Warriors top J-Hawks in golden anniversary meeting

CEDAR RAPIDS — Cedar Rapids Washington showed off a brand new kind of defense last night at Kingston

You've heard of the bend-but-don'tbreak defense. But you've probably never heard of the bend-and-break

It goes like this. You allow the opposing team to travel up and down the field quite a bit, then take the football away from them before they get to the end zone.

Washington employed that "strategy" a ton in its 50th meeting with rival Cedar Rapids Jefferson, forcing four telltale turnovers that helped give it to a 36-7 victory.

"It was nice to see guys step up," said Washington Coach Paul James. 'When you thought that maybe we were struggling a little bit defensively, we had people step up.

For an example of how things went last night, check out the first-half statistics.

The J-Hawks outgained the Warriors by about 30 yards. They owned the time of possession by about a two-to-one margin and limited Washington to seven second-quarter plays.

Iowa alum donates $5 million to Kinnick renovation plan

Gift matches largest ever for Hawkeye athletics

IOWA CITY — The Bill and Krause family Nancy matched the largest gift in University of Iowa athletics history and took a big chunk out of the capital drive for the Kinnick Stadium renovation, Iowa Athletics Director Bob Bowlsby announced Friday at the Athletics Hall of The Krauses' $5 million gift represents half of the initial $10 million goal for the capital campaign. The donation equals a 2002 gift from Russell and Ann Gerdin of North Liberty, much of which went to the Gerdin Athletic Learning Center.

"This gift is an enormous step forward for us, in terms of keeping the quality of the stadium project and in making sure that we fund it in a way that keeps Iowa football accessible," Bowlsby said.

The Kinnick renovation asked Iowa to obtain 80 per-

"It's going very well," Jennings said. "This was the other piece that we needed to get done, to get started on the capital campaign. Our goal was $10 million. We want to raise $15 million. This obviously gets us a long way toward that goal."

Iowa has received a few smaller gifts toward that capital goal, Jennings said, and some more major gifts are in the works.

No. 3 Trojans can't punch in decisive score late in fourth

> By John Riehl The Gazette

IOWA CITY Schuyler Paxton just did what he has been taught in practice, and he made one of a handful of big plays by the Cedar Falls defense in an 18-13 high school football victory over Iowa City West last night at Trojan Field.

With the Class 4A third-ranked Trojans knocking on the Tigers' goal line late in the fourth quarter, fullback Alex Kanellis tried to score a touchdown, but Paxton, a senior free safety, ripped the ball out of his hands to keep Cedar Falls ahead 18-6 with 4 minutes, 32 seconds left. The 10th-ranked Tigers took over possession at their own 5yard line.

"The line held him up and he left the ball out there. I had to take it," Paxton said. "We work in practice on stripping the ball. Our defensive backs coach told us we had to step up and make plays, and we definitely did."

It was a Mississippi Valley Conference game of fourthquarter frustration for the

But an intentional grounding penalty, two incompletions and an interception by linebacker Regis Baskerville off a Marcus Ahrens pass sealed the victory.

Tiger defensive back Nate Curran also intercepted an Ahrens pass at the goal line on a 4th-and-14 play with nine minutes left. 'We definitely had our opportunities. It is frustrating,' West Coach Dan Dvorak said. We have to learn from this and be a better football team. The Trojan offense sputtered for most of the night, with Kanellis, a University of Iowa recruit, its only weapon. The 255-pound senior gained 123 yards on 24 carries. The rest of the team racked up only 79 yards. "Teams know Alex will run the football for us," Dvorak said. "We're looking to be-

C.R. Xavier aerial show too much for Lions

The Gazette

CEDAR RAPIDS thought ran through Tommy Breitbach's mind after he dropped a sure touchdown pass in the first quarter last night.

"I was kicking myself for that," Breitbach said. "I wouldn't let it happen again. I just wanted another chance.'

He got a second chance. And a third. Breitbach set two school records with long On the Net touchdowns as For more Xavier photos from last topped night's games, Linn-Mar, visit www.gazette 28-19, in a online.com Mississippi Valley Conference prep football game at Saints Field.

Breitbach set his first school record when he caught a 75-vard touchdown from Scott Schemmel on a halfback option pass in the third quarter, giving the Saints a 13-12 lead. He set the other mark when he scored on a 75-yard punt return in the fourth period for a 20-12 advantage.

They were the longest reception for a touchdown and the longest punt return for a touchdown since Xavier opened for business in 1998.

The Saints (1-1) were clinging to a 14-12 lead when Breitbach juggled a punt at his own 25 and held on. He scooted toward the far sideline, picked up terrific blocks, slipped a tackle and sprinted into the end zone.

"I just have to give it up to the blockers, there was just a wall there," he said. "There was open grass.'

Linn-Mar (1-1) scored on its second play from scrimmage on a 77-yard run by Jeremy Tipton, and it looked like the Lions might be on their way to matching their 52-point outburst against Dubuque Senior a week ago.

but he dropped Dane Gilmour's perfectly thrown ball for six points.

He shook it off and had a game to remember.

Last week, Schemmel set a school record with a 76-yard run for a touchdown against Kennedy. Last night, he was on the throwing end of the 75-yard touchdown to Breitbach after taking a pitch from Gilmour.

That gives Schemmel two school marks in two weeks himself.

"It's not me that's doing it all," said Schemmel, a junior flanker who's also the backup quarterback. "Tommy got wide open on that pass. And last week I had great block-

Jon Geppert lugged the ball 29 times for 166 yards and two touchdowns for the Saints, who bounced back from their 21-6 loss to Kennedy in the opener.

Linn-Mar quarterback Blake Zundel pulled the Lions within 21-19 with 2:56 left in the game on a 19-yard touchdown pass to Blair Harris, capping a frantic 96-yard drive from their own 4-yard line.

Linn-Mar tried an on-side kick and failed, giving Xavier the ball at mid-field with a chance to run out the clock. The Saints did better than Geppert took a pitch from Gilmour at the 17-yard line, made a sharp cut, bounced off a tackler and scored for a 27-19 lead with 1:11 left. Taylor Lynch kicked his fourth straight PAT for the final margin.

Offensively, Prairie much of the same thing it did in its season-opening win over Cedar Rapids Washington with Reutzel doing most of the heavy lifting.

For the second straight game, the 5-10, 175-pounder topped the 100-yard rushing mark in the first half, last night with 120 yards on 17 carries.

His 35-yard TD run at the 5:12 mark of the first quarter capped a five-play, 68-yard drive and showcased the offensive line as Reutzel followed a wall of blockers down the right side of the field.

The Hawks got a lot of help from the Cougars on their second touchdown. Kennedy had forced Prairie to punt from the 50, but the Cougars were assessed a 15-yard illegal substitution penalty that gave the Hawks a first down on the Kennedy 35.

Three plays later Cooper hooked up with Fox on a pass that was tipped twice by Kennedy defenders before Fox pulled it in for a TD with 6:40 left in the marathon first half.

Prairie had 160 yards of total offense at the break.

Kennedy was penalized six times for 40 yards in the first half alone. Prairie's lone second half touchdown came on an 8-vard run by Reutzel in the third quarter.

Both teams have difficult road tests next Friday night: Kennedy is at Cedar Falls and Prairie travels to Iowa City West.
