C.R. driver Horn in stretch of his life

CEDAR RAPIDS — It's been quite a month for Horn AutoRacing of Cedar Rapids heading into this weekend's NASCAR Craftsman Truck Series race in Las Vegas.

Chris Horn's wife, Kelly, gave birth to the couple's first child Sept. 11, a 6-pound, 6-ounce boy. Horn, 29, also picked up Sea Foam auto and marine products as a primary sponsor.

"We were willing to do a lot of things to put the sponsor on our truck, but naming our first-born Sea Foam was not one of them," Horn, 29, said in a release. "We named our son Chris Horn Jr., and we'll just name the truck the No. 59 Sea Foam Chevrolet.'

Horn has competed in the Truck Series since 1997. He's been in six races this season. His best finish was eighth at Kansas Speedway.

Reutzel kicks troubles away

Late field goal lets Prairie nip Kennedy

By Jeff Dahn

The Gazette CEDAR RAPIDS — Adam Reutzel was struggling bigtime with his responsibilities as Cedar Rapids Prairie's punter Thursday night.

In seven attempts, Reutzel had shanked a couple off the side of his foot and sent others straight into the stratosphere while averaging 25.9 yards a boot.

There was only one way for Reutzel to make amends, and he came through in flying Reutzel, a 5-foot-9, 175pound junior, nailed a 36-yard field goal dead on with nine seconds left to lead Prairie past Cedar Rapids Kennedy, 24-21, in an ugly Mississippi Valley Conference contest played in front of a blanketwrapped crowd on a crisp and cool early autumn evening at Kingston Stadium.

"Last week I missed a 40yarder but I was only about three yards short," Reutzel said. "I was confident. I felt like it was an extra-point.'

The win was the first for Prairie (1-3) and left Kennedy (0-4) winless. Prairie Coach Craig Jelinek said it was a much-eeded win for his young team.

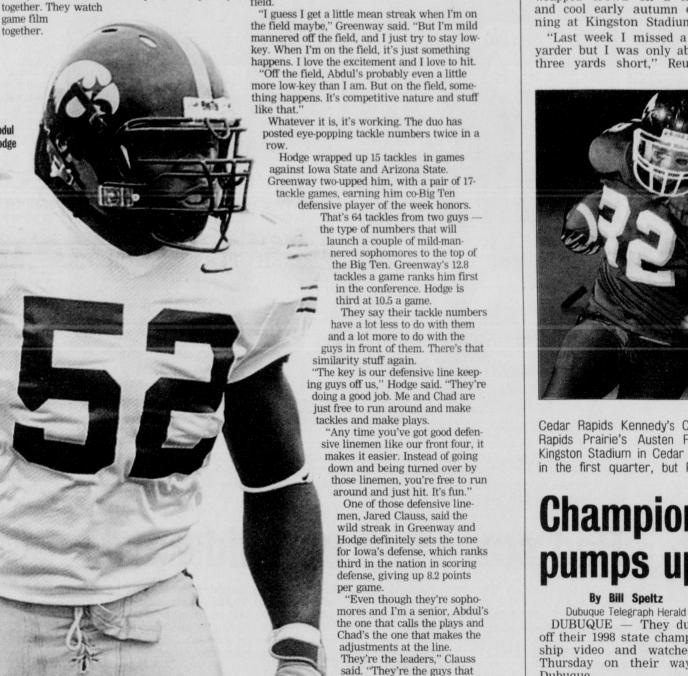

"I think there was a lot of pressure on the kids and they won it for themselves," he said. "We hung in there and the defense really came through in the second half."

Prairie trailed, 14-0, early in the game and 21-7 at halftime. But the Hawk defense forced five turnovers in the second half — six overall — and Prairie scored the game's final 17 points.

The turning point came midway through the third quarter with Kennedy facing a third-and-five on its 31. Cou-gar quarterback Mark Paterson dropped back to pass, and Prairie defensive back Glen Fox stepped in front of the throw and returned it 38 yards for a touchdown.

You could just feel the Prairie sideline inflate with newfound confidence.

Championship video pumps up West High

They dusted off their 1998 state championship video and watched it Thursday on their way to Dubuque.

Then the fourth-ranked Iowa City West football team made its best remake against Hempstead, cruising to a 31-6 victory in a Mississippi Valley Conference football game at Dalzell Field.

'We were watching the state championship 1998 highlight tape on the ride up here and we were just noticing how much emotion they played with, especially on defense," said Alex Kanellis, a two-way West lineman who has committed to Iowa. "We were just like, 'Man, we have to come out and play with that much emotion. Have that much fun like they did.' I think we did a great job. everyone was so psyched."

West scored twice in the opening period, a 2-yard run by Ashton Winchel and a 28-yard pass play from Devin Dickel to Jordan Bontrager. Dickel connected with Eric

Springs, bluffs, habitat make Upper Iowa a favorite

By Orlan Love

The Gazette

The Upper DECORAH -Iowa River, with its exceptional combination of scenery, water quality and fish habitat, is the state's best river, in the estimation of Department of Natural Resources fisheries biologist Bill Kalishek, who took his post at the Decorah Hatchery to be as close as possible to it.

While Kalishek appreciates the picturesque springs and bluffs in the Upper Iowa valley, his affinity for the river has more to do with its ability to support game fish.

Other Iowa streams boast equally good fish habitat, but they don't have as much of it, according to Kalishek, whose duties include managing the Upper Iowa.

The Maquoketa, which Kalishek managed before taking the Decorah post in 1999, has world-class smallmouth bass habitat in the 4-mile catchand-release zone below the Delhi dam and in a few other stretches.

The Turkey, which Kalishek also manages now. "comes the closest to rivaling nearly unbroken 70-mile the Upper Iowa in terms of stretch with the rock, cobble water quality and fish habi- and gravel stream bottom tat," he said.

Prairie/Alberts picks off 3 passes

"Our coaches do such a good job of preparing us . . . and it was our luck to make the big plays," Fox said.

"We went in at halftime and figured a few things out defensively.

Kennedy finished with 362 total yards, but only 106 came in the second half.

The Hawks tied the game 26 seconds into the fourth quarter when junior quarterback Joe Cooper found Tyler Blaha wide open in the middle of the field, and Blaha turned it into a 78-yard pass play for a touchdown.

That play accounted for almost a third of the Hawks' 237 total yards. Copper finished 11 for 22 for 182 yards. Paterson was effective with his arm and his legs. He passed for 161 yards and rushed for 64 more, but the four interceptions were Prairie's Brock Alberts had three of the four picks.

Kennedy was intent on coming out quick against the young Hawks and punched in two touchdowns in the game's first 3:47. They needed only two plays and 24 seconds for the first one, thanks to a 54-yard quarterback keeper from Paterson and a 16-yard touchdown run down the left sideline by Curtis Meier. Prairie punted on its first possession, but an 11-yard punt allowed Kennedy to take over on the Hawk 43. A 9-yard run from Paterson moved the ball to the 34, and runs of 9, 8 and 17 by Meier resulted in the Cougars' second touchdown with 8:23 remaining in the first quarter. Alberts intercepted a Paterson pass and returned it 12 yards to the Kennedy 42, and four plays later — including a 33-yard completion from Cooper to Spencer Stumpff — T.J. Collins ran 8 yards into the end zone off a counter play with 56 seconds left in the first

Kennedy then went on the only sustained, clock-eating drive of the first half, marching 80 yards in 18 plays, capped by a 23-yard touchdown pass from Paterson to Blake Fisher with 5:57 remaining in the second quarter. The drive's most decisive play was a faked punt from the Prairie 41 in which Ben Mohwinkle picked up 16 yards to give the Cougars a first down on the Prairie 25. The TD pass came with Kennedy facing a thirdand-goal on Prairie's 23 and gave Kennedy a 21-7 lead.

Tony Teel added a 2-yard scoring run in the third quarter before Hempstead finally got on the board with a 16-yard pass from Brian Putnam to Andy Ruden in the fourth quarter. "Two things very prevalent on that tape we were watching were the emotion the kids played with and the defensive intensity," said

West Coach Dan Dvorak. "I just told the kids we just spent and hour watching that, let's play like that." Eighth-ranked Hempstead (3-1) placed its defensive focus on shutting down Winchel, who had rushed for more than 600 yards and 11 touchdowns the last two games (story, 6C). "They did a very good job of taking away our tailback," Dvorak said. "It opened some other things we were able to capitalize on. You always try to change just a little bit every week.

PELLA - Led by former Dyersville Beckman standout Senta Willenborg, Simpson will begin its quest to defend its Iowa Conference women's golf title this weekend. The tournament, which has switched from a 36-hole format to 72 holes, begins today and concludes Saturday at Bos Landen Golf Resort. The final 36 holes will be played Oct. 3-4 at Pheasant Ridge Golf Club in Cedar Falls. Willenborg is the defending medalist and is joined by teammate and 2002 runner-up Amber DeRiemacker. Simpson also has Janelle Claiborne, the 2002 conference MVP who has finished fourth the last two years. Cornell's Krystal Kirkpatrick has an 82.2 stroke average and finished tied for 19th at last year's meet. Luther's Lindy Buck, with an 85.4 average, finished 14th last year. Coe's top golfer is freshman Jacqueline Bruso, who has a 92.0 stroke average.
