Linn-Mar finished its first season of Mississippi Valley Conference with a 5-1 mark, and tied Dubuque Hempstead and Iowa City for the MVC championship.

Now, let's talk about this Albaugh. He put on move after move, made cut after cut, and found hole after hole. He rushed 13 times for 143 yards and two touchdowns. He caught three passes for 97 yards and two TDs. He mystified the Hawk defense.

"I WAS TOTALLY amazed at the ability of that Albaugh," Prairie Coach Ed Johnson said. "He made cuts on that field when our kids couldn't."

"He's been a great leader for us," Purnell said. "I saw him in the hallway at school today, and I said, 'Jimmy, I need a great effort from you. You've given us great efforts all year, but tonight we need a really big one.' And that's just what he gave us."

Linn-Mar defensive back Mark Lancaster did just as much as Albaugh to defuse Prairie, which had a six-game winning streak snapped.

With the Lions ahead 7-0 in the first quarter, Prairie drove to the Linn-Mar 17. But Lancaster intercepted a John Odell pass, and returned it 80 yards to the Prairie 11. Ted Sheeley threw a seven-yard TD pass to Albaugh three plays later to make it 13-0.

Prairie drove to the Lion 23 with 16 seconds left in the first half, but LION LEADER: Linn-Mar's Jim Albaugh shakes off a Cedar Rapids Prairie tackler on the way to a touchdown late in the first quarter at Prairie Friday. Albaugh caught three passes for 97 yards and added 143 rushing yards as Linn-Mar rolled to a 42-7 victory. Prep roundup: Page 3B.

15 area teams to playoffs

By Mark Dukes

Five former state champions are among 15 Gazette area teams that have qualified for the Iowa high school football playoffs.

All five defending state champions advanced, including Linn-Mar in Class 4A and Center Point in 1A. The others are Pleasant Valley in 3A, Algona Garrigan in 2A and Paton-Churdan in A.

Cedar Rapids Prairie, Decorah and Lone Tree, all past champs, also moved into postseason play.

The 80 playoff teams — 16 in each of five classes — enter first-round games Wednesday night. Quarterfinal-round games are Nov. 3, semifinals Nov. 8 and championship games Nov. 14-15.

THREE AREA TEAMS will be making their first appearance in the playoffs, Iowa City High in 4A, West Delaware in 3A and Cascade in 2A.

Sixth-ranked City High earned a spot by becoming the Mississippi Valley Conference automatic qualifier. The Little Hawks, who beat Dubuque Senior Friday, tied with Linn-Mar and Dubuque Hempstead for the league title. The Iowa High School Athletic Association point system broke the tie to determine the automatic berth.

Ninth-ranked Linn-Mar defeated Prairie Friday night to gain a berth. Prairie, which won the 3A state title in 1981, already had clinched a playoff spot before the game.

In first-round games, Prairie will play at City High and Linn-Mar will host No. 8 Clinton. City High defeated Prairie in a season-opener, 27-0.

Hempstead, despite a victory earlier this month over City High, failed to make the 4A field.

In Class 3A, No. 2-ranked Decorah breezed into the playoffs with an undefeated record. Decorah, which hosts Charles City, will be making its fifth playoff appearance and its second in the past three years.

THE OTHER area 3A qualifiers are unranked Benton Community and West Delaware. Benton was a 1980

Robinson leads Jeff to victory

By Bob Denney

Gazette sportswriter

In any other prep football season, Damon Robinson and the J-Hawks of Cedar Rapids Jefferson might be celebrating about now.

Friday night's 16-3 Mississippi Valley Conference victory over cross-town rival Kennedy is the stuff of which parties are made.

But the J-Hawks are a solemn 500 team at 4-4, and will be on the sidelines when the state playoff series begins Wednesday.

Frustration etched itself into the youthful countenance of the 190-pound Robinson, who did everything asked of him during his senior season.

"Oh man, we wanted to go to the playoffs really bad," said Robinson, who booted a

Marion tails, Page 3B

31-yard field goal and two extra points, ran for a touchdown and piled up a game-high 86 yards.

"What happened this year? I guess our intensity was sometimes good one game and then not so good the next."

But the J-Hawks got an "I" for intensity against Kennedy, and finished their Mississippi Valley season with a 2-4 record. Kennedy is 2-5 and 2-6 overall.

Since both clubs are out of postseason consideration, the scramble is on to locate an opponent for next Friday.

"I guess we'll play anyone we can find," said Jefferson Coach Bill Calloway. "We'll probably end up with Massillon, Ohio."

The tongue-in-cheek reference to the Ohio powerhouse school was about all Calloway could muster after a season that began with promise — a 34-26 victory over No. 2-ranked Waterloo East — but was compounded with frustrating overtime losses to

TODAY IN COLLEGE FOOTBALL

Northwestern at Iowa

Time, place: 1:05 p.m., Kinnick Stadium, Iowa City.

1986 records: Northwestern 2-4, Iowa 5-1.

Northwestern: The Wildcats have the nation's third-ranked passing defense, allowing 116.3 yards per game on 55 of 111 completions. However, the Cats have surrendered an average of 213.6 rushing yards per contest. Quarterback Mike Greenfield is third in total offense in the Big Ten (182.3 yards per game) and leads all Big Ten quarterbacks with 208 rushing yards. Defensive tackle Bob Dirkes is tied for the conference lead in tackles for a loss with nine for minus-30 yards. Place-kicker John Duvic is 12-for-12 in extra points this season and 54-of-55 for his career. Northwestern has beaten Army (25-18) and Princeton (37-0) and has lost to Duke (17-6), Indiana (24-7), Minnesota (44-23) and Wisconsin (35-27). Interim coach Francis Peay announced he would not seek the permanent head coaching position prior to last week's loss to Wisconsin.

Iowa: The Hawkeyes enter today's game ranked third nationally in rushing defense (68 yards per game), scoring defense (10.7 points per game) and turnover margin (+2.0 per game); fifth in total offense (440.3 ypg).

scoring offense (37.8 ppg) and total defense (251.7 ypg). Quarterback Mark Vlasic and fullback David Hudson returned to action last week after a two week layoff due to injuries.

The Hawks had their streak off 44 straight games won when they led at halftime snapped in last week's 20-17 loss at Michigan. Iowa is ranked No. 10 by CNN/USA Today, No. 11 by the Associated Press and No. 12 by United Press International.

Series: Iowa leads, 32-14-3, and has won 12 in a row. Last year the Hawks pounded Northwestern, 49-10, as Iowa quarterback Chuck Long threw six touchdown passes. Northwestern's last win in the series was in 1973 (31-15) and the last time the Wildcats won in Iowa City was in 1971 (28-3).

Odds: Iowa by 32.

rushing offense (373.3 yards per game), rushing defense (50.0 ypg) and total defense (195.2 ypg); are second in scoring defense (8.8 points per game); third in scoring offense (39.8 ppg) and sixth in total offense (436.3 ypg). Sophomore quarterback Jamelle Holieway is the Sooners' leading rusher, averaging 79.8 yards per game. The Sooners are 13-1 with Holieway at quarterback and have won 16 of their last 18 games, with both losses coming at the hands of Miami, Fla. Coach Barry Switzer is 131-25-4 in his 14th season at Oklahoma and is 12-0-1 against ISU. He is the nation's winningest major college coach who has been on the job at least five years. The Sooners are ranked No. 5 by the Associated Press and CNN/USA Today and No. 6 by United Press International.

Iowa State: The Cyclones were hammered by Colorado, 31-3, last Saturday at Boulder, snapping a four-game winning streak. Senior quarterback Alex Espinoza has 4,428 career passing yards, tops on the ISU career passing chart. He needs 250 yards today to pass former Kansas star Mike Norseth and move into eighth place on the all-time Big 8 passing chart. The Cyclones are averaging 214.2 yards passing on offense and are limiting opponents to an average of 307.3 total yards on defense.

Series: Oklahoma leads, 52-4-2. The Sooners posted a 59-14 win over ISU last season and have won 23 of the last 24 meetings between the two teams. The Cyclones' last victory in the series was in 1961 (21-15) although the teams played to a 7-7 tie in 1981.

Odds: Oklahoma by 32.

Marion blanked by West Delaware

By Mark Dukes
Gazette sports editor

The important numbers for West Delaware are 43, 17 and 1.

For the first time in 43 years, West Delaware has a piece of a Wamac Conference football title. It has beaten Marion for the first time in 17 years. And it is in the playoffs for the very first time.

Chris Tenhoff rushed for 144 yards and three touchdowns and a blitzing defense limited Marion to 17 rushing yards as visiting West Delaware mauled Marion, 38-0.

It was a sweet homecoming for West Delaware Coach Larry Atwater, former player at Marion and Coe College. The Hawks were 1-8 last year, but now are 6-1.

West Delaware and Marion tied for the Wamac title, each with 5-1 marks. This is the ninth straight year the Indians have won or shared the league championship.

In a first-round Class 3A playoff game Wednesday night, West Delaware will play at Waterloo Columbus. Kickoff is at 7:30 p.m.

"The kids put down on their cards at the beginning of the year that they wanted to beat Marion at Marion for the conference title," Atwater said. "Coming back here was a little more special. I'm sure the town's pretty excited about it."

When the Wamac was formed in 1943, Manchester was one of the members. But whether the school was known as just Manchester or West Delaware, it had never won the conference title. And the last win over Marion was in 1969.

WEST DELAWARE moved swiftly to take control, scoring on its first possession and posting a 19-0 lead by halftime. Two third-quarter touchdowns removed any hope of a Marion comeback.

The Hawk defense allowed Marion only six first downs and 74 total yards. Linebackers Mark Havertape and Shane Burbridge blitzed on nearly every play, which was the main reason half of Marion's 24 rushing plays resulted in negative yardage.

"It was probably one of the worst games Marion has played in many years," said Coach Dave Messerli, whose Indians are 5-3 with a game remaining Friday. "We're disappointed, hurt and embarrassed. We let 'em start quick and that was that. Larry did an excellent job of getting them ready."

"We won some games this year to put us in position to win the title and we're proud of that. These kids tied for our ninth title and nothing can take that away."

Tenhoff, a 150-pound running back, had 80 yards in the first period, including a 9-yard touchdown run on a pitchout to the left with only 2:17 gone. Quarterback Shaun Klein added a 2-yard plunge over star left guard Sean Lyness midway through the second period, and Tenhoff had a 4-yard plunge with :57 left in the half.

West Delaware's defense forced six turnovers, three in each half. Toby Tutton, who scored a third-period touchdown, had two interceptions in the first half.

Tenhoff boosted the Hawks' lead to 26-0 with 7:04 left in the third on a 19-yard run, breaking five tackles en route. Tutton's score made it 32-0 heading into the fourth.

Todd Manternach's 1-yard plunge with 1:22 left capped the scoring.

Marion never moved inside West Delaware's 40-yard line. The Indians' long gainer was a 27-yard run in the first half by Don Spaethe.

In addition to Tutton's two interceptions, Brad Ketchum, Corey Downs and Todd Bissell also picked off passes, and Kael Brooks recovered a fumble.

Center Point romps

CENTER POINT — Halfback Mark Wade rushed for 147 yards on 12 carries and had a pair of touchdowns as playoff-bound Center Point routed Alburnett, 54-0, Friday night and remained in a three-way tie with East Buchanan and Starmont for the Tri-Rivers Conference lead.

Solon 45, West Liberty 8

SOLON — Mike Herdlika ran for a touchdown and threw a TD pass and Brett Wilson scored on a 63-yard interception return as the Class 2A top-ranked Spartans (8-0) rolled to the Eastern Iowa Hawkeye Conference title.

Lisbon 13, Olin 7 (OT)

OLIN — Brian Krob's 8-yard touchdown pass to Josh Novak lifted Lisbon in overtime.

Krob's 1-yard TD run and his extra-point kick staked Lisbon to a 7-0 first-quarter lead. But David Weaver's 6-yard scoring burst in the second period and Kraig Snyder's kick boosted Olin into a tie.

LINN-MAR

Lancaster snatched another interception, and rambed 76 yards for a touchdown with one second remaining. After a two-point conversion, the Lions led 21-0 at halftime. The game, for all practical purposes, was over.

Albaugh scored the Lions' next three touchdowns. He caught a short pass from Sheeley and turned it into a 67-yard TD. Later, he booted 41 yards for a rushing score, and capped the night with a 24-yard TD sprint.

All in all, it was a satisfying way for Linn-Mar to break a two-game losing streak. The team made a strong emotional recovery after a 12-10 loss to White Bear Lake, Minn., and a 14-13 defeat at Iowa City High.

"Our kids just played with a lot of heart and enthusiasm," said Purnell. "The last two games were very tough. Actually, we could've been 8-0 right now, but instead we had to fight for our lives to make the playoffs. I'm extremely happy with the way the kids played."

PRAIRIE HELD ITS own with the Lions on offense in the first half, but had nothing to show for it. Both clubs had seven first downs in the half, and Prairie had a 138-137 edge in total yards. But the second half was a different story. Linn-Mar finished with 355 yards of total offense to the Hawks' 213.

"It was an old-fashioned butt-kicking," Johnson said. "It seems like sometimes weird things like that happen in big games. Whether they're better than us by 42-7, I don't think so. But they seemed to gather strength, and we started playing on our heels."

"The nice thing about it is that we've made the playoffs," Johnson said. "We've got to forget tonight and come back. They didn't give us a playoff berth, we earned it. That was not the typical Prairie team tonight."

"Linn-Mar needed this game, and it went out and took it away from us."

Regis visits Waterloo East

Waterloo East football coach Roger Kittleson is excited about preparing for an opponent his team knows little about.

Judging by the way the Trojans have played, that's not good news for visiting Cedar Rapids Regis, which faces East tonight at 7:30 in Sloane-Wallace Stadium.

East (7-1) already has locked up a playoff berth by winning the Big Eight Conference title. Regis, the 10th-rated 3A club at 5-2, needs a win to gain a postseason berth.

Kittleson is enjoying what he describes as his best overall offensive unit in his 16 years as Trojans' boss.

"I've never had a team that could do as many things," Kittleson said.

Regis Coach Gaylord Hauschildt, whose Royals have lost only to playoff-bound Pleasant Valley and Waterloo Columbus, said his team is prepared for the challenge.

"We understand how important a game this is for us," Hauschildt said. "But at Regis we've always thrived on challenges. We know East can hit you with a lot of different weapons, but it should be a fun game."

The Trojans are led by quarterback Troy Alexander, who has been intercepted just once in 90 attempts, completing 53 for 1,016 yards and 11 touchdowns. Running backs Lew Montgomery (794 yards, 17 TDs) and Charles Young (542, 9 TDs) are scrambling for statistical recognition with wide receiver Scott Redd (30 catches, 640 yards).

Regis counters East's talent with a classy duo of its own in running back Mike Schulte and quarterback Mike McCool. Schulte has averaged almost six yards per carry, with three games over 100 yards. McCool has passed for over 1,000 yards.

LaSalle wins in OT

EPWORTH — Matt Young scored on a 5-yard run in overtime and Tom Cisler kicked the game-winning extra point as Cedar Rapids LaSalle edged winless Western Dubuque, 13-12, in prep football Friday night.

LaSalle, still in the chase for a Class 3A playoff berth, improved to 5-3. Class 4A Western Dubuque fell to 0-8.

Lancer quarterback Mike Kane's 1-yard TD run in the third period gave LaSalle a 6-0 lead against the Bobcats. A bad snap foiled Cisler's PAT attempt.

Western Dubuque tied the contest later in the quarter on Kurt Hoefer's 13-yard run. Cisler, ironically, blocked the Bobcats' extra-point kick try and it remained 6-6 until the overtime.

LASALLE WON THE coin toss and elected to play defense first. The Bobcats took a 12-6 lead on Bryan Thurm's 10-yard TD pass to Nick Crosby, but the Lancers' Joe Fandel blocked the kick attempt.

On the ensuing series, Western Dubuque was charged with encroachment and Young scored on first down from the Bobcats' 5-yard-line to tie it once again.

Cisler followed with his decisive kick.

LaSalle is scheduled to play Grinnell, also fighting for a Class 3A playoff berth, next Saturday at Grinnell.

JEFFERSON: Kennedy hurts self

Dubuque Wahlert and Hempstead.

"People have to realize that we lost four games to outstanding ball clubs," Calloway said. "We've won two games in the conference against teams with losing records. But our schedule was already set down, and we knew what we were getting into. The problem is we hurt ourselves."

ON THIS NASTY night, it was Kennedy that hurt itself most. To make matters worse, the Cougars lost starting fullback Tim White with a knee injury with eight minutes to go in the first half. The Kennedy offense was short-circuited after that.

Jefferson built a 7-3 halftime lead on a 16-yard touchdown pass from Jeff Sharpe to Troy Cook with 9:38 left in the second quarter. The 47-yard drive took eight plays. Two series later, Kennedy's Jeff Nielsen recovered Sharpe's fumble at the J-Hawk 37-yard line. Jefferson's defense held until Russ Blood kicked a 22-yard field goal with 32 seconds left in the half.

The J-Hawks outdueled Kennedy in total offense, 218-152, with 158 yards coming on the mushy Kings-ton turf. Robinson carried on 20 of Jefferson's 39 running plays. Team-mate Dave Reid had 46 yards in nine attempts. Greg Fitzharris was Kennedy's top ground-gainer with 52 yards, but 46 of them came on one play.

THE THIRD QUARTER was all Robinson. He booted a 31-yard field goal with 7:01 to go and, after teammate John Tomkins recovered a Bob O'Shea fumble at the Cougar 29, needed only five plays to crash backwards into the end zone from nine yards out to make it 16-3.

Fitzharris gave the Cougars hope by sprinting 46 yards to the Jefferson 2-yard line in the opening minutes of the fourth quarter. But Jefferson held Kennedy on four consecutive running plays. Sharpe, also a solid defensive back, nailed O'Shea on fourth-and-goal.

"We didn't execute well on offense, and luck had nothing to do with it," said Kennedy Coach Al Stiers. "Our defense played well but we couldn't move with any consistency. It certainly hurt not to have Tim (White) in there. It's too early to tell how bad his knee is hurt. Our trainer felt he stretched the interior ligaments of his left knee."

playoff participant while West Delaware, the Wamac Conference co-champion, will make its first appearance. West Delaware will open at No. 9 Waterloo Columbus.

Tenth-rated Cedar Rapids Regis can qualify with a victory tonight, but it must defeat 4A second-ranked Waterloo East. If the Royals lose, it appears they will be in a close fight on points with Cedar Rapids LaSalle and Grinnell for the final 3A spot.

Whichever team emerges will face Benton Community in the opening round.

Cascade, which advanced with an undefeated record, is among five area teams in the 2A field.

The eighth-rated Cougars were joined in 2A by three other area unbeaten teams — Solon, Wapsie Valley and Iowa Valley — along with Turkey Valley.

Solon, the Eastern Iowa Hawkeye Conference champion and the No. 1-ranked team in 2A, is in the playoffs for the third straight year. Solon hosts Cascade in the first round.

Wapsie Valley, ranked No. 3 in 2A, advanced to postseason play for the sixth time. The Warriors, who will host No. 10 West Marshall, also will be making their third appearance in a row and fifth in the past six years.

Unranked Iowa Valley, the South

Iowa Cedar League winner, is in the playoffs for the second time. The Tigers, who qualified in 1981, open at No. 4 Mediapolis.

Turkey Valley qualified despite losing to Wapsie Valley Friday night. Turkey Valley will take on St. Ansgar in the opening round.

Center Point leads a group of three area qualifiers in Class 1A. The others are Postville and East Buchanan.

Once-beaten Postville, champion of the Upper Iowa Conference, also earned its second playoff appearance. The Pirates' opener is against Ackley-Geneva at 5:30 in the UNI-Dome.

EAST BUCHANAN, which will host Center Point Wednesday, will be making its second playoff appearance.

In Class A, Lone Tree earned its fourth postseason berth. Lone Tree, which won the A state title in 1982, opens at home against Gilman SEMCO.

The state championship games again will be played at the UNI-Dome in Cedar Falls. On Nov. 14, the Class A final is at 1:30 p.m., the 1A at 4:30 and the 4A at 7:30. On Nov. 15, the 2A title game is at 11 a.m. and 3A final at 2 p.m.
