Tiedtke finds all kinds of ways to find the end zone.

• In Jefferson's season-opening win at Dubuque Hempstead, he returned a punt 49 yards for a touchdown, the first punt or kickoff return for a score in Jacobson's five years at the school.

Blake Tiedtke later against Kennedy, he returned kickoff 98 yards for a TD.

• In Week 3 against Waterloo West, he picked off a pass from his cornerback position and returned it 34 yards for a score.

· The following week at Cedar Rapids Xavier, he ripped off a 93-yard touchdown run from scrimmage.

• In Week 5, he was at his absolute best. He rushed for 240 yards, scored the game-winning touchdown and threw a halfback pass for another touchdown in the J-Hawks' 33-30 win at Linn-Mar.

In the last two weeks. Tiedtke has rushed for 398 yards and scored four touch-

"I set some goals for myself and, obviously, none of that is possible without my line,' Tiedtke said. "I'm happy with the way my season's going, but mainly I just want to win. I don't care what happens with me, I just want to win games.'

Tiedtke, who also plays basketball and runs track, has an exciting running style. He's quick to the holes, has tremendous speed, and packs a lot of out here. punch on his 5-foot-11, 190pound frame.

"My strength is my speed when I get out on the open Tiedtke said. "Cutting, vision. That helps me on my my kickoff and punt returns. You have to be able to read your blocks and when you see that big wall there always have to be thinking a move ahead.'

Tiedtke gives much of the credit for his success to his offensive line, which also is big and fairly quick. The blocking of fullbacks Francis Zach, Clay Wiemerslage and Roman Mitchell also has helped.

"They're just as important to me as the line is," Tiedtke said. Tiedtke hasn't given college football a lot of thought yet.

"If I have a good season and the team does good, whatever's going to happen with that is going to happen," he said. "I just want to concentrate on this season.'

Some of Iowa's best in C.R. for soccer tourney

Are you ready for some football — the real kind of football? Some of the state's best high school-age soccer clubs will converge on Cedar Rapids this weekend for the Iowa State Youth Soccer Association State Soccer Cup.

The three-day, 42-team tournament begins Saturday at 8 a.m. at the Tuma Soccer Complex. Action continues Sunday and then leftover championship games will be contested Oct. 21.

There will be competition in five boys' and girls' divisions U15, U16, U17, U18 and U19. The U16, U18 and U19 champions advance to regional play.

"This should be very competitive, high quality," said Ellis Vann, a local ISYSA official and tournament director. "You should see some good soccer

"It's at least as good," as high school competition, he added.

Teams will come from all over the state, including five from Iowa City and five from Cedar Rapids. Most of the teams are boys' clubs, Vann

There are only two teams in the U17 and U18 girls' divisions, for instance. Those two championships could be held as early as 8 a.m. Sunday.

Coleman: Field solid for Heartland tourney

IOWA CITY — Van Coleman thinks he's got something special going on at the University of Iowa this weekend.

Coleman, executive director of Future Stars, has put together an outstanding field for the second annual Wendy's Hoops in the Heartland boys' basketball tournament.

The three-day, 32-team tournament begins tonight at the Iowa Field House.

"It's going to be a very, very strong final Coleman said. "It's going to be better than last year's final eight.

"Martin Brothers will have to work very, very hard to defend their title.'

Martin Brothers, an all-star team that features future Hawkeye Jeff Horner of Mason City, is one of a handful of Iowa clubs and high school teams in the field. Others on the Martin Brothers roster include Jared Homan, a 6-8 senior from Remsen St. Mary's who committed this week to Iowa State; Greg Bruner, a 6-8 junior from Charles City; Mike Henderson, a 6-2 sophomore from Waterloo East; and Shaun Wumkes, a 6-9 junior from Garner-Hayfield.

Other Iowa teams in the field are City High Select, Hoops Iowa and high school teams from Cedar Rapids Kennedy, Keokuk and Council

Then there's the out-of-state talent — teams like the Spiece Pistols of Fort Wayne, Ind., the West Valley Stars of San Francisco, the Playground Warriors from Milwaukee, the Wisconsin Razz and the Foundation of Student-athletes from Chicago.

Admission: Free

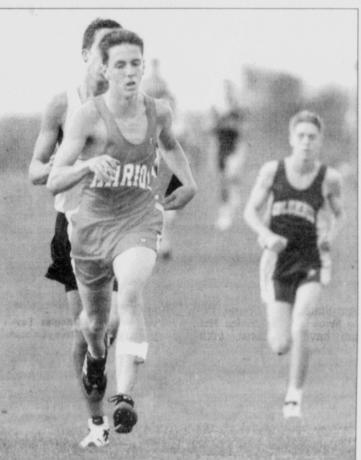

■ Field: There will be 32 teams from across the country, both club and high school. The defending champion is the Martin Brothers, an all-star team in the country," Coleman said.

Spiece Pistols feature 6-foot-9 Tyler Best, who is ranked among the top 50 juniors in the country, and the Playground Warriors have Greg Brown, another junior who averaged 30-plus points in a pair of national tournaments

Other players to watch are West Valley's Mike Travis, a 6-10 senior; the Warriors' Deonte Tatum, a 6-5 senior; the Razz's Clayton Hanson, who averaged 33 points and seven 3-pointers in a national event last summer; and Elliott Poole of Foundation of Student-athletes, a 6-6 forward.

Here's the story of one of the most unusual games ever played in the NFL...The Cleveland Browns of 1950 were ridiculed by some teams for passing too much, so Cleveland coach Paul Brown decided to show the world he could win without passing at all. In a game on Dec. 3, 1950 against Philadelphia, with first place at stake, the Brown's played the whole game without ever throwing a pass - and they won 13-7. There's never been an NFL game since then when a team went hrough an entire game without throwing a

HAWKEYE BULLETIN BOARD

The Gazette will publish a look at various University of Iowa's sports every Friday, looking ahead to weekend events and looking back at past results.

• VOLLEYBALL — After falling to eighth-ranked Minnesota in three straight games Wednesday in Minneapolis, Iowa returns home to face No. 11 Ohio State Saturday at 7 p.m. at

Carver-Hawkeye Arena. Ohio State (16-0 overall, 6-0 in the Big Ten) is one of four undéfeated Division I teams. The Buckeyes have swept their last three opponents - Northwestern, Purdue

The match can be seen on a tape-delay basis Sunday at 4 p.m. on Fox Sports Chicago. Sara Meyermann led lowa with 11 kills against Minnesota. • FIELD HOCKEY — The Hawkeyes travel to the state of Michigan for a pair of games this weekend.

Iowa (7-6) will play Big Ten foe and 16th-ranked Michigan State (7-6) today at 2 p.m. in East Lansing. The Hawkeyes then will head to Mount Pleasant to take on Central Michigan (7-5) Sunday at 10 a.m.

In their only game last week, the Hawkeyes upset No. 17 Ohio State, 2-1, Sunday at Grant Field. Maria Merluzzi scored the game-winning goal with 25 minutes remaining. Merluzzi is currently tied for the team lead with 12 points — three goals and six assists.

 WOMEN'S SOCCER — lowa will host Big Ten opponents Indiana and Purdue this weekend at the Hawkeye Recreation Fields.

The Hawkeyes (8-6) will play Indiana (7-5-1) today at 4 p.m. and Purdue (9-4) Sunday at 1. This past weekend, lowa lost back-to-back matches for the first time this season, falling to Ohio State, 2-1, and No. 6 Penn State, 3-1. Hawkeyes Kate Walse and Linzy Wolman are tied for second place in the Big Ten in scoring with 21 points.

• MEN'S CROSS COUNTRY — lowa heads to LaCrosse, Wis., Saturday to run in the Jim Drews Invitational.

"This is our last tune-up before the Big Ten meet (Oct. 28)," Coach Larry Wieczorek said. "We have had two good weeks of practice since our last meet and we just need to take another step forward."

• WOMEN'S CROSS COUNTRY — The Hawkeyes will travel to Fayetteville, Ark., to participate in the Chili Pepper Classic Saturday at 10:30 a.m.

Iowa will compete against 20 schools, including NCAA runner-up Arkansas. The Hawkeyes' lineup will include sophomores Sarah Arens, Katie Butler, Michelle Lahann, Erica Roberts and Becca Thompson and freshmen Atalie Barber, Sophia

Chow and Georgia Millward. "Last year, we placed ninth out of 25 teams, and I would like to improve on that," Coach Sara Beckord Swails said. "I am interested to see how we stack up against Arkansas. We saw them at Iowa State earlier in the year and we finished right behind them. We are going to go with the same gameplan and Sarah will be one of our top runners."

Arens has run a season-best time of 21:58 and has been lowa's top finisher in every meet of the season. • MEN'S TENNIS — lowa will play its final team tournament of the fall season Saturday and Sunday at the Purdue Invitational in West Lafayette, Ind.

This fall, Skogman has a 4-3 singles record and 3-3 doubles mark. "We're looking forward to this meet," Coach Steve Houghton said. "This will give us our first look at some Big Ten competition and will help us prepare for the Rolex ITA Region IV Tournament in two weeks.

• MEN'S GOLF — The Hawkeyes will play in the Big Four Meet Monday at Elmcrest Country Club in Cedar Rapids. lowa, Iowa State, Northern Iowa and Drake will battle for the state's bragging rights in the 36-hole event. lowa's lineup will feature seniors Jason Wombacher and Matt Stutzman, junior Tyler Stith, sophomore Bo Anderson and red-shirt freshman Matt Larson.

"This tournament will be a big one for our team with the state's bragging rights on the line," Coach Tem Anderson said. "We haven't won this tourney in four

• WOMEN'S GOLF — lowa finished 13th out of 15 teams in the Legends of Golf Shootout Tuesday in Franklin, Ind.

The Hawkeyes had a 54-hole score of 937 Sophomore Meather Suhr led Iowa with a 225. lowa concludes its fall season, competing in the UALR Invitational Monday and Tuesday in Little Rock, Ark.

 MEN'S SWIMMING — lowa kicks offs its season Saturday and Sunday, hosting the October Shootout at the Field House pool. The competition begins at 9 a.m. Saturday and 10

The Hawkeyes return nine letter-winners, including all-Big Ten and all-American Ales Abersek. The senior is the reigning Big Ten champion in the 100- and 200-yard

Senior Simon Chrisander, a returning all-American, finished in the top 20 in the one-meter, three-meter and 10-meter platform diving. "The first meet will be important to see where we are at and how we are developing as a team," Coach John

Davey said. "It will be a tune-up for the dual meet campaign. WOMEN'S ROWING — lowa received one gold medal at the Head of the Rock Regatta in Rockford, III., Monday In the Varsity 2- race, the Hawkeyes finished first and second in 18:20.76 and 18:30.78, respectively, against a solid field, including Indiana and Notre Dame. "We are spending our fall in the small boats to improve focus on our technical aspect of the sport, Coach Mandi Kowal said. "We spend 70 percent of our time in the pairs. I expected our big boats to work to row as a group and that is what happened. In the Varsity 8+ race, lowa finished second out of 20 boats in 15:21.32.

The Hawkeyes will return to the water Oct. 23-24 at the Head of the Charles in Boston, Mass. Compiled by Gazette sportswriter John Riehl
