Then came the big plays.

After gaining six on first down, Maloy bolted for 43 with his next carry putting the ball on the Wahlert 20. Junior quarterback Ryan Driscoll then hit Chad Rubenow with a 14-yard pass before Mulherin swept in from six yards out at the 6:50 mark. Shane Hayler's kick made it 7-0 Linn-Mar.

'Sean Rice gave me a good block and I just moved it outside," said Mulherin.

Two plays later, the Lions had the ball back when Rubenow picked off Howes' pass and returned it nine yards to the

After an incompletion and shovel pass netted only one yard, Driscoll found Mulherin near the Wahlert sideline. Mulherin juked two defenders and cut back across the field, motoring 44 yards for the touchdown. Hayler's extra-point made it 14-0 Linn-Mar with 4:45 left in the first period.

It took Linn-Mar one play to up its lead to 20-0 with 10:28 remaining in the third quarter.

"The line just blew a hole big enough to drive a Mack truck through," said Mulherin, who blasted up the middle, zipped to the sideline and went 43 yards uintouched — for the touchdown. Hayler's kick was blocked.

Wahlert finally crossed midfield on the next series, when a halfback pass resulted in a 30yard play that carried to the Linn-Mar 49.

Marion finished with 484 yards of total offense. It accumulated 82 yards rushing — including 101 yards from junior running back Andy Ehresman — and junior Thad Shaffer came off the bench late in the game to complete a pair of passes for 20 yards.

LaSalle (1-2) finished with 116 yards on the ground and 65 through the air. John Sparano rushed for 81 yards in 10 carries – all in the first half — to lead the Lancers.

LaSalle struck first, taking advantage of a first quarter interception by Jeremy Siefkas to march 34 yards in seven plays. The drive was culminated with a 4-yard touchdown run from quarterback Tim Novak with 5 minutes, 14 seconds left in the first quarter.

Marion's only touchdown of the first half came with 7:26 left in the second quarter on a 44yard pass from Fuller to Brent Conway. The Indians and Fuller had two apparent first-half touchdowns negated by holding penal-

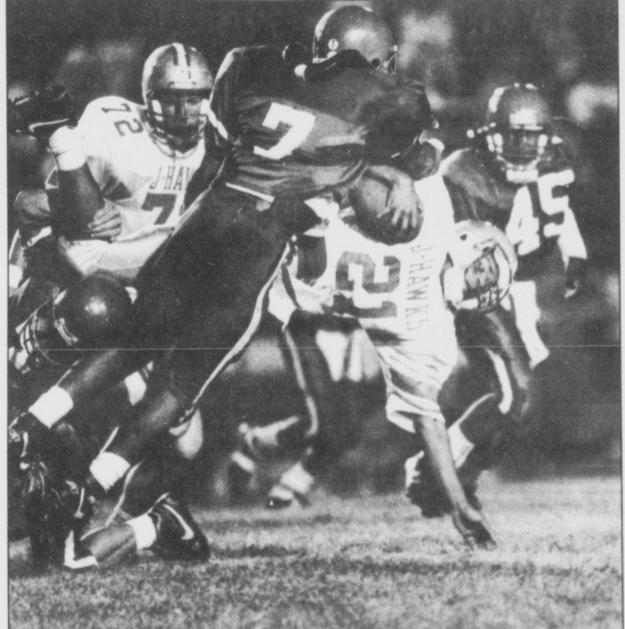

The Indians cut down on their mistakes in the second half and Fuller went to work. He found senior end Brennan Buckley with a 71-yard touchdown pass at the 7:26 point of the third quarter and senior fullback Brad De-Woody with a 32-yard TD strike with 10:29 left in the game.

Sandwiched between those two TDs was a 3-yard scoring run by Ehresman.

DeWoody was Fuller's favorite target on this night, grabbing nine passes for 144 yards. Conway snagged four Fuller tosses for 104 yards.

Quarterback search continues for Coe

By Bob Hilton

Coe football coach D.J. LeRoy spent last Saturday afternoon looking for an effective quarterback. He saw his two freshmen hopes throw five interceptions three in a row — while the Kohawks lost their opener at Wartburg, 45-21.

The search resumes at 1:30 p.m. today when Coe opens its home schedule against Simpson, which began its season with its first win over Drake in 41 seasons, 35-20. Three hours after the Coe-

Simpson kickoff, Cornell will face Concordia in the twilight game on a matinee-twilight twinbill in St. Paul City Stadium.

Sophomore Guy Parker passed Concordia to a 14-7 opening win over Augsburg last Saturday while Cornell successfully struggled to preserve the fruits of a fast start in a 13-9 surprise of visiting Buena Vista.

GUY SIMONS, last year's Iowa prep Class A passing leader, was Coe's starting quarterback at Wartburg. He went 7-of-20 for 60 yards, with three interceptions. Danny Dugan followed with a 6-11-2-80 performance. He's slated to start today.

"We'll keep giving them turns until one of them shows us the job is his," LeRoy said.

LeRoy found much to fault, but most rankling was the fact that Wartburg "outhit us." The Knights totaled 26 first downs and 477 yards, Coe 14 and 238.

Second in the Iowa Conference at 7-1 last season, and 8-2 overall, Simpson averaged a conferencerecord 528.5 yards, with unanimous-choice conference MVP Ricky Gales rushing for a conference-record 1,738.

Gales is gone, but second-team all-league QB Joe Blake passed for 180 yards and a touchdown against Drake, while Gales' successor, Rob Sinclair, was netting 119 yards and two TDs rushing.

After three years of free admission, Coe has resumed charging $3 for adults, $1 for students. Athletic Director Bill Quinby calls it "the bargain between 14th and 15th streets.'

CORNELL COACH Steve Miller was not a film fan this week. He said the video of the Rams' win over Buena Vista showed "we didn't play as well as we felt we had after the game.

'We made some big plays defensively, but we also got away with some breakdowns. We did a lot of good things on offense the first quarter, but after that we got progressively worse, which led to my getting more conservative. We've got to do better throwing. We aren't big enough to just hammer away at people.

"I was pleased that we had no turnovers or penalties the second half." Turnovers denied the Rams two scoring chances before their offense wilted, and, Miller noted, "they were the kind we have to avoid, caused by decisions, not collisions."

Miller said Concordia uses a pro-style offense in which the 6foot-3, 190-pound Parker can be expected to pass 40 times or more. "He's very cool," Miller arm, but he's accurate underneath, and he can throw long. He picked Augsburg's zone apart. "We've been working very hard on pressuring the passer, and on our underneath coverage.

"Beyond winning, our goal is to give all our quarterbacks a chance. Bruce Feldmann (junior from Alburnett) and Matt (Miller's freshman son) need game experience." Senior Todd White went the distance last Saturday.

Cornell will be minus 6-4, 215pound freshman tight end Dave Roy, who suffered an ankle sprain last Saturday.

COMING OFF its third loss in 64 regular-season games, and its first at home, Central begins its campaign for its eighth Iowa Conference crown in 10 seasons

The DuHawks rallied to edge Illinois Benedictine, 16-13, intheir opener last Saturday while Central frittered away a 13-0 firstquarter lead and lost to Gustavus Adolphus, 21-19.

Interceptions ended two Dutch scoring threats in the second quarter. Central set up the Gusties' winning TD with a fumble, and had a punt and an extra-point kick blocked.

Central Coach Ron Schipper said last week's three-quarterback rotation - soph Brad Arendt (Montezuma) started, freshman Shad Flynn (Iowa City) followed - can't continue.

'All three have limitations and all do some things well," Schipper said, "but we have to establish who we're going to play."

In other Iowa Conference openers today, Upper Iowa (1-0) entertains Buena Vista, Luther (0-1) invades William Penn (0-1) and Wartburg hosts Dubuque (0-0).

Winless in 10 outings a year ago, Upper Iowa used an opportunistic defense to win its 1990 opener, 32-11 over North Central in Naperville, Ill. Luther lost to St. Olaf, 22-21, William Penn to Graceland 19-7

St. Ambrose, which tied St. Thomas, 6-6, last Saturday in Ray Jauch's collegiate head coaching debut, is in Midland, Mich., today to meet a 2-0 Northwood team that last Saturday ended college football's longest win streak, 7-6 over Westminster, Pa. The topranked NAIA Titans had won 27 in a row

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — After a summertime courtship with several prospective partners, Florida State joined the Atlantic Coast Conference on Friday, bringing a football powerhouse to a league known for its basketball and academic excel-

'This is an outstanding opportunity for Florida State and I'm sure they'll make the most of it,' State University System Chancellor Charles Reed said. "It's a good fit for the Board of Regents' goal of making student-athletes students first.

Florida State officials will host ACC Commissioner Eugene Corrigan on Saturday to discuss

The Seminoles, who now compete in the Metro Conference in all sports except football, could begin their affiliation with the ACC in basketball and baseball in the 1991-92 school year. Football will take longer because schedules are made years in advance.

Florida State became the ninth member of the ACC when the regents unanimously approved the university's request to join the league in all sports.

"It's going to strengthen the entire university system," said Reed, noting Florida's membership in the 11-school Southeastern Conference.

"It's an achievement for Florida State when you consider where we were 15 years ago in regard to this," Bernard Sliger. university president, said. "If someone would have told me we'd be a likely candidate for a major all-sports conference . .

Current members of the ACC are Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina, Duke, Wake Forest, North Carolina State, Clemson and Georgia Tech.

The addition of Florida State marks the fourth time the league's membership has changed. Virginia was added in 1953. South Carolina left in 1971, and Georgia Tech was added in

The ACC's admission of Florida State marks the third major conference expansion in the past year. Earlier, Penn State joined the Big Ten and Arkansas went to the SEC. Florida State football coach

Bobby Bowden, who was in Thomasville, Ga., with his team for Saturday's game against Georgia Southern, issued a statement endorsing the decision. Only six games are on Florida State's football schedule against ACC opponents for the remainder of the decade. Clemson is scheduled for a home-and-home series in 1992 and 1993, Virginia in 1996 and 1997 and North Carolina State in 1998 and 1999.

Presently, Florida State's football team is ranked third. It has finished in the top three each of the past three years. Only once in those three seasons did an ACC team finish in the Top 10; Clemson was ninth in 1988.

The Seminoles also considered membership in the Southeastern Conference or a new Eastern Seaboard Conference. Remaining in the Metro, which also is planning to expand, was another

That's what his teammates say. That's what opponents say. His bat, his power, his ability to turn losses into victories with one swing, all give the Mets a chance to win the National League East despite their problems in winning road games and beating lefthanders.

"He means everything," Keith Miller said after Strawberry's three-run homer led the Mets past Pittsburgh, 6-3, Thursday night. The victory pulled New York within 11/2 games of the first-place Pirates.

Strawberry threw out Barry Bonds at home in the top of the fourth to keep Pittsburgh's lead at 2-0, then hit his homer in the bottom of the inning to put New York ahead.

"It was like everybody knew what was going to happen, Miller said. "It was the weirdest feeling on the bench. The crowd sensed it." Of the two, Strawberry thought the defensive play was more significant. "The most important play of the game was the throw, not letting them get up three runs in that situation," he said. Strawberry's two-run homer in the ninth inning Tuesday night had given the Mets a 10-8 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals. He has six home runs and 20 RBI since Aug. 30. "We can win when Darryl's not hitting home runs," Mets Manager Bud Harrelson said. "When he does, it's easy." Strawberry has 11 hits against the Pirates this season. Eight of them are home runs.

"Strawberry kills us," Pittsburgh's Bobby Bonilla said. "But we put him in situations where he can.

Next year, Strawberry may be hitting home runs for a different blank contract . . CR.J.-Nick Haidin 42 pass from Calloclub. He's eligible for free agency after the World Series and he wants a huge contract, one that will dwarf his current $1.8 million salary

So far, Mets general manager Frank Cashen and Eric Goldschmidt, Strawberry's agent, haven't had much to talk about. Their ideas on the player's worth are very different.

"Certainly we're anxious to sign Darryl, but not at all costs," Cashen said after negotiations broke off in July. "It's a ludicrous thought that we're going to give everybody everything they want, that we're going to give

Cashen later said that Strawberry wasn't a $5 million player, alluding to the $23.5 million, fiveyear extension signed by Oakland's Jose Canseco.

Goldschmidt has suggested the Mets might not want Strawberry
