we've been talking about the wrong Fab Four on the Atlanta

Sure, they've got the best starting rotation in the majors, but the big boppers in the middle of the Braves' batting order aren't too shabby, either.

"It is a very explosive lineup," Atlanta Manager Bobby Cox said after the Braves evened the NL playoffs with a 14-3 rout of the Philadelphia Phillies on Thursday night. "It's hard to hold our club down very long."

Ask Tommy Greene how explosive the Braves can be. He took his perfect 10-0 record at Veterans Stadium to the mound, and Fred McGriff's bat went BA-BOOM! — a 438-foot first-inning homer off the upper deck in right, only the seventh shot to go that far in the ballpark.

McGriff thinks he can hit them farther, so Terry Mulholland (12-9) had better be careful today when he pitches against Tom Glavine (22-6) in Game 3.

In practice Friday, the Braves actually did hit some shots that dwarfed McGriff's. But that was because a few took the day off from baseball and headed to a golf course.

'We've got a pretty good lineup," said McGriff, acquired from San Diego on July 18. "If you're

"The big lead felt great," Maddux said. "There were a number of games this season where I had big leads."

Warriors: Beat Linn-Mar, 9-7

Shaw to Aaron Burrell gave Washington a first down on the Linn-Mar 32, and a 4-yard run by Maurice Blue took it to the 28. On the next play, Shaw dropped back, scrambled to his right and located Brian Yardley with a pass over the middle on the 15.

Yardley cut to the right sideline and sprinted to the end zone untouched to give Washington a 6-0 lead with 8:33 left.

A 28-yard field goal by Jeremy McMurrin with 2:48 left finished Washington's scoring.

Shaw completed 8 of 16 passes for 117 yards, complementing a Washington ground attack that produced 120 yards. Yardley caught four passes for 83 yards, Burrell four for 34.

"Our team came out to play tonight," Shaw said. "It's our greatest game in the three years I've played on the varsity. Linn-Mar is an excellent team. They never let down for one play. But the Warriors were out and ready to play tonight.' McMurrin, who starts at defensive end in addition to his place-kicking duties, agreed with Shaw. "We were on a real big mission," he said. "We knew we were going to have to step it up on 'D.'

Linn-Mar scored its only touchdown on the first play of the fourth quarter when Matt Pelusi went straight ahead from 2 yards out, capping a 10-play, 62-yard drive.

Three more fourth-quarter Linn-Mar drives stalled inside the Washington 30. The first ended on the 30 with 7:48 left on a loss of downs, and the second was stopped on the 25 when a faked field goal attempt ended with a dropped pass.

The final blow to Linn-Mar's chances came when Shaw intercepted a Jamie Hubler pass on the Warrior 10 with 1:15 left.

City High lets Dwight run loose

By Bob Hilton Gazette sportswriter

IOWA CITY — It was business as usual for Iowa City High's second-ranked Class 4A football team Friday night at Bates Field although Tim Dwight logged nearly twice the number of carries he'd averaged in the Little Hawks' first five games.

City High retained "The Boot," bronze symbol of supremacy in this crosstown rivalry, defeating Iowa City West by a 42-0 count.

Dwight broke touchdown runs of 58 and 73 yards, scored from 7 yards out, set up a fifth TD with an interception and gained 232 yards rushing on 17 carries.

He came into the game averaging nine carries and 116 yards. "We wanted to give him 15 (carries) tonight," said City High

PREP FOOTBALL

Coach Larry Brown, whose team improved to 6-0 while dropping the Trojans to 2-4.

Dwight said he was happy to have the added work. "It felt good," he said.

West Coach Reese Morgan made no bones about wanting to "slow the game down." And Ben Balmer, a 160-pound senior, contributed significantly to the game plan, with 105 yards on 21

"Give West a lot of credit," Brown said. "They played hard. Everybody we play is trying to use the clock. They did that pretty well.

But West had only two serious scoring opportunities — a 60yard drive that ran of fuel at the City High 20 with the Little Hawks ahead, 20-0, six minutes into the second period, and Josh Lawler's 34-yard interception return on the final play of the half. When tackled, Lawler fell into the endzone but was whistled down at the 1-yard line.

"I'm proud of our players, proud of their effort," Morgan said. "City High is to be commended. They're an outstanding football team.

West punt. Dwight's 73-yard burst came on the first play after West's only long drive ended. West lost quarterback Rob
