Hawkeyes to show true form

oday we should finally find out what the Iowa football team is all about.

Are the Hawkeyes the guys who could play Miami straightup for three quarters in the Orange Bowl, or the guys who Wisconsin played straight-up for three quarters in Iowa City?

Are the Hawks the guys who rode out of Michigan State with a win, or the guys who let rookie Iowa State quarterback Bob Utter ride all over them?

Does Hayden Fry have a hand full of cards he has yet to play, or has he shown all he has to show?

Even with a very real set of question marks hanging over the Hawks' heads, those marks have a much more positive punctuation than they did five weeks ago. Iowa's 4-1 record is everything their fans could have hoped

The average John or Jane Hawkeye figured Miami was a can't-win situation, but wanted their team to represent itself well and not leave its self-esteem shredded in south Florida.

Cincinnati and Wisconsin were expected victims.

Going into the season, Iowa State was potentially dangerous. A win was by no means guaranteed for the Hawks. They got it, even if they looked no better than the Cyclones in the bargain.

Michigan State, most felt, was a probable loss. It didn't hurt that the Spartan receivers couldn't catch against Iowa, or that the MSU play-calling on offense was as colorful as tap water. But those same guys went to Michigan and scored 28 points in winning, didn't they?

NOW IT'S BACK to the state of Michigan, back to another nationally-ranked archrival, back to being a solid underdog.

So far, this business of modest expectations has worked extremely well for Hayden Fry. Friday's Chicago Tribune said "surprising" Iowa was visiting Michigan today. Not that long ago, Fry and all in his Hawkdom would have been offended at the term "surprising." Today, it's high flattery.

For Fry's public posturing, Michigan is another little-to-lose game. The Wolverines are the Big Ten favorites, they were ranked No. 1 in the country, and so on. If Michigan beats the Hawks - and there isn't an oddsmaker in all of Western civilization who doesn't think it will -Fry can shrug his shoulders and say, hey, it's no surprise, no embarrassment.

And who could argue? Perhaps the only way today can be a total negative is if Michigan rips the Hawkeyes asunder, which is within the realm of possibility. It's all too possible, in fact.

But if Iowa plays the Wolverines close and hard, the Hawkeyes' confidence should stay intact and the bowl scouts will be aplenty in the Kinnick Stadium press box next Saturday as the Hawks maul Northwestern.

THE POPULAR LINE of thinking is that Michigan will be ornery today after getting jobbed by the officials last Saturday on the infamous non-pass interference call on the game's final play. Michigan State didn't do Iowa any favors by beating Michigan.

That's just psycho-babble. What MSU did was good for the Hawkeyes on three fronts. One, it messed with the heads of Michigan's defenders. Two, it showed Iowa that the Wolverines are not invincible. Three, it gave Michigan a loss. If the Hawks pull a stunning upset today, the Wolverines are as good as out of the Rose Bowl race.

That's a monumental 'if.' Two losses or not, Michigan has the best talent in the Big Ten, and should have plenty of desire to go with it this afternoon.

Want a prediction? Forget it. Meanwhile, as the Big Ten goes through another week of plodding, all the nation will watch the Last Tango in South Bend. Miami and Notre Dame.

The Final Meeting. Should Notre Dame win, Irish fans should party into the night and then think of one word as

Sabo swats a pair as Cincy tops A's for 3-0 advantage

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP) - The Cincinnati Reds, the team that would be swept, are on the verge of sweeping this World Series.

Enough of Oakland's failing A's. The Reds made an unmistakable case Friday night that they are winning, rather than the Athletics losing.

Hawkeyes get chance to beat odds at Michigan

Gazette sportswriter

Iowa Coach Hayden Fry figures the odds are 2-to-1 against the Hawkeyes upsetting Michigan in their Big Ten football game in Ann Arbor today

But, said Fry, the closer the score, the better he likes the odds.

"It will go one of two ways," Fry predicted. "We'll either play them real close, or they'll blow us out. What I'm saying is, we won't blow them out.

"They have two chances to win and we have one.'

That was the day Bret Oberg passed for 411 yards, Steve Lester caught 13 passes for 203 yards and two touchdowns, including a 71-yarder, and Blaise Bryant rushed for 151 yards. Iowa State had 609 yards (the most an Oklahoma defense has ever given up) but still lost, 43-40.

"We just have to attack it the same way we did a year ago and hope our players are equal to the task," said Iowa State Coach Jim Walden, who hopes the Cyclones can defeat Oklahoma for the first time since 1961. "I worry about it. At this point in time, I don't think we're as good offensively as we were a year ago.

"We had three NFL players last year. A wide receiver named Lester, a guard named (Keith) Sims and a tight end named (Mike) Busch. And they were perfectly distributed. Here was the perfect distribution — a great tight end on one side of the line, a beautiful blocker, a big guy inside who makes everyone around him play better and then an outstanding receiver that put enormous pressure on people. Add all that up and then slip the ball to a running back named Bryant every now and again and there was a lot of air in there."

No. 16 Oklahoma is a 241/2point favorite in the 1 p.m.

Obviously, some of the names have changed for Iowa State (2-3-1, 0-1-1). Busch is playing professional baseball, Sims is a promising rookie with the Miami Dolphins and Lester is trying to improve his grades at a junior college in Chicago.

No. 10 Cougars run over Prairie

By Jeff Dahn

The 10th-ranked Cedar Rapids Kennedy football team proved early Friday night that a strong wind blowing into its face would not be detrimental to its offensive game plan.

Nor would the Cedar Rapids Prairie defense.

The Cougars drove into a stiff south wind to score touchdowns on their first two possessions en route to a convincing 32-14 Mississippi Valley Conference win over the Hawks on John Wall

With its sixth straight win, Kennedy improved to 7-1 on the season and locked-up a spot in the Class 4A playoffs. The Cougars finish their regular season Thursday night when Dubuque Wahlert visits Kingston Stadium.

The loss snapped a three-game Don Knock said. "But our guys win streak for Prairie, which will take a 3-5 record to its season finale against Iowa City High in Iowa City Friday night.

The Kennedy offense amassed 373 yards against the Hawks, 207 on the 11-of-17 passing of junior quarterback Chad Wiese.

His favorite target was senior Brad Meskimen, who caught six passes for 88 yards, including a one-handed grab in the corner of the end zone for a 17-yard touchdown with 5 minutes, 4 seconds left in the first period.

Senior Joe Gureno, the leading rusher in the Valley, led the Cougar ground attack with 98 yards on 25 carries. He scored three TDs, all on 1-yard runs.

ORLANDO, Fla. - Tim Simpson "cooled off" to a 65 Friday but increased his lead to six strokes in the Disney Golf Classic with a record-tying, three-round total of 193, 23 under par.

Fuller shines, but 'D' is key

Marion earns win over Mustangs

By Jeff Johnson

Travis Fuller had his usual excellent game, Brent Conway also was stellar, but the muchmaligned Marion defense led the way to a 27-13 victory over Independence Friday night at Thomas Park Field.

Fuller completed 17 of 27 passes for 279 yards and four touchdowns, going past the 2,000 yard passing mark on a 9-yard pass to Tim Frake in the second quarter. He has 2,215 yards for the season.

Teammate Conway caught seven Fuller aerials for 192 yards and a pair of touchdowns, including a magnificent 48-yard TD effort that salted the game away early in the fourth quarter.

But the Marion defense virtually won the game with three defensive stands in the third quarter. With Marion ahead 20-13, Independence took the second half kickoff and drove from its own 30-yard line to Marion's 30. But the Indian defense stopped further penetration there, forcing the ball back over on downs.

A botched reverse play on Marion's offensive posession gave the ball back to the Mustangs on a fumble at Marion's 28 But once again the defense held, keyed by a Jason Jorgensen fourth-down sack of Indy quarterback Chad Beatty.

With 31/2 minutes left in the quarter, Indy's Dan Sperry intercepted a tipped Fuller pass, giving the Mustangs the ball on the Marion 21. But once again, Marion's defense did the trick, moving Independence back to near midfield, where they were forced to punt.

'We're real happy with the victory," Marion Coach Dave Messerli said. "We had to play an awful lot of defense. Our defense sure made some big stands. If we would have given them one more score, who knows what would have happened.'

Independence Coach Tom Sheets agreed the third quarter was the key to the ballgame.

"Offensively, we just couldn't take advantage of the turnovers," Sheets said. "Our inability to punch it in really hurt us.

"I want to give Marion a lot of credit. Dave Messerli's done an excellent job of switching offensive philosophies. That Fuller Independence had a nice drive of its own towards the end of the first quarter, with halfback Bob Beatty finishing things off with a 3-yard touchdown run on a fourth down play that ended the first period. Beatty carried the ball 32 times for 162 yards in the game. Rod Pierce's extra point gave the Mustangs a 7-6 lead.

Marion took the kickoff to start the second quarter and drove down the field, on a 78-yard drive that ended on an 8-yard touchdown pass from Fuller to running back Andy Ehresman. Fuller drifted towards the left on the play and threw a perfect touch pass over the Independence defender for the score. The two-point conversion try failed.

After Independence turned the ball over on downs, Marion took just six plays to go 80 yards for another score. Fuller connected with Conway on a 16-yard scoring strike and with Brad De-Woody for the two-point conversion, making the score 20-7.

Independence, however, drove down before the half and scored on a 3-yard Beaty run with 28 seconds to go in the second period. The extra point kick was wide, making it 20-13 at halftime.

Marion put the game away in the fourth quarter when the 5foot-8 Conway grabbed a long pass away from the much taller Bob Beatty and ran in for a 48yard score with 11 minutes to go in the game. Conway recovered a fumble after a completed Independence pass on the Marion 30 with five minutes left to end the Mustangs last hope.

Marion improved to 6-2 overall with the win, 3-2 in the Wamao Conference. Independence dropped to 2-3 and 3-5.
