Puckett charged in alleged sexual assault

■ MINNEAPOLIS Baseball Hall of Famer Kirby Puckett was charged Friday with dragging a woman into a restaurant bathroom last month and grabbing her breast, according to the criminal complaint, which cited several witnesses.

The former Minnesota Twins star was charged with a felony count of false imprisonment and a gross misdemeanor count of criminal sexual conduct.

If convicted, the 41-year-old Puckett probably would be put on probation and given less than a year in the county workhouse, according to County Attorney Amy Klobuchar.

Ex-Hawkeye Rucker dunks Lakers to win

■ ANAHEIM, Calif. — Guy Rucker's dunk with 27.4 seconds remaining lifted the Los Angeles Lakers to a 91-89 comeback victory over the Golden State Warriors in an exhibition game late Thursday night.

Rucker, a former University of Iowa player, finished with six points, six rebounds and a blocked shot in 12 minutes. Kobe Bryant led the Lakers with 22 points and Derek Fisher added 15.

NBA fines Mavs. suspends Nelsons

■ DALLAS — Mavericks Coach Don Nelson and assistant Donnie Nelson were suspended for the season's first two games by the NBA, which also fined the team $150,000 Friday for contact with players who were ineligible for the draft.

The Nelsons — Don is Donnie's father — went to two private workouts in June in Yugoslavia.

It was the ninth time the Mavericks have been fined for a total of $1,155,000 since January 2000, when Mark Cuban bought the Cuban said the coaches were only observing players, not supervising their workouts.

Team spokesman Gregg Elkin said assistant Del Harris probably will coach the first two games, Oct. 30 at Memphis, and Nov. 2 against visiting Phoenix.

Kennedy upholds pride

The Gazette

MARION - An outsider might observe that there have been cat fights in the back alleys of the greater Metro area this fall that had more at stake than Friday night's little skirmish between the Kennedy Cougars and Linn-Mar Lions at Linn-Mar's Armstrong Field.

But don't begin to suggest to Kennedy Coach Tim Lewis and the rest of the Cougars the game between the two Mississippi Valley Conference also-rans was meaningless.

"We talked all week long about how this is a game for pride," Lewis said after watching his Cougars score the winning touchdown with just over 5 minutes left to pull out a 15-14 win over the host Lions.

"I'm not a big believer in the theory that there are games where you don't have anything to lose," he said. "In every game you're involved in, there's always something to lose.'

Both of these teams have endured their share of losing this season. Kennedy used its second win in three weeks to improve to 2-5 while Linn-Mar dropped its sixth straight to fade to 1-6.

The Cougars, who have struggled offensively all season, had things working nicely Friday night. Junior quarterback Mark Paterson completed a careerhigh 14-of-25 passes for 176 yards and two touchdowns, including a 5-yard touchdown pass to John Hook with 5:07 left in the game that proved to be the game-winner.

"I haven't been throwing felt good all week," said Pat- to get one to Hook when we erson, who inherited the quarterback duties when senior Derek Thomae was injured in Kennedy's second game and lost for the season. He connected with Ben with four receptions for 70

The Cougars also totaled 188 yards on the ground with junior Blake Fisher accounting for 102 on 22 carries.

Defensively, Kennedy did just enough to keep Linn-Mar out of the end zone all but twice — a 48-yard run from Chris Janda in the first quarter and a 1-yard sneak from quarterback Clark Anderson in the second period.

All-Star Garnett to treat preseason tilt like a regular game

By J.R. Ogden

The Gazette

Minnesota Timberwolves star Kevin Garnett has a message for those attending tonight's NBA exhibition game at the U.S. Cellular Center.

"I approach a preseason game like a regular game," he said on NBA.com after Tuesday's 127-101 victory over the Chicago Bulls. "I don't see anything different in these games and regular season games, except they don't count. Fans pay money to come see these games and you want to give the effort. "You want to play hard."

Garnett will be one of three 2002 All-Stars present tonight at 7 when the Timberwolves take on the Boston Celtics, with Paul Pierce and Antoine Walker. Garnett, a 6-foot-11 forward, averaged 21.2 points and 12.1 rebounds last year as Minnesota went 50-32.

The Timberwolves also feature 6-7 Wally Szczerbiak, who averaged 18.7 points last year. Szczerbiak, however, has been sidelined by injuries and his status is unknown.

Pierce, from Kansas, averaged 26.1 points and 6.9 rebounds last year. He and Walk-

Quarterback Aaron Vincent and receiver Jordan Bontrager hooked up on a pair of touchdown passes, covering 10 and 41 yards, which gave the Trojans a 28-21 lead with eight minutes remaining.

"We showed heart and we showed that we can handle adversity," said Vincent, who completed 8 of 12 passes for 132 yards. "We're going to take that to the next step and try to win our game next week.'

West extended its winning streak to four games and took another step toward its first playoff berth since 1999. The Trojans (5-2) play at Kennedy Thursday before concluding the regular season at home Nov. 1 against Jefferson.

Vincent's first scoring pass to Bontrager capped a 15-play, 98-yard drive on the opening possession of the second half. On the drive, Vincent completed 5 of 5 passes for 70 yards, two going to tight end Eric Smith for 36 yards.

"We showed them that upfront we could handle them, and that kept us going the rest of the game," Vincent said.

Xavier (3-4) still led 21-20, thanks to a blocked extra point.

But the Saints gave up the lead after gambling and losing in the fourth quarter. Xavier tried to pick up a first down on fourth-and-two from its own 38-yard line, but quarterback Mike Sayre was stopped short. "That was sure a big stop, I know that," Dvorak said.

West's capitalized, as Vincent found Bontrager for a second scoring pass. Vincent then completed the two-point conversion pass to Luke Kerr for a 28-21 lead.

West senior Rich Thompson completed the scoring with a one-yard run. The touchdown was set up when he recovered a Sayre fumble at the Xavier Greg Coleman, the MVC's leading rusher, was his normal productive self with 181 yards on 24 carries, highlighted by a 66-yard touchdown run in the second quarter. The junior tailback has gained 1,186 yards this season.

But Coleman didn't have game-high rushing honors, Xavier senior Jason Sweet gained 205 yards on 30 carries.

The first half was full of offensive fireworks and concluded with Xavier on top, 21-14. The Saints, using primarily an option attack, moved the ball at will, running over and through the Trojans for 275 yards on 32 carries. That's not too shabby for a team that entered the game averaging 150 vards on the ground. Sweet did the most damage, gaining 155 yards on 19 attempts, including a 16-yard scoring run in the second quarter. Sayre added 66 yards on nine carries, including a 1-yard touchdown on the game's first possession. Matt St. Andrews gave the Saints the halftime lead, scoring on a 13-yard run with 43 seconds remaining.

Cougars

Anderson completed only 6of-24 passes for 71 yards and was intercepted once by Kennedy's Jake Settle. Most of his passes seemed headed the direction of 5-10 senior defensive back Derek Hinke, who draped himself over and around the taller Linn-Mar receivers.

"I just stuck to my technique and got to them the best I could," Hinke said.

The Lions rolled up 230 vards on the ground. Andy Zeal carried 25 times for 117 vards and Janda added 107 yards on seven carries, thanks to a two runs of 48 and 40 yards.

Kennedy took a 3-0 lead in the first period on a 20-yard field goal from Settle. The teams traded the lead the rest of game, with Linn-Mar going ahead, 7-3, on Janda's 48-yard run, Kennedy taking it back at 9-7 on Ethier's touchdown reception, and Linn-Mar wresting control before halftime at 14-9 on Anderson's sneak.

Kennedy hosts Iowa City West at Kingston Stadium Thursday night and Linn-Mar is at Waterloo West next Friday night.

CEDAR RAPIDS — Adrian Arrington said it all without uttering a word.

After Cedar Rapids Washington's 55-0 dismantling of Dubuque Senior Friday at Kingston Stadium, Arrington arrived in front of the television camera relaxed, smiling and munching on a stack of cookies. He looked like a child on Halloween, as did the rest of the Warriors in the wake of the blowout victory.

Though he was hardly the star of the game, Arrington certainly did his part, contributing a 47-yard touchdown run, a 20-yard TD catch and an interception. And each time the junior touched the ball against Arrington's merciless attitude was appropriate in a contest where the mercy rule had to be invoked with 3:23 remaining in the game. Already leading 49-0, Warriors Coach Paul James opted for an early conclusion when he had reserve quarterback Blaine Stephenson throw deep to Andy Timmons.

Timmons' 41-yard touchdown reception was the final play of the game.

"There wasn't intent to do anything other than execute," James said. "All 40 players that got in the game did a real good job of executing."
