Braves' Smoltz breaks NL record for saves

John Smoltz set the National League record with his 54th save in the Atlanta Braves' 3-1 victory over the New York Mets Friday night in a doubleheader opener at nearly empty Shea Stadium.

Smoltz pitched 11/3 innings and struck out three to move within three of the major league record, set by Bobby Thigpen of the Chicago White Sox in 1990. Smoltz, pitching for just the seventh time since Sept. 1, had been tied for the NL record with Randy Myers and Trevor Hoffman.

CEDAR RAPIDS — A couple of big plays Friday night assured Cedar Rapids Washington of playing in a huge game next Friday night.

The Class 4A Warriors scored touchdowns on plays of 87, 31 and 15 yards and held off a ferocious fourth quarter comeback by Cedar Rapids Jefferson, and went on to win the 48th edition of the heated intracity battle, 24-17, in front of about 4,500 fans at Kingston
