HOUSTON - Kevin Everett was transferred Friday to a Houston hospital to begin the next phase of his rehabilitation, less than two weeks after the Buffalo Bills tight end sustained a life-threatening spinal cord injury in a game against Denver.

The ambulance that took Everett to Houston's Memorial Hermann Hospital was followed by a town car with two women inside, both wearing Everett jerseys.

The women got out and watched as he was wheeled into the medical center.

Everett was scheduled to be transferred to the Institute for Rehabilitation at the Houston hospital.

TULSA, Okla. - Allen Patrick ran for 145 yards and two touchdowns, Sam Bradford threw two long touchdown passes to Juaquin Iglesias and No. 4 Oklahoma outraced Tulsa, 62-21, last night.

DeMarco Murray added two touchdown runs and returned a kickoff for another TD. The Sooners (4-0), the highest-scoring team in the nation, have put up at least 50 points in all four games. That's only the second time in school history they've had such a streak — they also did it in 2003.

After Tulsa quickly moved downfield following an interception for an early lead, the Sooners scored on five straight first-half possessions.

Washington (4-0) avoided a hangover from its thrilling last-second win over fellow crosstown rival Cedar Rapids Kennedy last week. Perhaps a thrilling last-second loss a week ago to Waterloo West was a factor in this loss for Jefferson (1-3).

More likely, though, it had to do with Dawson and his offensive mates. Not to mention a stingy Washington defensive unit that stifled Jefferson to the tune of 143 total yards.

That included limiting Jefferson's Terrell McBride to 52 yards on 18 carries. McBride torched West for 245 yards rushing last week.

Giants cutting ties with Bonds

San Francisco won't bring home run king back in '08

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Barry Bonds is finished in San Francisco. The Giants told Bonds they will not bring him back next season, #### ending a 15-year run in which he MAJOR LEAGUE BASEBALL

set the single-season and all-time home run records and became a lightning rod for the steroids debate in baseball.

'It's always difficult to say goodbye," Giants owner Peter Magowan said Friday. "It's an emotional time for me. We've been through a lot together these 15 years. A lot of good things have happened. Unfortunately a lot of bad things have happened. But there comes a time when you have to go in a different

On his Web site, Bonds said he wasn't done.

"There is more baseball in me and I plan on continuing my career. My quest for a World Series ring continues," he said.

The 43-year-old Bonds did not join Magowan and General Manager Brian Sabean at the news conference. Asked whether he had anything to add, Bonds said, "I already made my statement."

Bonds had always said he wanted to finish his career in the comfort of his hometown, where his father, Bobby, played alongside his godfather, Willie Mays. Bonds talked with Giants Hall of Famer Willie McCovey and took batting practice in the cage before last night's game against Cincinnati.

Bonds hasn't played since Sept. 15 because of a sprained right big toe and was out of the lineup again. Manager Bruce Bochy said he thought Bonds could play this weekend. The Giants' final home-stand ends Wednesday night. Magowan said he and Sabean recently decided about Bonds' future. Magowan personally told Bonds in a 90-minute meeting during Thursday night's game against

"I think he knew the decision was coming," Magowan said. "I don't think it was surprising to him. I think, naturally, he was disappointed, maybe somewhat saddened," Magowan said. "But he was really very respectful."

Bonds broke Hank Aaron's record with his 756th home run on Aug. 7. He has spent the past 15 seasons of his 22-year big league career with the Giants. Re-signed as a free agent in the offseason, he made $19.3 million in a one-year contract, including $3.5 million in bonuses.

Shadowed by steroid speculation for the past few years, Bonds has hit 28 homers this season, raising his career total to 762. The seventime NL MVP is batting .279 with 66 RBIs and 132 walks.

San Francisco's Barry Bonds waits to bat during a game last Saturday in San Diego. The Giants announced Friday that they won't be bringing Bonds back to the team in 2008.

Late touchdown pass sends Lions to 17th straight defeat

> By Jim Ecker The Gazette

CEDAR RAPIDS — Scott Schebler felt rotten after he dropped an easy touchdown pass for Cedar Rapids Prairie last night, but he caught the one that mattered.

Schebler scored on a 34-yard pass from Josh Putz with 2:34 remaining as Prairie escaped winless Linn-Mar, 17-13, in a soggy Mississippi Valley Conference game at John Wall Field.

Schebler muffed an easy touchdown on a long pass from Putz in the final seconds of the third quarter, but the 6-foot, 188-pound junior promised his buddies it wouldn't happen again.

"I told them I messed up tonight said. "That's the only way I know how to do it."

Prairie trailed, 13-10, late in the game when Putz found Schebler over the middle for an apparent first down, but Schebler turned it into a bigger play than that. He bounced off two tacklers and raced into the end zone for a 16-13 lead and Cal Beatty kicked the extra point.

Linn-Mar could not retaliate and remained winless for the past two seasons. The Lions have now lost 17 straight games dating back to 2005.

Derek Tharp carried the ball 32 times for 190 yards for Prairie as the Hawks raised their record to 3-1. Linn-Mar fell to 0-4.

The Lions jumped to a 10-0 lead in the first quarter on a 7-yard run by Nick Schirmer and a 27-yard field by Grant Mahoney, thanks to a pair of interceptions by Connor Wilson.

Linn-Mar grabbed a 13-10 lead with 2:33 left in the third period on a booming 29-yard field goal by Mahoney, but the hard-luck Lions were not able to finish the job.

The Lions hurt their chances with 11 penalties for 100 yards.

Schirmer rushed 19 times for 111 yards for Linn-Mar and Matt Diggmann had nine carries for 98 yards to pace the visitors on the ground. Zach Garman tacked on 69 yards on 17 tries for the Lions.

Putz completed 5 of 11 passes for 114 yards for Prairie.

The varsity game did not start until 8:15 p.m. due to a heavy thunder-storm that struck the area at 7 p.m. Game officials ended the sophomore game with Prairie holding a 27-7 lead in the third quarter to get the varsity game started as early as possible.

yardage. Washington grabbed a 14-0 halftime lead, in large part because of a large drive on its opening possession that was fueled by the 10th-grader.

The Warriors used 12 plays and 6:29 off the clock to travel 74 yards, with Dawson accounting for all but 10 of it. It was pretty much Dawson left, Dawson middle, Dawson right on the ground, as he rushed for 57 yards on the march, and caught a 12-yard shovel Quarterback Wyatt Suess got the touchdown glory, on an 8-yard option run right.

Warrior cornerback Jason Barrigar then made an immediate big play defensively, picking off a J.J. McSweeney pass to the sideline and running it back to the Jeff 21. Washington worked its way to the 1, where backup quarterback Derrick Giesking sneaked over second quarter.

Jefferson looked to get back into the game just before the half, driving from its 17 to the Washington 5. But the eight-and-a-half minute march came up empty, as a McSweeney pass into the end zone on fourth down was knocked away by Washington safety Keenan Davis.

Perhaps the state's top Division I junior recruit, Davis was held to zero catches, by the way.

A muddy turf prevented both teams from passing successfully, as Washington had 30 yards through the air and Jefferson 25.

The J-Hawks' only points came in the third quarter when an unexpected shotgun snap from center sailed over the head of Suess.

The quarterback picked up the ball in the end zone and threw it over the end line for two Jefferson points.
