Jose Luis Castillo Misses weight between Diego Corrales and Jose Luis Castillo turned ugly on Friday at the weigh-in when Castillo came in 3½ pounds overweight and his doctor was nabbed for trying to manipulate the scales.

Castillo was fined 120,000 - 10 percent of his $1.2 million purse — and his doctor, Armando Barak, was suspended from his corner and fined $1,000 for tipping the scales. Corrales, who weighed the prescribed 135 pounds and will earn $2 million, will receive $60,000 half of Castillo's fine and will not have to put his WBC and WBO titles on the line. The Nevada Commission received the other $60,000.

Riders top Black Hawks; open on home ice tonight

WATERLOO — Ted Purcell registered a goal and an assist as the Cedar Rapids RoughRiders defeated the Waterloo Black Hawks, 4-2, Friday night in United States Hockey League action.

Jacob Cepis, Nick Sellers and Dustin Cloutier also scored for the RoughRiders

It was 2-1 RoughRiders after two periods, then Sellers and Cloutier came up with third-period goals to ice it for Cedar Rapids.

Alex Stalock picked up the victory in goal, stopping 24 of 26 shots for the RoughRiders.

Cedar Rapids (2-0) opens its home schedule tonight at 7 against Green Bay.

Huge win for Warriors

C.R. Washington logs 4 scores, forces 4 turnovers could best be described as a highly emotional victory in a sometimes heated game on a cold night at Kingston

But if you asked the players from Cedar Rapids Washington, they would simply call it a very satisfying, very important win.

Washington's big-play of-fense led by senior quarterback Will Suess and senior tailback Paki O'Meara put four touchdowns on the board and the Warrior defense came up with four big turnovers as Washington turned back east side rival Kennedy, 28-21, last night in a crucial Mississippi Valley Conference showdown.

"We're 4-2 right now, and we control our own desti-Washington Coach Paul James told his troops in a postgame gathering near the south end zone. "That was a great win."

Great because the Warriors avoided that dreaded third loss, the one that automatically puts a team on the postseason bubble. Great because the Warriors bent from time to time but never really broke when it mattered the most.

Great because it came against Kennedy, a talented team and long-time nemesis.

"The schools know each other so well," Suess said. Suess said. "In my case, I went to middle school with a lot of their players.'

"It's a rival game," senior lineman Adam Pinkney said. "We always get psyched up to play Kennedy. And this game was key for us if we want to make it to the playoffs and reach Cedar Rapids Washington's Paki O'Meara (9) evades Freddy Ochs (55) of Cedar Rapids Kennedy on a 38-yard touchdown run on fourth down late in the first half last night at Kingston Stadium in Cedar Rapids. Washington won, 28-21.

The intensity reared its ugly head from time to time with five personal foul penalties. Otherwise, it was pretty good high school foot-

Suess was outstanding, completing 12 of 22 passes for 184 yards and two touchdowns. O'Meara, who suffered a shoulder injury last week against Cedar Falls, returned to rush for 111 interception of the game to yards on 22 carries, with touchdown runs of 27 and 38 yards.

Kennedy kept it interesting and had a chance to tie the game when it took over on the Washington 34 with 1 minute left. But the War-Bryce Buchanan riors' stepped in front of a Matt Carey pass on Kennedy's first play for his second

A great win, by the way. "This was a critical win for us if we had any aspirations of a winning season or getting to the playoffs," James said. "We weren't real rah-rah before the game, but the kids came out executed well."

Washington led 21-7 after a first half that featured pin-point passing dazzling runs, botched plays, fumbles, and three unsportsmanlike conduct penalties.

It's been a month of adjustments for Kolosov and his RoughRiders teammates and coaches. And we're not just talking about getting used to local roads and highways.

The Detroit Red Wings, specifically two scouts and assistant general manager Jim Nill, phoned RoughRiders head coach and general manager Mark Carlson in September and wanted to know if he had room on his roster for one of their draft picks. The 6-foot-4, 187-pound Kolosov was a fifth-round selection in the 2004 entry draft, and the team wanted him to come to the United States to get used to American culture and North American hockey.

The Wings could have picked any junior team in the U.S. or Canada. But impressed with the way Carlson and assistant coach Scott Meyer were able to develop 2005 Detroit second-round draft pick Justin Abdelkader, who's a freshman at Michigan State, the RoughRiders were the choice.

Carlson graciously accepted the Wings' offer. "As far as the Red Wings,

Klith carries Prairie

By Jim Ecker

CEDAR RAPIDS Craig Jelinek has a cold-blooded rule for his football players at Cedar Rapids Prairie High School: If you carry the ball or catch passes, you cannot wear long-sleeved shirts under your jersey, no matter how cold it gets.

It doesn't seem to bother Jamie Klith.

Klith lugged the ball 29 times for 178 yards and scored three touchdowns last night as No. 9 Prairie played keep-away and beat Waterloo West, 35-12, on a crisp homecoming night at John Wall

The thermometer dipped into the low 40s as Prairie raised its record to 5-1.

"It felt fine," said Klith, a 5-10, 180-pound junior who has rushed for 880 yards and scored 11 times this year. "We were pumped up and really going. It felt good."

Jelinek said there's a greater chance of fumbling if skillposition players wear long sleeves.

"It's not that cold out here," he claimed, wearing a James Lee.

Prairie did not need sled dogs to beat Waterloo West (2-4), just fine blocking and strong running. The Hawks rushed 61 times for 334 yards and dominated the clock, keeping the ball for 35 minutes, 12 seconds compared to 12 minutes, 48 seconds for the visitors.

The fourth quarter was totally lopsided. Prairie had the ball for 10 minutes and 32 seconds, compared to 1:28 for West. All told, the Hawks ran 70 plays from scrimmage and West had 36.

Waterloo West scored on two long plays — a 97-yard run by Zach Pena in the second quarter and a 75-yard touchdown pass from Joe Horak to Scott Russell in the fourth period. Otherwise, it was all Prairie.

Klith scored on a 17-yard run in the first quarter, a 4-yard scamper in the second quarter and a 1-yard plunge in the third. Prairie's other TDs came on a 15-yard pass from Nate Suchomel to Ben Reutzel and a 2-yard run by Klith carried the ball 20 first half alone. He said he enjoys carrying the load, especially when the offensive line is doing its job and opening the holes.

"It's fun," he said. "It's nice having the weight on your back

Prairie has put itself in position to make a run for the Class 4A playoffs, but it gets extremely tough from here. The Hawks visit No. 3 Iowa City High next Friday, travel to Cedar Rapids Xavier Oct. 21 and host No. 2 Cedar Falls in the regular-season finale Oct. 28.

"We try to look at the season in thirds," said Jelinek, noting his team went 2-1 during the first third of the season and 3-0 in the middle third. "We have to win the last third to make the playoffs. However it shakes out, we've got to win that last third.

A 6-3 record is usually good enough to make the playoffs, but a 7-2 mark would be safer. And if the Hawks finish 8-1, they'll be in a great

Despite holding a precarious halftime lead, West players said they weren't worried about letting this victory slip away down the stretch.

"I thought we could do it again in the second half. I thought we could control the game in both halves," Windauer said.

The victory was especially gratifying for the Trojans, who have been plagued by injuries and suffered through a four-game losing streak, with three of the losses coming against ranked opponents.

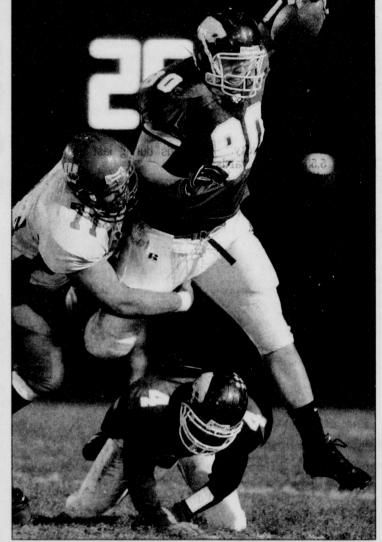

"We have a lot of guys who have been hurt," Hall said. "Guys are stepping up big time and that's what we need. We call each other brothers. We're one family. When someone is down, we pick them up."

West quarterback Matt Hartman completed 11 of 21 passes for 148 yards. Wahlert running back Bobby Avenarius gained 86 yards on 10 carries, including a 41-yard scoring run with 6:52 remaining that pulled the Golden Eagles within 26-20.

But Wahlert never got the ball back.

West will look to start a winning streak next Friday at Cedar Rapids Kennedy.

The second TD was especially entertaining as O'Meara — who is the Warriors' punter — hauled in a high snap on a punt attempt, ran to his right, broke a couple of tackles while cutting back across the field and raced into the end zone with 1:31 left in the half.

Kennedy's first-half touchdown came at the 10:25 mark of the second quarter after a 26-yard drive set up by a Washington fumble and capped by an 8-yard run off left tackle by Luke Dolan.

Kennedy (4-2) got a pair of 3-yard touchdown runs from Carey — one in each of the third and fourth periods — to complete its scoring. Carey completed 12 of 26 passes for 128 yards and rushed for another 49. The Cougars mixed up their offensive formations brilliantly and finished with 324 yards.
