LEW! LEW! LEW!

lowa fullback Lew Montgomery scores the first of his two touchdowns in a 31-21 victory Saturday at Purdue.

Lew's catching as a Hawk receiver

By Jim Ecker Gazette sportswriter

OWA CITY — Somebody should write a book about Iowa's Lew Montgomery and call it "The Little Fullback Who Could.'

He could run, he could block, he could score touchdowns, he could play tailback when needed, he could catch passes

Lots of passes. So many, in fact, he's leading the Hawkeyes in receptions with 26 heading into Saturday's game at Ohio State.

"It's something I really never expected to do, but I'm full of surprises," he said. Indeed.

"At the beginning of the season, everyone thought I'd be running the ball more, but

Hawk defense turns it on in second half, 3D surprisingly enough I'm catching a lot of passes," he said. "It's a great feeling.

"I think it adds another dimension to this team, because we don't have to rely totally on receivers to catch the ball.

Montgomery's 26 catches have produced 199 yards. mostly on little safety-valve passes. Danan Hughes is still Iowa's big-play receiver with 22 grabs for 437 yards.

When the season began, Mike Saunders was considered the best pass-catcher among running backs after spending the 1990 season as a wide receiver, but Iowa's coaches know other teams are watching Saunders coming out of the backfield.

That's one reason Montgomery has gotten open so much. Another reason is that he's good. "He's always had hands, he's just never had the opportunity to catch the ball," said Coach Hayden Fry.

Iowa lists Montgomery as being 6 feet tall. That may be an exaggeration, but there's no exaggerating his importance to the 11th-ranked team in the country.

He leads the Hawkeves in touchdowns with seven and he's second behind Saunders in rushing with 211 yards.

His career stats are starting to add up, and he's only a junior: 125 carries for 448 yards, 45 receptions for 324 yards, and 14 touchdowns. He especially likes those TDs.

"I love the end zone," he said with a gleam. "I feel if it gets anywhere within the 10vard line. I just have this internal burning feeling that if they call my number, I can score."

He proved that at Waterloo East High School, scoring 46 touchdowns in a career that ended with him being named the USA Today Iowa Player of the Year in 1987.

Montgomery came to Iowa City as a tailback, but that spot was a little crowded with Nick Bell, Tony Stewart and others. He switched to fullback, but got a little taste of his old position when Saunders could not start against Wisconsin due to sore ribs. Montgomery got the call against the Badgers and played well, and he wouldn't mind getting another shot at tailback in 1992 after Saunders graduates. But he's not campaigning for the job. "I just want to win here at the University of Iowa," he said. "I'm glad of the opportunity and I'm going to take advantage of it.'

He's glad of the academic opportunity, too, he said. Playing in the NFL has been a childhood dream, but it's not his main goal.

"My main goal is to graduate, and it's something I'd like to tell all the youngsters out there," said Montgomery, a communications major. 'When you focus on athletics, you have a tendency to get wrapped up in it. 'You can use athletics as a stepping stone to reach other goals, but you have to focus on your education because that's something no one can take away from you."

Kennedy kicks Lions

Cedar Rapids Kennedy's Mike Morrison rambles 36 yards with a pass from quarterback Chad Wiese to set up the Cougars' first touchdown Wednesday night in Class 4A playoff action against Linn-Mar at Kingston Stadium. Linn-Mar's Matt Mitchell made the stop on Morrison, and the Cougars went on to an 18-6 victory over the two-time defending state champs.

Cougars move on in 4A, 18-6

By Jeff Dahn

Mike Morrison added another job skill to his already impressive football resume Wednesday night, and as a result, Cedar Rapids Kennedy now has a playoff win in its football history.

Morrison, the Cougars' leading rusher during the regular season, threw a pair of touchdown passes and rushed for another to lead Kennedy to an 18-6 upset of seventh-ranked Linn-Mar in a Class 4A, first-round playoff game in front of an estimated 2,000 fans at Kingston Stadium.

Kennedy (8-2) advances to the quarterfinals and will play fellow Mississippi Valley Conference member Dubuque Wahlert Monday in Dubuque. Wahlert beat Kennedy in the regular-season finale last Friday.

Linn-Mar, the two-time defending state champion, bowed out at

"Last year we got in the playoffs, and I don't know if were satisfied with that or not," said Kennedy Coach Don Knock, whose Cougars were beaten by Linn-Mar in the first round last year. "This year we got in the playoffs, and I think these kids wanted more than just to get in. You've got to beat the best to be the best, and we beat one of the best tonight, there's no doubt about it.

Linn-Mar Coach Greg Purnell had no comment.

Defense sparks Regis to easy 3A victory

Mike Koolbeck Gazette sportswriter

Regis Coach Gaylord Hauschildt put his team's hopes in the hands of the seventhranked Royals' defense in Wednesday night's Class 3A prep football playoff game with Mount Pleasant.

They were very capable hands.

Royal defenders held Mount Pleasant to two first downs and 13 yards in building a 20-0 lead by halftime and eased past the Panthers, 33-6, in a first-round game played before a sparse crowd at frosty Thomas

Regis (9-1) advances to play second-ranked Pella (10-0) Monday at Pella. Tickets for the game are on sale at the school office.

Mount Pleasant won the coin toss but deferred its choice until the second half. Rather than opting to receive, Regis kicked off.

"It was a wind situation," said Hauschildt. "We had a lot of confidence in our defense and when you have to punt into that wind, the ball can do dumb things."

Mount Pleasant ran three plays for 1 yard and punted to the Regis 42.

Regis junior Jim Zachar dashed 14 yards on the Royals' first play from scrimmage. Seven plays later, on second-and-9 from the 10. Zachar shrugged off a tackler at the line of scrimmage, bounced outside and zipped in for the touchdown. The rout was on.

"Our kids just didn't believe when they went out there," said Mount Pleasant Coach Bob Jensen.

A 72-yard punt return by junior Tony Campbell was followed by a 12-play, 86-yard touchdown march. Zachar's 1-yard scoring run gave Regis a 20-0 lead with 9:45 left in Mount Pleasant crossed the 50-yard line only once in the first half. A 13-yard sack of quarterback Brant Miller by Regis' Nic Olberding pushed the Panthers back into their own territory just before the half.

"Our front eight people really put a lot of pressure on their offensive line," said Hauschildt, specifically mentioning tackles Matt Holtz and Shawn McVay, and ends Gerry Hoefer and Greg Hawthorne. "They didn't have a lot of time to pass."

Jensen pointed to Regis' size advantage in the lines. "When you see their shortest guy is 6-1 and our tallest guy is 5-11, it's a struggle," he said.

Mount Pleasant finished with 104 yards.

Led by Zachar's 75 yards and two touchdowns, Regis rolled up 118 yards rushing by halftime. Senior quarterback Ross Wilken, who was 7-of-11 for 154 yards, took over in the third quarter, completing five straight passes. He threw passes of 47 and 48 yards to Matt Drahos that set up both of the Royals' second-half scores.

Regis finished with 316 yards.

Mount Pleasant scored its only touchdown when Josh Bezoni burst 21 yards against the Regis reserves in the fourth quarter.

No shock: AL honor is Kelly's

Tom Kelly, whose Minnesota Twins became the only club in baseball history to go from last place one year to World Series winners the next, Wednesday was named American League Manager of the Year.

Kelly guided the Twins to a seven-game victory over the Atlanta Braves for his second World Series title in his five seasons. The Twins also won baseball's championship in 1987, Kelly's first season.

The Twins were 74-88 in 1990, last in the AL West. At Kelly's urging, they pursued free agents Jack Morris, Mike Pagliarulo and Chili Davis and, after a 2-9 start that led to speculation Kelly would be fired, had the majors' best record over the last 151 games to finish 95-67.

Brewers tab Garner as manager for 1992

Garner, the feisty infielder nicknamed "Scrap Iron" who helped lead the Pittsburgh Pirates to the 1979 World Series championship, was named manager of the Milwaukee Brewers Wednesday.

Garner was the fourth former player in a month to be hired as manager without any previous major-league experience in the job. The others are Boston's Butch Hobson, Buck Showalter of the New York Yankees and Seattle's Bill Plummer.

"It's an exciting opportunity and one I hadn't anticipat-MILWAUKEE (AP) - Phil ed at this point," said Garner, a thirdbase coach last year with the Houston Astros.

> New Brewers general manager Sal Bando said he picked Garner, his former teammate on the Oakland Athletics in the 1970s, to replace Tom Trebelhorn because of his personality.

> "He has the work ethic and the personality. I just felt he was the right personality to take us to the next level," said Bando, who earlier said he was looking for a manager who could be tougher on players than Trebelhorn.

Kelly received 27 of a possible 28 first-place votes in balloting by the Baseball Writers Association of America and finished with 138 points. Detroit manager Sparky Anderson, who received the other first-place vote, was second with 50 points and Toronto's Cito Gaston was third with reporters from each AL city.

MINNESOTA DEFEATED the Toronto Blue Jays in five games in the AL playoffs before beating the Braves, who went from last to first in the NL. Tuesday, Atlanta's Bobby Cox was named the NL's top manager by the BBWAA.

Kelly said 1991 was more satisfying than 1987 because he was allowed to have more say about the club's makeup.

"We brought in people who we thought would help us win," he said. "I don't want to sound like I'm blowing my own horn, but I wanted (batting coach Terry) Crowley. I wanted Pagliarulo. I Voting is done by two baseball made a big push to get Chili and I campaigned for Jack. When the owner says, 'If you get Morris, you've got to guarantee me first, second or third,' what you're doing as a manager is putting your guts right up there on the table. Now, you've got to win."

Gamble's back in Celtic fold

BROOKLINE, Mass. (AP) Dee Brown was gone. But Kevin Gamble was on his way back. And Larry Bird agreed to stay for two more years.

Boston Celtics coach Chris Ford wanted to spend the nextto-last day of training camp tuning up his team. Instead, he was surrounded Wednesday by a hectic series of comings and goings that may not be over.

With Brown, who underwent surgery on his left knee Wednesday, and Brian Shaw both ailing. the Celtics were searching for a backup point guard to an overweight John Bagley in time for Friday night's season opener against Charlotte.

Gamble, the former University of Iowa standout who was last year's starting small forward, signed a reported three-year contract Wednesday afternoon.

And Bird, who had one year left on his contract, on Wednesday morning signed a two-year extension through the 1993-94 season, reportedly worth at least $4 million per year.

Bird, believed to be making $7 million this season, left practice without talking to reporters, but his attorney, Bob Woolf, said negotiations were smooth.

Gamble's contract was believed to be worth about $3.5 million. He has been working out and may play Friday night.

Western Dubuque averaged nearly 270 yards a game during the regular season but never could get on track against the Hawks.

The host Bobcats managed just 34 rushing yards and managed just one first down through the first three quarters of play.

West Delaware (9-1) advances to Monday's second round against the winner of Waverly-Shell Rock's game with Decorah. Western Dubuque, the co-champion in the Big Bend Conference, retires at 8-2.

West Delaware was able to capitalize on good field position throughout the game and had better luck mixing its offense. The Hawks had almost perfect balance with 133 rushing yards PREP PLAYOFFS

Rick Hilby rushed for 74 yards for the Hawks and Adam Tyrrell completed 9 of 20 passes. Western Dubuque is winless in two playoff games. West Delaware improved its playoff record to 2-3. The Hawks dropped a first round decision to Waverly-Shell Rock last year.

Hilby had the game's first touchdown when he bolted in from the 8 on the last play of the first quarter. Jeff Harris, who kicked the PAT, added a 20-yard field goal late in the first half and the Hawks had all the scoring they needed on a night when the defense was superb.

Jeff Soppe intercepted a pass and Tom Boge and Steve Carr recovered fumbles to help turn back the Bobcats.

Meanwhile, Terry Wegmann scored on a 1-yard run midway through the third quarter and Tyrrell passed 6 yards to Soppe early in the fourth.

"We usually use (the halfback pass) on extra points, and it works real well, and tonight Coach decided to throw it in, and it really paid off," Morrison said.

"Coach really wanted to run the ball on Linn-Mar, and the linemen — they didn't need to talk or anything, they just showed it on the field.

The Cougars finished with 194 yards rushing and 154 passing. Quarterback Chad Wiese completed 10 of 16 passes for 138 yards and was intercepted twice. But the game's turning point was created by the Kennedy de-

Better question: What happened to the Packers? After the surprising 10-6 season of '89, Green Bay (2-6) has lost 16 of 24. The dubious turnaround certainly has puzzled Majkowski, whose decline is largely responsible for the team's slide.

"It's hard to explain why," said Majkowski, who has unsightly numbers: three touchdowns, eight interceptions and a 57.4 rating. "All of a sudden, we've had a little bit of a decline, especially offensively. It's frustrating why there's been such a turnaround. The talent is basically the same.'

fights and one farce. Bowe's would-be combatant, Elijah Tillery, got dropped for a mandatory eight count and near knockout in the first three minutes. After the bell, the 34-yearold Tillery taunted Bowe, 24, who swung lightly in return. Tillery then kicked Bowe in the backside and then again in the shin as Bowe moved in to retaliate, and the melee was on.

When Bowe punched and pushed Tillery to the ropes, Bowe's manager, Rock Newman, wrapped Tillery around the neck and yanked him over the ropes. Tillery landed atop Jeffrey Gildenhorn, chairman of the D.C. boxing commmission, who wound up with more than one kind of headache for this particular night. As Tillery attempted to climb Gildenhorn said Tillery, a 6-3, 217-pound journeyman, would be fined and suspended in the District. Meanwhile, Newman apologized for having yanked Tillery out of the ring. Before the fight, the crowd of

At ringside were many of Barry's associates, including the security force that once constituted his official bodyguard, and Cora Masters, a Barry companion who preceded Gildenhorn as D.C. boxing commissioner. ## Worley out 6 games for violating drug policy

NFL

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Pittsburgh Steelers running back Tim Worley, who hasn't played this season because of injuries and various off-field problems, was suspended Wednesday for six games for violating the NFL's drug policy.

league does not reveal the names of first-time offenders, so a player must be a two-time violator to warrant a six-game suspension. First-time offenders are not suspended, but are evaluated, treated and subjected to random drug testing. A third violation can result in at least a one-year suspension before a player can petition the commissioner for re-

Worley, the Steelers' 1989 first-round draft choice, was immediately placed on the Steelers' non-football illness list and cannot not expected to be activated. "I hope Tim gets his problems worked out and gets his life Worley was suspended under straightened out," Steelers presithe NFL's revised drug policy that went into effect July 15. The dent Dan Rooney said in the team's only official comment. It was reported last week that Worley had entered an alcohol treatment program. However, the NFL said Worley's suspension did not stem from his Sept.

two games left and Worley, who said Because the NFL does not release the names of first-time drug policy violators, the Steelers had not previously revealed that Worley had any drug-related problems.
