Haskins attended party before fatal crash

■ LARAMIE, Wyo. — A University of Wyoming student charged in the traffic deaths of eight fellow student-athletes attended a party before the accident, prosecutors said Friday.

Clinton Haskins, 21, had a blood-alcohol content of 0.16 after the Sunday morning accident, higher than the legal limit of 0.10, prosecutor Cal Rerucha said.

Haskins of Maybell, Colo., made his initial court appearance on eight counts of aggravated vehicular homicide.

Duke football coach pulls man from water

■ RALEIGH, N.C. — A trip to retrieve a boat turned into a lifesaving mission for Duke football coach Carl Franks.

Franks was at Rolling View Marina on Falls Lake on Friday morning when he pulled a man from a submerged sports utility vehicle. The man apparently had a seizure and drove into the water

"If we hadn't gone down there, I would hate to think what would have happened because there was no one else at the marina," Franks

Emergency personnel arrived a short time later and transported the man to a hospital for observation.

Balance key for Cougars

EDAR RAPIDS — The Cedar Rapids Kennedy offensive and defensive units were two-headed monsters in their game against Cedar Rapids Washington Friday night.

That could turn "Football Friday Night" into "Fright Night" for most of the rest of the Mississippi Valley Confer-two touchdowns and the Cougar defense limited the Warriors to 124 yards of total offense — and added a touchdown of its own - in a 27-0 rout at Kingston Stadium.

The win was the third straight for Kennedy, which improved to 3-1 and has already won more games than it did all of last season.

"We started this thing last December . . . and things are really clicking right now," said Keel, a 6-4, 180-pound senior who completed 7-of-17 passes, including touchdown throws of 21 and 11 yards to Nick Moh-

Hawks' defense smothers Wahawks

By Jeff Linder

Gazette sportswriter EDAR RAPIDS — It looked so easy. Tom Langhurst insisted it

"No, no, no," he said. "It wasn't easy. It was a battle every minute.'

It was a blowout well before halftime. Jason Kohl scored a school-record five touchdowns, Langhurst passed for 225 yards and the first-team defense smothered Waterloo West as the Hawks cruised, 48-21, in a Mississippi Valley Conference football game Friday night at John Wall Field.

Prairie roared to a 35-0 lead at intermission before the Wahawks saved some face late against the Hawks'

"That was as good football, for one half, as I've seen in 18 years here," said Hawks Coach Craig Jelinek. "It was excellent. Kohl's TD output eclipsed that of Ben Sanderson, who found the end zone four times in 1997 against Cedar Rapids Kennedy. He broke the record on a 10-yard run in the third quarter.

He had 95 yards on 16 carries, and also scored on a 73-yard pass from Langhurst.

'It was my offensive line," Kohl said. "All of the credit goes to those guys. 'And the coaches ... they had the best game plan. All we had to do was Langhurst also entered the record book, with single-game completions (16) and single-game passing percentage (16 for 21, 76.2 percent). The teams entered the game with identical records, but Prairie (3-1) was far superior Friday.

C.R. PRAIRIE WATERLOO WEST

The Hawks accumulated 283 yards of offense, including 186 passing yards by Langhurst, in the first half. West managed just 50 yards, and didn't earn a first down until the second-to-last play of the half, when Prairie was called for an iffy pass-interference penalty.

The Wahawks (2-2) went three-andout on their first five possessions, and fumbled it away on their next two.

'We felt like we had something to prove," Jelinek said. "Sometimes, it's good to know what it feels like to lose. We didn't like the way it felt."

Prairie lost in the final moments to Cedar Rapids Xavier, 25-22, last week. Kohl, relatively quiet the previous two weeks after a big game in the opener against Iowa City West, scored the Hawks' first four touchdowns. He tallied on a 7-yard run before snaring a screen pass from Langhurst, finding his blocks and scampering for a 73-yard TD reception. He then scored on runs of 7 and 6 yards as Prairie took a 28-0 lead. Langhurst and Casev Clark hooked up for an 8-yard pass to make it 35-0 with 3:32 left in the half.

Langhurst hooked up with six differ-

"The line kept them off of me," he said. "I had so much time back there. And the receivers, they caught the ball real well tonight."

Kohl's final touchdown made it 42-0. Jelinek pretty much emptied the bench after that while West stuck with its starters and finally began to make some headway.

'I hadn't noticed it," the New York Mets pitcher said, pausing to take a long, deep breath. "I'm glad they left them up. Those people will not be forgotten.'

Amid tight security at Shea Stadium, baseball returned to the city Friday night for the first time since last week's terrorist attacks. Mayor Rudolph Giuliani and singers Diana Ross and Marc Anthony took part in a pregame tribute that was both solemn and uplifting.

The 30-minute festivities included the city's Later, a crowd of about 35,000 that came to watch a key matchup in the NL East race was in for another treat. Liza Minnelli was to stand on the Braves' third-base dugout and sing "New York, New York" during the seventh-inning stretch. The Mets rallied for a 3-2 win.

Little Hawks roll by Lions

By Chad Dare

Gazette sportswriter

ARION — It took a total change in offense, but it was too little, too late for Linn-Mar Friday night against No. 3 Iowa City High.

The Little Hawks rolled up 390 yards of offense en route to a 52-14 victory over the Lions in a Mississippi Valley Conference football game at Armstrong Field.

"They had just too much athleticism for us in that first Linn-Mar Coach Bob Read said. "They are just so quick that we weren't able to contain them."

Iowa City High defensive lineman Dan Dombrowski said the Little Hawk goal on defense was to shut down the Linn-Mar running game.

"At halftime, we thought it might be possible to get our first shutout of the season because we were really flying around on defense," said Dombrowski, who had eight tackles and a sack. "We had studied them pretty hard this week and Coach (Dan) Sabers even made us take a test on them. We definitely had a good idea of what they were going to try to

"Shutting down their running game was the key to our defense. We did a bunch of stunting on the defensive line and we blitzed our linebackers quite a bit as well.'

All of that kept Linn-Mar's running game in check as the Lions managed just five yards in the first half. They were held to 12 for the game.

"We weren't doing a very good job up front of getting people blocked," Read said. They really came after us and we didn't do our job.'

City High rode that defense

IOWA CITY HIGH 52 LINN-MAR

to a 31-0 halftime lead, but Linn-Mar picked up 160 yards of offense in the second half, 153 of those through the air with a short, controlled passing

Senior quarterback Dustin Palmer was 10-of-14 in the second half for 131 yards, including a 14-yard touchdown pass to Shawn Freese with 10:37 left to pull the Lions within 45-14.

"I was really pleased with some of the things we did in the second half," Read said. 'We decided to try some new things and they seemed to work pretty well."

On the other side of the field, Sabers admitted his team and staff made some mistakes.

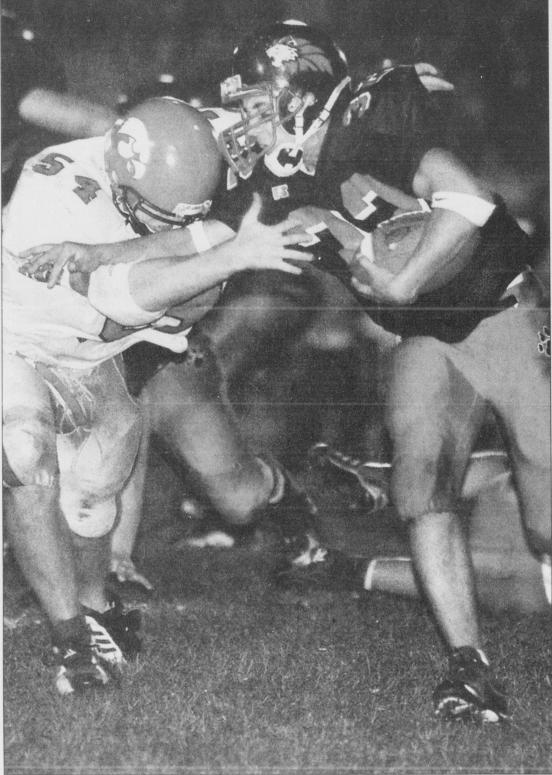

"We probably got a little lazy with our tackling and the coaches didn't do a good job of making adjustments either," he said. "Those are things we will work on getting better at."

Offensively, City High quarterback Connor Jostes did both on the ground and in the air for the Little Hawks. The senior had touchdown runs of 1 and 63 yards then capped the first half with a 27-yard scoring strike to tight end Warren Jostes' 63-yard run and his 27-yard pass to McDuffie were City High's final plays of the first half as the Little Hawks extended its lead from 17-0 to 31-0 at the break.

Linn-Mar's Andy Zeal was held to 47 yards on 15 attempts, but the senior did score his sixth touchdown of the season in the third quarter.

"You look at any team in the Valley that had to start a game without three of its four (offensive) backs," Washington Coach Paul James said, his voice trailing off. "That's not to take anything away from the kids filling in. We just couldn't take advantage of some of the things we would have liked to."

Absolutely nothing should be taken away from the Cougars, either. A week after rushing for 173 yards in a win over Dubuque Senior, Godbey, a 5-9, 170-pound senior spark-plug, improved on that total by 10 yards

"The linemen were kind of scared about the field being wet, but they came out and did a great job," Godbey said. "We didn't have much of a rushing game last year but everybody put in a lot of time in the weight room and it feels good to be moving toward where we want to be.'

Mohwinkle, a 5-8, 150-pound split end and defensive back, had a big night with the two touchdown receptions and an games this season and our interception of a Washington pass in the third quarter.

Derek Thomae, a 5-9, 161pound junior who starts at linebacker and relieved Keel at quarterback late in the game, recovered a fumble in the end zone after Washington backup quarterback Luke Wilwert was sacked, for Kennedy's third touchdown.

"Our linebackers Dolter, Pat Kremer and Derek Thomae — they're the heartand-soul of our defense," Kennedy Coach Tim Lewis said. "They all did a great job to-

Oelwein holds off Decorah

By Kevin McCain Decorah Newspapers

ECORAH — In a defensive battle between Class 3A District 3 prep football heavyweights, Oelwein jumped out to a 14-0 lead early in the third quarter and held on for a 14-7 victory over No. 9 Decorah Friday night.

With the win, the No. 6ranked Huskies remain the only undefeated team in the district and took another step towards capturing a district crown.

Oelwein senior Ryan Majerus blocked a Viking punt on Decorah's first possession of the second half and the Huskies took over at the Viking 40 vard-line.

The very next play, Husky quarterback Eric Sanders hooked up with Majerus on a 37-yard pass down the sideline, setting first and goal at the three. After a run up the middle took Oelwein to the one, Sanders reached paydirt on a quarterback sneak at the 8 minute mark to put the Huskies on top 7-0.

On their next possession, with 2:15 remaining in the third period, Sanders again connected with Majerus on a 15-yard TD pass as Oelwein opened a 14-0 lead.

Late in the fourth quarter, as the Huskies began to celebrate what seemed to be a sure victory, Decorah senior quarterback Mike Knutson found tailback Jason Hovey streaking down the sideline for a 66-yard touchdown reception to give the Vikings new life with 2:54

With 1:54 left, Decorah forced an Oelwein fumble and Knutson recovered it at midfield, giving the Vikings a final shot.

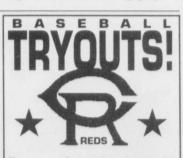

On the first play of the drive, Knutson found wide receiver Kevin Cline on a 17 yard pass play to the Husky 33.

But the Oelwein defense gave up no more ground to secure the win.

The Vikings dropped to 3-1. "I was very disappointed in our offense," Vikings Coach Bill Post said. "We gained hardly any yards in the first half. When a team has that much size up front, what can Oelwein Coach Jim Yokas watched his team put 14 points on the board against a Decorah defense that had only given up six points in three games and had shut out two of its opponents.

"In the second half, our offensive line took over," Yokas said. "They did a few things that we didn't expect defensively, but we made some adjustments at halftime and (Ryan) Majerus made some big plays.'
