CEDAR RAPIDS — The Cedar Rapids RoughRiders bring a two-game winning streak into tonight's United States Hockey League game against the Rochester Mustangs.

Missed a few games on the schedule, you say? Thought the Riders' last two contests were actually losses last weekend to Waterloo and Green Bay?

Well, that is technically correct. Those were the last two USHL regular-season games for the Riders

But Cedar Rapids won two exhibitions at the Cedar Rapids Ice Arena this week — dumping Bozeman of the Junior A American West Hockey League, 5-2, on Tuesday and Shattuck St. Mary's Prep School of Minnesota, 5-4, on will. Particularly Shattuck since it is the Riders' protected school.

Cedar Rapids gets to protect five Shattuck players each year, meaning no other USHL come in here and get a look at team can recruit those players. The Riders have four former Shattuck players on this year's team — forwards Dave Carpentier, Tony Gill, Shawn Vinz and Ryan Mayhew.

"Shattuck is our protected team, and it's nice for them to our building and play in our building," Riders Coach Mark Carlson said.

But not get a win in their building.

Obviously, the two exhibitions this week don't count for the Riders in the standings. But a victory's a victory.

"It's always nice to win," Carlson said. "Plus, I think every game you play, you learn something about your team. And the one thing we're learning is we need to fire more pucks on net. (Thursday) in the third period, we threw 17 shots on net.

Cedar Rapids hasn't had more than 23 shots on goal in any of its four USHL games this season. The Riders have been outshot by their opponents by almost a 2-to-1 margin 159-82.

Subsequently, they've been outscored by their opponents by more than a 2-to-1 margin 25-11. The Riders have the worst team goals-against average in the league at 6.12.

"A lot of times shots aren't real indicative of what's going on," Carlson said. "We gave up a lot of power-play shots in both of those games against Waterloo and Green Bay (last week). And we just didn't shoot the puck a lot ourselves. I thought in a lot of respects those two games were pretty even games.'

But the Riders lost both -6-2 to Waterloo and 4-1 to Green Bay. That dropped their record to 1-3.

"I think we're learning as we go along here," Carlson said. 'Obviously, it's very early in the season. We're certainly working on getting better, playing harder and playing more physical.

"I think it's important to go out (tonight) and play the style we want to play. We need to play as hard as we possibly can and throw as many shots as played their first full game without T.J. Klith, who broke his collarbone in a win last week at Dubuque Hempstead.

Backup Jason Kohl went down with an injury early in ' the game, leaving the door open for Travis Clark, who had been listed as the fourth-string tailback just a few days ago.

"I'd been playing flanker, and I hadn't gotten any reps as a tailback," Clark said. "I didn't think I was going to do very good.'

Instead, Clark rushed 20 times for 94 yards, scoring two second-half touchdowns as Prairie was able to keep Kennedy at an arm's length.

"Travis did a great job," Jelinek said. "We overcame a lot of adversity tonight."

Injuries were one problem. Yellow flags were another. Prairie was penalized 13 times for 92 yards.

DEFENSE KEPT Prairie afloat — and unbeaten. The Hawks got to Kennedy quarterback Matt Keel seven times. and that was a major reason the Cougars finished with minus-35 rushing yards.

"Our front five are quick guys, strong guys," said defensive end Matt Calef. "And it helps when our linebackers move well, too."

Kennedy's hopes for a huge upset pretty much evaporated in the first quarter. The Cougars started their first three possessions in Prairie territory. Those possessions ended in an interception and two lost fum-

The Hawks scored their second touchdown after a blocked punt gave them the ball at the Kennedy 7. Martin scored two plays later on a quarterback sneak.
