Explaining TV's '1st and Ten' yellow line a complex job

By Tyler Lechtenberg The Gazette

IOWA CITY — It's just a line, right? How complex can it be to get that yellow first down marker to stroll across the field on televised college and professional football games?

Well, it's so technical, Sportvision "1st and Ten" operator Steve Webster still hasn't discovered how to dumb down his job description to informationhungry football fans, even in his third year with the company.

"I have not actually perfected that, coming up with the quick, perfect explanation," said Webster, a graduate of Iowa City High and Northern Iowa who lives in Phoenix when not working football games across the country. "It's difficult for me to break it down into layman's terms. It's such a technical process, it's not the easiest thing to break down.'

Raiders crush Savage Cobras

Williamsburg rolls to big victory; Hammes injured

SIGOURNEY — This football showdown had all the makings of a classic battle between two of Class 2A heavyweights — top ranked Sigourney-Keota and No. 4 Williamsburg.

After the teams traded haymakers in the first quarter, the Savage Cobras received a devastating knockout blow in the second quarter when all-state spin back Dan Hammes suffered a broken left arm while playing defense.

Hammes didn't return to the game, and the Raiders took control in the second half to post a 40-14 victory Friday.

"When you take your captain and leading player out of the lineup, it'll affect you," Sigourney Coach Bob Howard Williamsburg capitalized behind the dynamic duo of Dustyn Baethke and Cody Wille, who combined to score all six of the Raiders' touchdowns. Baethke, coming a 270-yard performance against Center Point-Urbana, had 220 yards on 27 carries and three scores.

Wille scored touchdowns on a kickoff return, reverse and pass reception.

"This is a good win for us. This gives us confidence going into districts," Baethke said. "The hard work we put in this week - we have to do that the rest of the season.' With Hammes, who had 127 yards on 11 carries in the first quarter, on the sidelines, Wiliamsburg took a 21-14 lead on Baethke's 18-yard run with 1:09 left in the first half.

Baethke had tied the game on a 4-yard run with 7:21 left in the second.

"We needed to be able to control the football. Our defense was on the field too much," Howard said. "they're too good."

Before leaving by ambulance, Hammes, who rushed for a school-record 351 yards against Fort Madison in the season-opener, gave his teammates a pep talk on the field in hopes of giving the defending state champions the inspiration needed to extend their 14-game winning streak. But the Raiders were just too tough to beat. Williamsburg (2-0), which has won 13 consecutive regular-season games, scored on its second and third possessions of the third quarter to take a commanding 34-14 lead. Wille had both touchdowns on a 6-yard reverse and a 16-yard scoring strike from quarterback Casey O'Rourke. After Williamsburg went three-and-out on the game's first possession, Hammes on his first carry dashed untouched up the middle 60 yards for a touchdown, giving Sigourney-Keota a quick 7-0 lead. The Savage Cobras (1-1) didn't lead for long, as Wille returned the ensuing kickoff 75 yards for the tying touchdown. "Wille's kickoff return was huge. He answered the call." Williamsburg Coach Curt Rit-chie said. "This is a gigantic win for these guys."

Hammes gave Sigourney-Keota a 14-7 lead on a 3-yard scoring run with 4:29 left in the first quarter.

Sophomore fullback Nick Kanellis complemented Coleman with additional tough inside runs, finishing with 89 yards and a touchdown in his first stint as a varsity running back. Normally an offensive lineman and defensive nose guard and wearing No. 66, Kanellis was switched to fullback this week in practice.

The Trojans pounded out 326 yards rushing. But three lost fumbles and eight penalties for 85 yards kept West from pulling away.

West held a 20-7 halftime lead on the strength of a Coleman 18-yard first-quarter TD run, a Kanellis 8-yard secondquarter TD run and a 26-vard touchdown pass in the second quarter from quarterback Aaron Vincent to end Peter Kolbo.
