Coghlan rally wins race, season crown

By Al Hall Gazette sportswriter

Dave Coghlan, Chopper Safley, Mike Schulte and Dudley Fleck all won feature races Friday during the season championship stock car races at Hawkeye Downs Speedway.

Coghlan, from Marion, capped an exciting season of Hobby Stock racing with a hard-earned victory and sewed up the season point title in the process.

He had to battle back after slipping to fourth early in the race. He was running second when he got caught in early lap traffic and was passed twice.

But on the 14th lap of the 20-lap feature, he charged out of turn four with the lead and then held Marion and John Strausser of other way around." Cedar Rapids.

"It was going to be a battle tonight," Coghlan said. "The transmission started rattling and I thought 'please hold on.' Coghlan was delighted with his first season of asphalt racing at the Downs. "I ran the first complete green lap on the quarter-mile and led," he said. "And I led the last lap." Several weeks into the season, officials added the Pro Stock division and Safley dominated early in the year. He was dominant again Friday.

"All-in-all, we had real good luck," he said. "We haven't had much equipment break and haven't had to spend a fortune on tires. We're getting some more cars and with a stronger field comes better competition. It's more fun that way.

Ickey Woods did all his shuffling behind the line of scrimmage against the Vikings (3-1) who held the 1988 rookie sensation to minus-six yards on seven carries. Minnesota also stopped Boomer Esiason, who passed for only 79 yards in three quarters.

Former Iowa standout Deven Harberts did not catch a pass and Rick Bayless rushed one time for a 5-yard loss.

■ JACKSONVILLE, Fla. — Greg Paterra scored three touchdowns, including two in a 55second span as both teams end the preseason.

Paterra, a rookie from Slippery Rock, scored on 1- and 2-yard runs in the third period that propelled Atlanta into a 23-14 lead en route to its only victory of the NFL exhibition season. Former University of Iowa running back Ronnie Buffalo caught three passes for 53 yards and rushed twice for seven yards.

Former Iowa standout Marv Cook saw his first action as a Patriot, catching one pass for a five-yard gain.

Iowa City High trio dooms Prairie

IOWA CITY — From Craig Jelinek's viewpoint in the press box, three things spoiled his debut as Cedar Rapids Prairie's head football coach Friday night.

Flynn. Young. And Roan. Those three Iowa City High stars - Shad Flynn, Byron Young and Michael Roan sparked the Little Hawks to a 12-7 victory over Prairie in a Mississippi Valley Conference opener at Bates Field.

Flynn passed for 153 yards and two touchdowns in the first half as City High grabbed a 12-0 lead. The scoring strikes covered 69 yards to Roan and 53 to Young.

Prairie caught fire in the second half behind Aaron Vlcko, its senior quarterback, but a solid defensive stand by City High and a Young interception kept the visitors at bay. "Their quality athletes were the difference," said Jelinek, who succeeded Ed Johnson as Prairie's coach this year. "It wasn't the trenches. It wasn't desire. Flynn, Roan and City High Coach Larry Brown sure liked having them in the Little Hawks' red-andwhite uniforms.

"Those three guys are pretty good athletes," said Brown. "The thing about the three of them, they've all been under the gun before." City High won the state basketball title last year with some of the same guys who beat Prairie in football last night.

Flynn did not throw a pass in the second half as Brown turned the workload over to tailback Brian Severson, who finished with 83 yards on 17 carries.

Meanwhile, Vlcko tried to pass Prairie to victory. His pin-point aerials to Chad Steele and Matt Hatcher accounted for 70 yards on a 90-yard march to paydirt, capped by Hatcher's plunge for the score.

That made it 12-7 midway through the third quarter. Prairie reached City High's 7-yard line early in the fourth period, but Jamie Keefer sacked Vlcko for a 7-yard loss and a fourthdown pass fell incomplete from the 14.

The Little Hawks struck early for a quick 6-0 lead. On their first possession, Flynn found

Roan with a dump pass over the middle, and the 215-pound fullback spun away from one tackler and hurdled another en route to the 69-yard score. Just 105 seconds had elapsed in the game. Later, with just 25 seconds left in the half. Flynn heaved a high-fly to Young, who outleaped Vlcko for the ball for the 53-yard

City High lost a 65-yard touchdown pass from Flynn to Roan in the third quarter on a clipping penalty. Jelinek spent the entire game relaying plays from the press box, leaving on-field duties to assistant coaches Dave Bennett and Mike

"If you lose it's a chancey thing," said Jelinek. "If you win you look like a genius." Vlcko passed for 142 yards, Hatcher rushed

Bob Timmerman ranks Brock Norton among the best fullbacks ever at Dubuque Hempstead, and the 222-pound senior did nothing to change that opinion Friday

Norton scored three touchdowns and rushed for 167 yards as Dubuque Hempstead opened the prep football season by whipping mistake-prone Cedar Rapids Jefferson, 34-6, at Kingston Stadium.

"We've had eight all-state fullbacks in 15 years, and he's as good as any of them," said Timmerman, the 16th-year Hempstead coach. "Possibly he can do some things even better than some of the others.'

"It didn't seem like I had that many yards," said Norton, who carried 24 times. "Blocking and running, that's all it was. We mixed things up real well. I think (Jefferson) gave us a couple points, too.'

Jefferson, which had only five first downs, suffered from penalties that prolonged Hempstead drives and a couple breakdowns in pass coverage.

"You can feel like you've run into a stone wall after something like this," said Jefferson Coach Bill Calloway, "but I know we can play with that team. We just made too many mistakes.

"Their first three scores were brought on by major mistakes by us. We were mentally ready. I think the mistakes are definitely Hempstead had a 14-0 halftime lead on a pair of 5-yard Norton plunges. Norton changed shoes and also booted both extra points.

The first scoring drive was aided by a 29-yard pass play from Brian Nelson to Tom Plotner on fourth-and-9. The second march was kept alive when, on third-and-18, Cary Murphy caught a floating, underthrown pass from Nelson for a 33-yard gain.

Norton's 12-yard run on the final play of the third quarter, and Ryan Jasper's kick, increased the lead to 21-0. An offsides call against Jefferson on fourth-and-5 and a pass interference call against the J-Hawks on third-and-

B.J. Calloway, Jefferson's junior quarterback and son of the coach, passed eight yards to Jason Hess for the J-Hawks' lone score with Jefferson's longest gain set up the touchdown. Shaft Baker, a 225-pound fullback, raced 40 yards to the Hempstead 26-yard line on fourth-and-1. Baker finished with 82 yards on nine carries.

Jason Plotner padded the Hempstead cushion when he slipped through the J-Hawk defense and raced 62 yards to score on the game's last play.

lead to 28-7, with 39 seconds left in the half. Bender, a 5-foot-8 senior who rushed for 1,268 yards last season, recorded scoring jaunts of 12, 4, 16, 15 and 36 yards. He also had a 55-yarder in the second quarter called back. Bender had 153 yards and three touchdowns by halftime as the Indians built a 28-7 lead. He added 141 yards and two more TDs in the third period. He did not play in the fourth quarter. "He's a great running back," said Messerli. "We were blocking well for him, although he doesn't need much of a hole. "I hate to use every superlative in the book . . ." Because not one of them can do him justice.

"How many yards did Bender have, 500?" asked Hillebrand. "He's outstanding. Marion's outstanding.

"I told our kids they played badly but they didn't lose to a bad football team. I think by season's end, you'll see Marion at the top of the Wamac Conference." Marion opens Wamac Conference play next Saturday against LaSalle at Kingston Stadium. Are drugs a problem
