Dubuque Telegraph Herald UBUQUE -- Jared Godbey ran for 173 yards and three touchdowns and Matt Keel threw three touchdown passes to lead Cedar Rapids Kennedy's 49-7 rout of Dubuque Senior on Friday night at Dalzell Field.

Godbey scored on runs of 5, 20 and 10 yards. His first two scores sparked Kennedy's 21point first quarter.

"The line just fired off the ball," said Godbey, whose final score boosted Kennedy's lead to 42-0 in the third quarter.

Keel's 25-yard touchdown pass to Grant Jacobs in the first quarter jumped Kennedy's lead to 21-0.

Keel fired touchdown strikes of 45 and 67 yards to Nick Mohwinkle in the second quarter boosting Kennedy's lead to 35-0 by halftime.

"We executed very well," Kennedy Coach Tim Lewis said. "We didn't have the best week of practice.

"I wasn't sure what to expect, but we executed well offensively and defensively."

Kennedy rolled up 334 yards of rushing offense and 219 passing yards.

"This has been a long time coming," Lewis said. "Last year we struggled offensively, threw the ball well but could not get the running game go-

"This is something we wanted to focus on. Hopefully, we turned a corner.

Kennedy (2-1) limited Senior (0-3) to 64 total yards. The Rams had only two yards of rushing offense.

"They were a tough football team," Senior Coach Pat Murphy said. "They played good defense and had a lot of weap-

4th-quarter rally falls short

Late West score dumps Linn-Mar

By John Riehl

Gazette sportswriter OWA CITY — Talk about a the ball at the 6. test of character.

Iowa City West got a tough test Friday night from Linn-Mar in a Mississippi Valley Conference football game, and passed thanks to a clutch fourth-quarter scoring drive that enabled the Trojans to pull out a 28-27 victory. "This game was so emotional. It was a big play here and a West Coach big play there," Dan Dvorak said. "We talked to the kids about never ever giving up. That's what happened Mistake-prone West squandered a 14-point lead in the fourth quarter and fell behind, 27-21, after Nick Cappussi's 28yard scoring run for Linn-Mar with 3 minutes, 35 seconds remaining.

Placekicker Nick Kray missed the extra point, which Coleman did the honors, bulling in for the 6-yard score with 1:25 left.

Nick Miller's conversion gave the Trojans the winning point.

"I think this showed a lot of character in our team," Coleman said. "It shows we have to come out hard every week. This week was the hardest we've practiced all year.

West (1-2) avoided its first 0-3 start since 1992. Linn-Mar falls

Coleman finished with 261 yards on 27 carries and four touchdowns.

"Greg Coleman is a great back, but there's not a great back in this world who doesn't have people up front making holes for him," Dvorak said.

Coleman's first score was a school-record 98-yard run with 5:22 left in the second quarter, which gave West a 14-0 lead. Quarterback Grant Norland 96-yard scamper against Iowa 9:13 remaining.

Three plays later, Cappussi scored on a 5-yard run. Kray's conversion tied the game at 21 with 7:30 left.

"Give Linn-Mar credit. Boy, their kids battled all night long," Dvorak said. "It was a game in which it's unfortunate that either team had to lose."

Despite his offensive exploits, Coleman made things tough on the Trojan defense, losing fumbles on successive plays in the third quarter.

Cappussi recovered the first fumble at the West 35. Six plays later, the Lions turned the ball over on downs at the Waterloo Courier ATERLOO — Waterloo West took advantage of seven turnovers and defeated Cedar Rapids Jefferson, 17-0, in a Mississippi Valley Conference game at Waterloo Memorial Stadium Friday night.

Mistakes plagued the J-Hawks (1-2) from the first series. A 5-yard punt set up the Wahawks' first score, a 24-yard field goal by Max Lind. Late in the opening half, Lane intercepted a Cody Lakose pass and returned it 44 yards. That touchdown gave West a 10-0 lead at the break.

A mishandled punt late in the third period led to the Wahawks' final seven points. Lind recovered the ball at the Jefferson 47, and running back Akeem Carter scored 11 plays later on an 8-yard run with 9:42

Jefferson's final chance to score produced nothing when a bad pitch on an option play fell into Donny Heaton's hands at the Wahawk 16-yard line.

Jefferson tossed four interceptions. Lakose, who replaced an injured Cody Doonan in the first half, accounted for three. Doonan returned from a knee injury for the final 24 minutes and he was picked off once. Jefferson also lost a total of three fumbles.

"Mistakes, again," Jefferson Coach Jim Womochil said. "We had a dropped punt — that was tough. We thought we had a chance to move the ball in the second half, but we gave the ball back to them at the end."

West had forced just two turnovers while splitting its first two games. That total jumped to nine after Friday's

"We had a lot of takeaways," Wahawk Coach John Den Hartog said. "That's something we tried to emphasize in practice. And our guys came up big.'

Lind scored West's first 10 points, including the interception, and recovered the key Jefferson fumble in the second half. Carter added 148 yards.

Baseball to increase security

Spectators will see new measures at parks Monday

EW YORK (AP) — Coolers, backpacks and large bags will be prohibited at major league baseball parks when games resume Monday, part of the sport's stepped-up security following this week's terrorist attacks. After a series of meetings that lasted all day, baseball announced the new measures, which include a ban on parking within 100 feet of any stadium, inspection of items fans bring into ballparks, and an increase in uniformed law enforcement at all games. "I think fans will be very comfortable with these provisions," said Kevin Hallinan, baseball's senior vice president of security. "Security and safety is our highest priority.

Jackson, Ala., stitching flags onto every cap major leaguers will wear when baseball comes back Monday. Baseball players felt resuming the season would lift the spirits of the disheartened nation, much as it did when President Roosevelt ordered the games to go on during World War

country in the world to its knees by sneaking

But renewed pride in the Stars and Stripes

also was evident, with workers in Buffalo and up and hitting it in the head from behind, Seattle Mariners pitcher Norm Charlton said. "I would think if you had a chance to ask one of the people who got killed what they wanted us to do, they wouldn't want us to close up shop.' The NFL, major league baseball, major college football, professional golf and tennis, auto rac-one of the events that fill stadiums and TV screens — were postponed or canceled through This will be the first time the NFL has missed a week for a reason other than a labor dispute.

The league said it would not have an announce-
