Cincinnati to World Series

Powerful pitching boosts Reds over Pittsburgh, 2-1

CINCINNATI (AP) - For the Cincinnati Reds, it's goodbye to Pittsburgh's Killer B's and hello to the mighty Oakland A's.

The Reds brought a championship and cheers back to their town again Friday night by beating the Pirates for the National League pennant.

defense and timely hitting that gave the Reds a 2-1 victory in Game 6.

The World Series comes to Cincinnati starting Tuesday night when Dave Stewart is expected to start against Jose Rijo. Starter Danny Jackson and relievers Norm Charlton and Randy Myers combined to hold the Pirates to one hit. Pittsburgh made three errors. Ron Oester, the remaining link to the Big Red Machine of the 1970s, led off the seventh inning with a single off Zane Smith. Barry Larkin popped out on a bunt attempt, but Billy Hatcher's single moved Oester to third.

Piniella then pinch-hit Luis Quinones for Paul O'Neill. O'Neill was 8-for-17 in the series.

Quinones, 0-for-7 lifetime against Smith, delivered with a single to drive in Oester and send the Reds to their ninth NL pennant. Quinones was 13-for-36 as a pinch hitter this season.

"I feel a great sense of pride," Piniella said. "These guys played hard all year and I think we all had something to prove.

The Reds' championship comes only a little more than a year after Pete Rose was banned from baseball for gambling. Quinn came in and turned the Reds into winners again.

Two of the Nasty Boys, Charlton and Myers, finished the job started brilliantly by Jackson. The other Nasty Boy, Rob Dibble, struck out 10 of the 15 batters he faced in the series.

Perhaps fittingly, Dibble and Myers, the latter with three saves, shared series MVP honors. The Nasty Boys, including Charlton, pitched 16% innings, giving up six hits, one earned run and striking out 20 to guide the Reds to the World Series for the first time since 1976, when Cincy swept the New York Yankees.

Bonds walked and Carmelo Martinez followed with a drive that right fielder Glenn Braggs caught at the top of the wall. Myers fanned Don Slaught to end the game, as fireworks exploded above Riverfront Stadium.

Pittsburgh's one hit was the lowest total in playoff history. On four occasions, there have been two-hitters. In the World Series, Don Larsen pitched a perfect game against Brooklyn in 1956.

The expected pitching duel between Jackson and Smith eventually materialized, anyway. Jackson was just short of perfect for the Reds.

Kennedy's Gureno romps for 200 yards

By Mark Dukes

Joe Gureno thought he played a better game on defense, but his offensive contribution for Cedar Rapids Kennedy wasn't bad.

Gureno, a 6-foot-2, 180-pound senior tailback, gained 200 yards rushing on 31 carries and scored the winning touchdown Friday night as the 10th-ranked Cougars downed Cedar Rapids Jefferson, 13-6, in prep football at Kingston Stadium.

Kennedy, 6-1, moved into sole possession of second place in the Mississippi Valley Conference, as Dubuque Wahlert slipped to 5-2 with a loss at Cedar Rapids Prairie. Jefferson is 3-4.

Gureno, indeed, was exceptional at cornerback for the Cougar defense. He recovered a fumble, forced by Ben Pesch, at the Kennedy 5-yard line in the first half. He also made a touchdown-saving tackle on Eric Hale's 57-yard run in the second half, and tipped away the J-Hawks' conversion Gureno's touchdown run came with 3:50 remaining. He slanted off right tackle on third-and-three, appeared to be stopped, then followed blocks by Jamey Parker and Stacy Mostrom on a 73-yard scoring run. The extra-point kick failed.

"Defensively, I played a lot better than I have in the past," Gureno said. "We knew Jefferson would come out and play hard but I didn't think they'd play this well. You have to give them a lot of credit.

Gureno entered the game two yards out of the Valley rushing lead, but took over the top spot. He has 857 yards to 708 for Linn-Mar's Mick Mulherin and 701 for Dubuque Wahlert's Eric Metz, the previous leader.

"When Joe gets a few steps, nobody's going to catch him," said Kennedy Coach Don Knock. "Who should get a lot of credit is (fullback) Rob Posekany. A number of times he opened some great holes for Joe.'

Jefferson gained 254 yards rushing — 90 by Hale, 65 by junior Jason Young, — and had some excellent play on defense. Kirk Wischmeyer had three tackles for loss,

Linn-Mar holds off City High upset bid

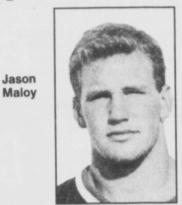

By Bob Denney

IOWA CITY - Having completed almost the entire turnover package known to football, Class 4A top-ranked Linn-Mar became mistake-free in time to hold off Iowa City High's upset bid, 17-7, Friday night.

Senior fullback Jason Maloy crashed one yard on a fourthand-goal play to snap a 7-7 tie with 5:43 left to play. Almost a minute later, Maloy sealed the issue by intercepting a pass to set up a Shane Hayler 33-yard field goal.

The Lions (7-0) retained a onegame Mississippi Valley Conference lead over Cedar Rapids Kennedy (6-1), and posted their first win at Frank Bates Field in three tries. City High, the last team to defeat the Lions, slipped to 4-3.

Maloy and senior running mate Mick Mulherin again teamed for an "M&M Boys special" to win it. The duo each carried in the deciding 58-yard scoring march.

Mulherin led all rushers with 98 yards on 19 carries, while catching one pass for 19 yards and recording one quarterback

Kleppe leads Prairie to win over Wahlert

By Mike Koolbeck

Mike Kleppe scored two touchdowns and passed for another to fuel a 19-point second quarter that carried Cedar Rapids Prairie past Dubuque Wahlert, 26-20, Friday night in a Mississippi Valley Conference prep football game at John Wall

The win, on homecoming, was Prairie's third straight after four losses to open the season.

Wahlert had its three-game win streak broken. The Golden Eagles fell into third place in the Valley at 5-2.

"The thing that makes this game special is that when we started out and lost those four games, we really began to question ourselves," said Prairie Coach Craig Jelinek.

Even wins against Dubuque Hempstead and Iowa City West, both winless when Prairie played them, could not resolve all questions, according to Jeli-

"We didn't know if the wins were because of schedule, or what," he said. "But I felt really good (about playing Wahlert) because we were starting to play good."

Alvarez returns; Hawks waiting

Barry Alvarez has lots of fond memories of victorious Saturday afternoons at Kinnick Stadium in Today he might leave Iowa City trying to forget he ever heard of the place.

Alvarez, an assistant football coach at Iowa for eight years, makes his return this afternoon as head coach of the Wisconsin

Badgers, and the Hawkeyes are waiting. Iowa, ranked 25th this week, is favored by 19 points to make this an unhappy homecoming for Alvarez and the other former U of I aides on the Wisconsin staff.

Kickoff is scheduled for 1:05 p.m. A sellout crowd of 70,389 is Wisconsin (1-3, 0-1) is trying to rebuild for the future behind Alvarez, who took over the program last January after a threeyear stint at Notre Dame.

Iowa (3-1, 1-0) is just trying to avoid an upset before tangling with top-ranked Michigan next week in Ann Arbor.

Much has been made of the fact Alvarez and two of his top lieutenants, Dan McCarney and Bernie Wyatt, know the Hawkeyes from their combined 30 years on the Iowa staff. In this case, however, knowing what's coming and trying to stop it are two different things.

"THE PLAYERS are the ones who have to do the talking," said Alvarez. "That (familiarity) won't help in the long run Saturday, I don't believe.

Just in case, Iowa Coach Hayden Fry threw a couple of smoke screens in Wisconsin's direction this week.

"They have our playbooks, our audible system. They know what we like to feature in certain situations," said Fry. "But they've been around me a long time. They know I'm the kind of guy, I'll try to take advantage of

"Sometimes," said Fry, knowledge can be a detriment. Too much knowledge can dang sure be bad.

Iowa's coaches will be watching the Wisconsin coaches like

"We'll check them out real quick," said Fry. "If they don't come in and play good sound, hard-nosed football, we're going to burn them. I'll just tell you that. We know what they know, and we can use that to our advantage."

Alvarez coached Iowa's linebackers from 1979 to '86 and helped the Hawkeyes win a pair of Big Ten titles along the way.

He saw Fry use a lot of unusual plays over the years, but the Badgers did not waste a lot of time worrying about Iowa's 'gadgets" this week.

Walden won't concede to powerful Colorado

By Al Hall

BOULDER, Colo. — Iowa State football coach Jim Walden says his team should just forget the past when Iowa State tackles 14th-ranked Colorado today.

Afterall, a miracle could hapabout that," he said. "Hey, let's win some wars, let's win some battles now. Let's not concede this thing.' The Cyclones are disappointed with their 2-2-1 start and are 22 point underdogs in today's 2:30 p.m. (Iowa time) game.

But Walden doesn't think his team's cause is totally hopeless. The Cyclones rank 13th nationally in total offense with 450 yards a game. Colorado, the 10th best rushing outfit nationally, is 32nd in total offense with 397.17 yards a game. ISU averages 30.8 points, Colorado 26.

So maybe there is a glimmer of hope, though most think not.

'We aren't the 13th best team in the nation on offense without knowing how to move the football," Walden says.

But there's a downside to all this statistical dreaming. Iowa State ranks 57th in total defense and 71st in rushing defense, allowing 181.6 rushing yards a game.

And Colorado's statistics have been made against tougher opposition. Wins over Stanford, Texas, Washington and Missouri, a loss to Illinois and a tie with Tennessee have not come easy. That's 4-1-1 the hard way.

'Their stats are not as good because of the people they've been playing," Walden admits. "We may be closer (in the statistics) than we really are (on the field).

'But, hey, let's go with the idea (that) if this team takes a day off, a miracle could happen.'

One thing is certain. The game matches two of the top running backs in the country. Colorado's Eric Bieniemy leads the Big 8 and ranks third nationally with 147 yards a game. Iowa State's Blaise Bryant is third in the league and 12th nationally with 110 yards a game, despite missing 11 quarters with a bruised shoul-

O'Meara hot; Prairie: Sinks Wahlert Rummells not in Vegas

LAS VEGAS (AP) - Mark O'Meara, who knocked 19 shots off par while winning last weekend, continues to hold the hottest hand in golf.

"My kind of game is one that can just click on, boom, and all of a sudden I start to stiff it," O'Meara said Friday after he shot a 5-under-par 67 and retained a one-stroke lead after three rounds of the 90-hole, $1.3 million Las Vegas Invitational.

One of those hot streaks clicked on at the Desert Inn, as O'Meara birdied five of six holes in one stretch. He completed one round over each of three desert resort courses in 198, 18 under par. But that just sets the stage, he said.

"Now," he said, "it gets down to the nitty-gritty.'

West Branch native Dave Rummells ballooned to a third-round 77 for a 216 total and missed the cut by four shots. Rummells shot 70-69 in the first two rounds.

The final two rounds will be played at the Las Vegas Country Club, the easiest of the three courses used for the first 54 holes.

"And there's still a lot of guys left in contention," O'Meara said. Chief among them are Bob Tway and John Cook.

including two sacks, Mark Zahradnik was a force at linebacker, and Thad McDowell had two sacks.

"I feel bad for our kids because they played hard and it obviously was a game we could've won," Jefferson Coach Bill Calloway said. "Our defensive coaches did a great job. The J-Hawks had an apparent touchdown nullified with 5:53 left in the first period. Kennedy's Mike Morrison waved for a fair catch of a Jefferson punt at the Cougar 15-yard line, but the ball bounced off the helmet of blocking back Brent Paulson. The ball bounded into the end zone, where Jeff's Nick Haidin recovered.

One official signaled a touchdown. But the officiating crew huddled and ruled the ball was muffed — as opposed to fumbled — and the kicking team could not recover the ball in the end zone for a touchdown. Therefore, it was a touchback and Kennedy's "That was big, no doubt," said Calloway. "But if it's the rule, it's the rule.

Kennedy threatened to score twice in the first half, but was turned away both times. Kennedy quarterback Chad Wiese was stopped inches short of the goal line on fourth-and-goal by Jeff cornerback Rob Williams. The next series, Haidin deflected a Wiese-to-Pesch pass on fourth down at the Jeff 15.

Jefferson had first-and-goal at Kennedy's five. But Gureno recovered B.J. Calloway's fumble on second down with 1:32 left in Wiese threw his eighth touchdown pass of the season with 3:33 left in the third period, a 25yarder to Brad Meskimen. Mike Halley kicked the extra point.

Hale ran 57 yards to the Kennedy 9 on the first play after the kickoff. Three plays later, Calloway scored from the six. Calloway's conversion pass to McDowell was tipped away by Gureno.

The key, according to Jelinek, was Prairie's renewed defensive intensity and it showed. The Hawks were heard to be chanting "Get Metz, get Metz," as they waited to enter the field for pregame warm-ups. They then went out and got him, holding Valley rushing leader Eric Metz to 42 yards in 15 carries, 67 yards below his per game average.

'We keyed on him," said Jelinek. "It doesn't take a genius to realize that in order to stop them, you have to stop Metz.'

The Prairie defense forced a Wahlert punt on the Golden Eagles' first possession of the game but committed a roughing the kicker penalty that wiped out a 24-yard punt and gave Wahlert a first down on its own 45. Six plays later, Metz shrugged off two Hawk defenders and chugged nine yards for a touchdown. Marc Louis' PAT kick gave Wahlert a 7-0 lead.

After an exchange of possessions, Prairie finally got untracked, marching 65 yards. Kleppe's sneak from the 1 capped the 12-play drive and gave the Hawk senior his first rushing touchdown of the season.

But Prairie still trailed, 7-6, when Victor Sackett's PAT kick was pushed wide right.

Prairie then received its first big break of the night when junior Bret Joens blindsided Wahlert quarterback Brian Howes, who coughed up a fumble that the Hawks' Brett Dostal recovered at the Wahlert 20.

Four plays later, on third-andgoal at the 2, Kleppe rolled right and dove into the Hawk end zone for the go-ahead touchdown, 12-7.

Wahlert lost 14 yards on three plays — including a 10-yard sack of Howes by Dostal - and was forced to punt. Prairie then zipped 44 yards in ton four plays, capped by Kleppe's 24 yard pass to Dostal for the touchdown, for a 19-7 lead with 3:37 remaining in the first half.

Wahlert stormed back but Metz coughed up a fumble at the Prairie 3 that was recovered by Doug Meyer with just under a minute remaining.

"We really didn't want to wait for the second half, we wanted to get right back out there," said Kleppe, Prairie's 6-foot-6 quarterback, who completed 11-of-19 passes for 159 yards. He also carried the ball 11 times for 36 yards.

'The line was giving me a lot of time to pass and the receivers were catching everything close to them," said Kleppe.

"With their four-man pass rush, I thought we'd get time to throw," said Jelinek. "I thought maybe we got a little conservative in the third quarter, but then we started throwing the ball again in the fourth. We really had nothing to lose."

Wahlert closed to within 19-13 on Metz's two-yard run with 48 seconds remaining in the third quarter.

Prairie marched right back, going 74 yards in 12 plays. Junior Matt Hatcher, who was the Hawks' leading rusher with 77 yards, crashed in from the 1 with 8:40 left to play.

Howes' four-yard scamper with 4:14 remaining pulled Wahlert to within 26-20. The Golden Eagles then decided against trying an onside kickoff, booting the ball long instead.

Prairie ran out the clock, picking up three critical first downs and burning all three Wahlert timeouts.

sack as a strong safety. The 5-foot-11, 193-pound Maloy churned for 69 tough yards on 20

"It's a tough place to play, I'll tell you that," Maloy said. "We really had to screw our heads on down here. We really played tough, and as a team. The linemen did just a great job of blocking for Mick and myself. We just decided to keep the ball on the ground, use up some time and get it through the goal line."

A near-capacity homecoming crowd viewed the defensive struggle, including the University of Wisconsin marching band and Badger assistant football coach Bernie Wyatt — here on a recruiting stop before facing Iowa today at Kinnick Stadium.

Linn-Mar opened the game as if it was going to dictate its own scoring margin. The Lions drove 66 yards in 12 plays, with Chad Rubenow hauling in an over-theshoulder 6-yard touchdown pass from junior quarterback Ryan Driscoll. Hayler's extra point boot and 7-0 lead came at the 7:58 mark in the quarter.

There wasn't another serious scoring threat by either team until 11:44 remained in the game. During the drought, the Lions committed five tournovers with Driscoll being intercepted three times — twice by Dave Schmucker. Driscoll had come into the game with only two interceptions and averaging 143 yards passing. He finished 7 of 17 for 103 yards. Teammate tight end Sean Rice caught four passes for 46 yards.

And, Linn-Mar chipped in two fumbles to snuff out drives.

'When you turn it over six or seven times (actually five), you shouldn't win the game," said Lions Coach Greg Purnell. "But, just tenacious defense all year long has been our trademark. Schimberg shines; Regis wins

Today's prep football score lists will show that Cedar Rapids Regis won Friday night's Wamac Conference game over parochial rival Cedar Rapids

But even though the win moved the Royals to 4-1 in the league (5-2 overall), keeping them 1/2-game ahead of West Delaware (3-1) in the Wamac, there was no celebrating on the Royal sideline.

Regis players and fans alike knew this was a game that could have gone either way. The difference proved to be Dave Schimberg.

Schimberg, the Wamac's leading rusher entering the game, ran for 214 yards on 30 carries — including 22 rushes for 161 yards and a touchdown in the second - to lead the host Royals to the win on Marion's chilly Thomas Park

Dave Schimberg LaSalle dropped to 2-3 in league play and 3-4 overall. The Lancers, a Class 1A school playing an all 3A schedule, still have an outside shot at a playoff spot with a win in either of their last two

'We did a good job, I'm pretty proud of (the players)," LaSalle Coach Ralph Rollins said. "This is a tough one for 'em. If you noticed the looks on their faces as they were getting on the bus you saw they're not accepting this. And I'm glad they're Regis led at halftime, 7-0, despite the fact LaSalle controlled the ball most of the half. The Lancers ran 38 plays to the Royals' 20 in the first 24 minutes.

"Everytime we seemed to be getting something going we'd get a critical penalty or something, Regis Coach Gaylord Hauschildt said of his team's first-half performance. "But we got the touchdown late and that really helped our momentum heading into the second half."

The Royals scored their first touchdown with just 16-seconds left in the second quarter on a 6-yard run by quarterback Dan Martin, culminating a 7play, 64-yard drive.

During the drive, Martin had a 22-yard run on a play where he was nearly sacked for a loss and also connected with Greg Hawthorne with a 15-yard pass which brought the Royals a first-and-goal on the 6-yard line.

LaSalle had the first-half's most prolific drive, but sputtered 14-yards short of the end zone. With tailback John Sparano and quarterback Tim Novak: doing the brunt of the work, the Lancers moved from their own 32 to the Royal 14 on 16 plays before being stopped on downs.

The Lancers converted four third-down situations during the drive.

The Royals' — and the game's — final score came with just 4:18 left when Schimberg scored on a 5yard run. Regis moved the ball 78 yards in 10 plays. for the score with Schimberg accounting for 64 of those on nine carries.

"Dave is a real gutty running back and he showed his determination during that drive," Hauschildt praised. "Our offensive line made a great surge in

Novak, a 5-8, 140-pound senior, led LaSalle with 41 yards rushing on 18 carries and completed 9 of 18 passes for another 66 yards.

Willis sets lowa block record

DES MOINES (AP) — Lynn King, a former coach and administrator at Northern Iowa, on Friday was named athletic director for a Drake program trying to bind the wounds left by a basketball player revolt last winter.

King, 44, was appointed by Drake President Michael Ferrari after a nationwide search that lasted 41/2 months. More than 100 people sought the job, which opened when Curt Blake resigned June 1.

"This is kind of the epitome of the kind of school that I wanted to be involved with." said King, who has been athletic director at WisconsinOshkosh since August 1988. "Because it shares the same kind of academic and athletic philosophy that I have personally. I am a very fortunate individual."

King was one of three finalists recommended to Ferrari by a 12-member search committee. The others were Drake football coach Rob Ash, who has been interim AD since Blake left, and David Rosengard, an ex-marketing director for the Chicago Bulls.

Ferrari said King has "distinguished himself as a student, student-athlete, coach, teacher and administrator.'
