Tinsley won't practice while Pacers seeks trade

INDIANAPOLIS — Jamaal Tinsley will remain on the Pacers roster while the team tries to trade him, but the guard won't practice with Indiana when it opens training camp Tuesday.

The team will not buy out Tinsley's contract, Pacers president Larry Bird said Friday. "He will stay wherever he's at until we get something done. Jamaal knows that, his agent knows it and we know it," Bird said.

Tinsley has been with the Pacers since before the 2001-02 season, but has been hampered by injuries and off-court legal problems in recent years.

Jason Williams retires after 10 seasons in NBA

LOS ANGELES — Jason Williams announced his retirement Friday, ending his 10-year NBA career less than two months after signing with the Los Angeles Clippers.

Williams, who helped the Miami Heat to the NBA title in 2006, averaged 11.4 points, 6.3 assists and shot 39.6 percent from the floor in 679 games.

The point guard was drafted seventh overall pick in 1998 out of Florida by the Sacramento Kings and averaged 12.8 points and six assists as a rookie.

Williams joined the Memphis Grizzlies three years later, and in 2001-02 averaged 14.8 points per game.

Texans to play Colts at Reliant Stadium Oct. 5

HOUSTON — The Houston Texans will play their home opener against the Indianapolis Colts on Oct. 5 in hurricane-damaged Reliant Stadium with the roof open.

The stadium's retractable roof lost five pieces in the storm and officials said large pieces of debris had fallen into the stadium during Hurricane Ike. The roof won't be fixed in time for the game against Indianapolis, but insurance adjusters and architects said it is structurally sound to host the game with the roof open.

Officials expect that all eight of Houston's home games this season will be played with the roof open.

Wartburg keeps humming behind new old coach

Willis returns in pinch to job he knows well

By Jeff Johnson
The Gazette

CEDAR RAPIDS — When Eric Koehler left as head football coach at Wartburg College in late July to become offensive coordinator at NCAA Division II powerhouse Grand Valley State, the Waverly school looked to the past.

Of course, it wasn't all that far into the past. Rick Willis was the Knights head coach from 1997 to 2005.

He stepped down to concentrate on his duties as the school's athletics director. But with Wartburg in need, it was time for him to step back up.

"With the timing, there were not a lot of other options that would have worked," Willis said. "Quite honestly, the way this happened, I just pretty much said 'Hey, let's do it and make this the best fall we can.'"

This was a good option for

Rick Willis
Wartburg
football coach

Wartburg, for sure. Willis went 79-14 as Knight head coach, taking his team to the NCAA Division III playoffs four times.

The man knows how to coach. It's just a matter of him learning how to coach and be AD at the same time.

"I actually did both jobs in 2005," said Willis, a Cornell College graduate. "So I had a pretty good idea what it all entailed. That doesn't mean it's easy. I'm lucky to have a great coaching staff that helps me out tremendously, as well as terrific administrative assistance."

"While the timing of this coaching change could have created a very worrisome situation, we're extremely fortunate to have Rick Willis lead the football program again," Wartburg President William

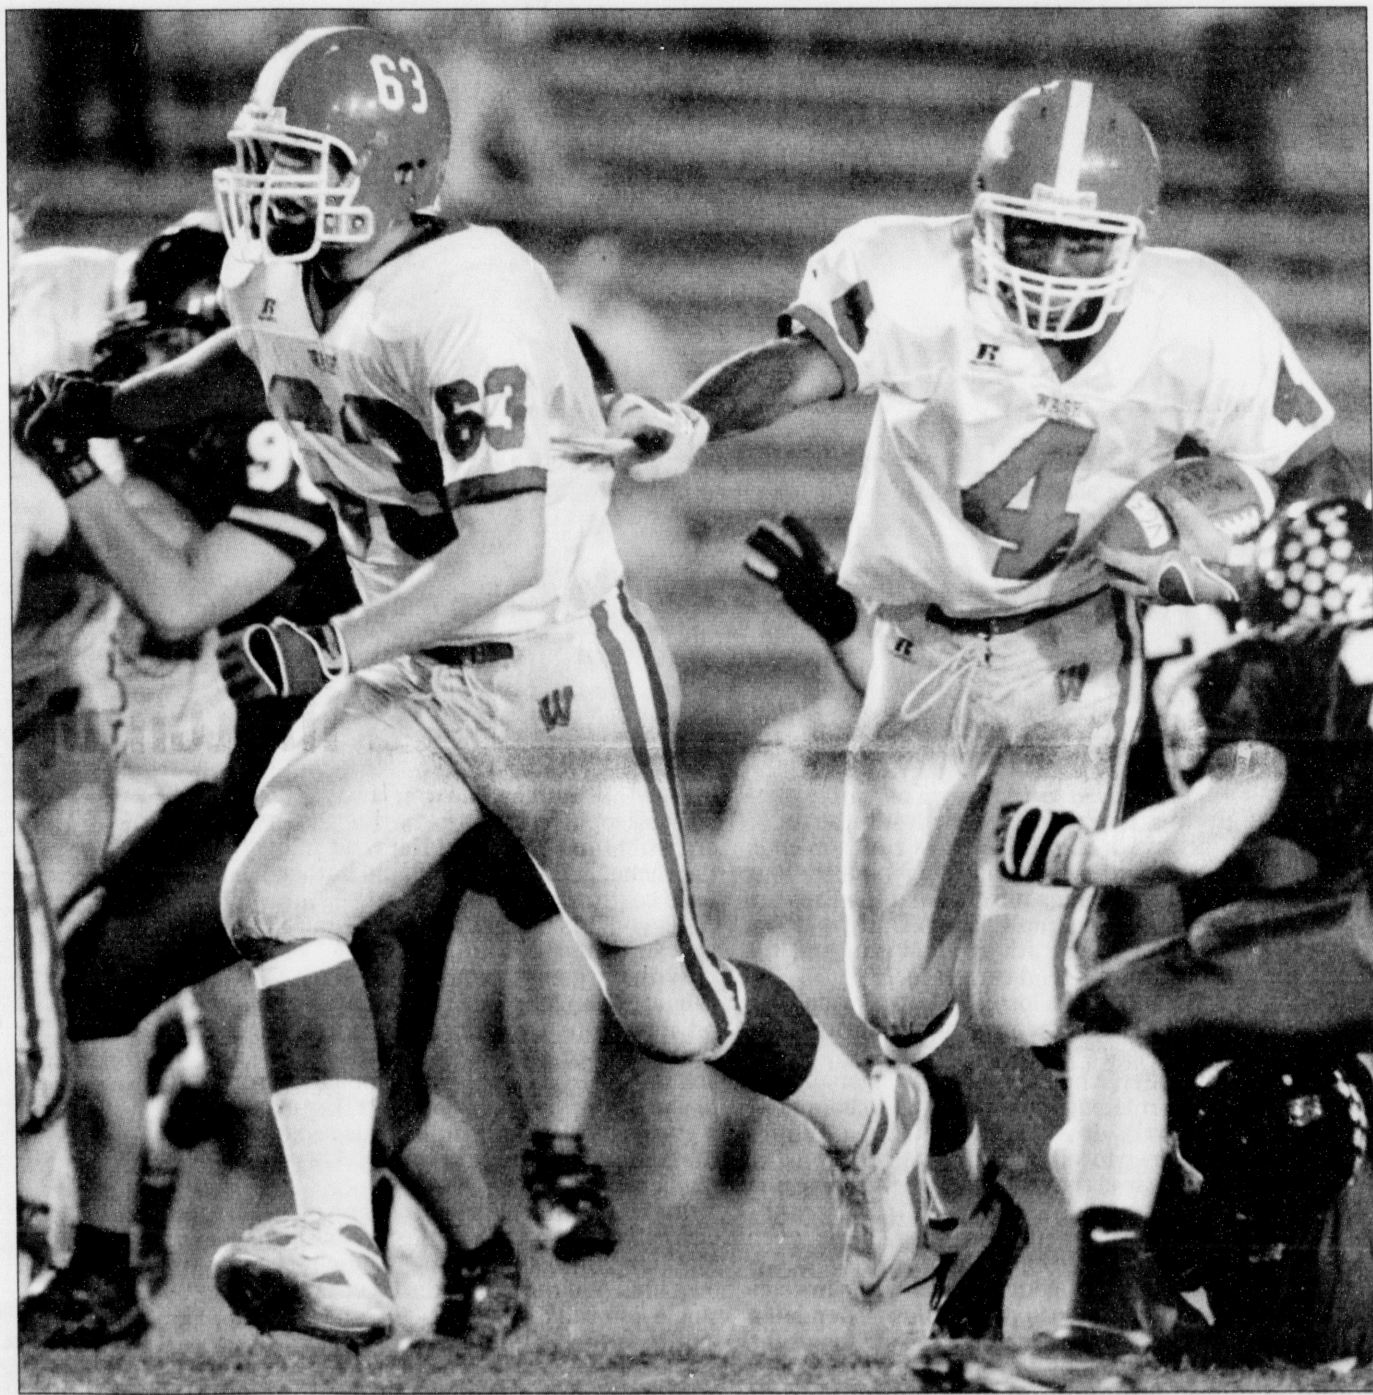

Hamm said at the time of Willis' rehiring. "Rick has been one of the nation's leading Division III football coaches. We expect that this will be a seamless transition, given that Rick laid the foundation for the recent success of the football program, which Eric Koehler had inherited from him."

Wartburg hasn't skipped many beats in the early going this season with a 2-1 record.

Dawson powers Warriors

Cedar Rapids Washington Andre' Dawson hangs on to the jersey of Matt Schrafel as he's led through a hole last night against Cedar Rapids Kennedy in a high school football game at Kingston Stadium in Cedar Rapids. Dawson rushed for 219 yards and Washington won, 28-14.

Back rushes for 219 yards in 28-14 victory

By Jeff Dahn

CEDAR RAPIDS — Someone needs to fill the whirlpool. There's a good chance Andre Dawson is going to need a good, long soak this morning.

Cedar Rapids Washington went away from its spread offense most of the night and handed the ball to Dawson out of power-I sets and the strategy worked to the tune of 252 rushing yards for the Warriors in a convincing 28-14 win over Cedar Rapids Kennedy in Mississippi Valley Conference play last night on another summerlike evening at Kingston Stadium.

Dawson, a 6-2, 215-pound junior with scholarship offers from Iowa and Illinois, carried a bruising 37 times for 219 yards with a 28-yard touchdown run to pace a Washington offense that racked up 444 total yards in a performance that seemed more dominant than the final score indicated.

It was Dawson who carried the load, and he was smiling at the end.

"Coach told us during practice the whole week that we'd be running a lot," Dawson said. "Their defense thought we were going to pass a lot."

It was certainly effective and complemented nicely Wyatt Suess's passing effort of 10 of 19 for 192 yards and two touchdowns.

"After every series we went over and I talked to our O-line and told them how good they were," Dawson said.

Washington Coach Tony Lombardi liked what he saw.

"Every time we take the field, we take it with a purpose," Lombardi said. "We're

Trick play keys City High

Special teams gem changes tight game

By John Riehl
The Gazette

IOWA CITY — Was it a forward pass or a backward pitch?

The special teams trick play created confusion in the press box. On the field, it changed the game late in the second quarter, sparking Class 4A fourth-ranked Iowa City High to a 34-21 victory over Dubuque Hempstead in a Mississippi Valley Conference football battle last night at Bates Field.

Officially, the momentum-changing fake punt on 4th-and-1 went down as a 59-yard shovel pass from punter A.J. Derby to Nick Reuter, giving the Little Hawks (5-0) the ball at the Mustang 7-yard line. Two plays later, fullback Adam Prybil scored on a 1-yard run for the game's first touchdown at the 2:39 mark.

"I was hoping it was going to be called. We have a pulling guard on the back side, and it just opened up wide open," Reuter said. "I didn't want to jump offsides or fumble the ball."

That definitely was an important play on the Hempstead sideline.

"The fake punt, for sure, was big," Hempstead Coach Mark Ehlers said.

Unfortunately for the Mustangs (3-2), there was more to come before halftime.

After Hempstead went three-and-out on its next possession, City High covered 80 yards in 51 seconds for another touchdown. Derby, a dynamic quarterback, did the honors on a 22-yard scoring run with 2.9 seconds remaining.

Before Hempstead got the ball back, City High had built a 21-0 lead.

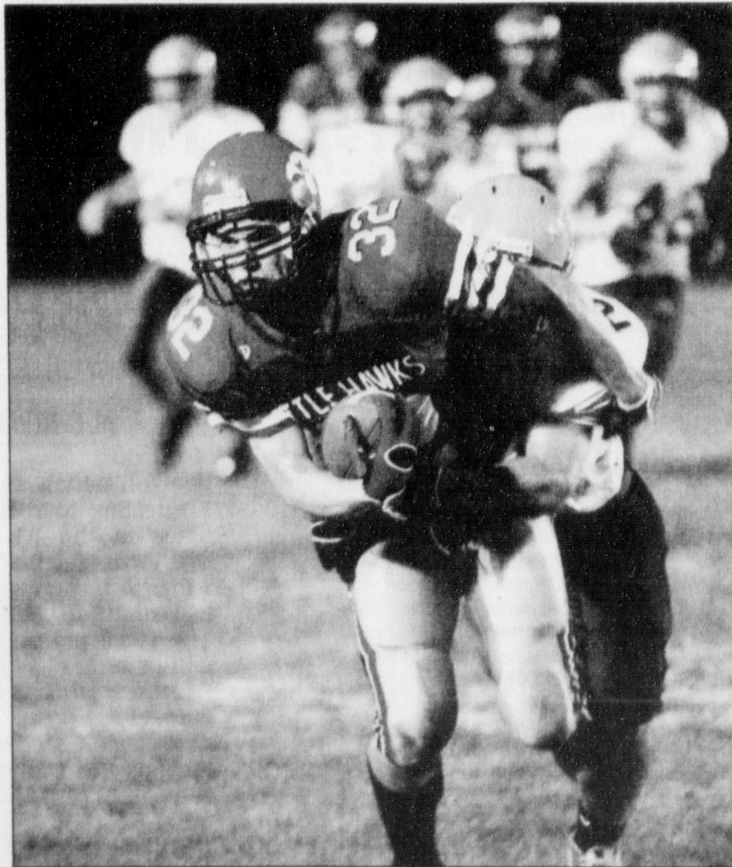

The Little Hawks took the second-half kickoff and marched 80 yards in only three plays, with backup tailback Clay Embree breaking free for a 71-yard scoring run.

Embree rushed for a game-high 100 yards on nine attempts. Teammates Derby and Reuter joined in the act, gaining 93 and 76 yards, respectively.

"The coaches preach running the ball hard," Reuter said. "The coaches are on the O line all the time. The O line did a great job. Every day in practice, they are working hard."

Xavier rolls past Wahawks

By Jim Nelson
Waterloo Courier

WATERLOO — There is a time to gamble, a time to fold 'em, and Waterloo West may need to learn how to fold 'em, more often.

Cedar Rapids Xavier continually took advantage of a blitzing Wahawk defense riddling West to the tune of 38-7 last night at Memorial Stadium. The Saints (3-2) had 11 plays of 10 or more yards in the first half as they built a 38-0 half-time lead to ruin West's 78th Homecoming game.

"You always plan and try to execute to the best of your ability, and tonight some things went our way," Xavier head coach Duane Schulte said.

Xavier had 325 offensive yards in the first half averaging 14.8 yards per play. The Saints scored on plays of 66, 17, 30 and 55 in the first half as a shellshocked West (3-2) had no answer.

"They just beat the tar out of us," West Coach Stan Wienke said. "There is no way to candy-coat it, they just us and beat the poop out of us."

The Wahawks consistently blitzed seven and eight players, but Xavier either dumped the ball to a wide-open receiver or ran through a gap West failed to fill.

The Wahawks didn't help themselves much in the opening 24 minutes as they committed seven penalties for 61 yards and lost two fumbles. West had one chance to get on the scoreboard in the second quarter, but Ryan Edwards was wide right on a 50-yard field goal, which would've made it 17-3.

Dylan Martin rushed for 95 on nine carries. Steven Travis, who took over at quarterback last week for Xavier, passed for 204 yards and two scores — a 66-yard strike to Michael Ball for the games first score, and a 55-yard screen to Corey Reed.

It was the second consecutive impressive win for the Saints, who knocked off then eighth-ranked Cedar Rapids Kennedy last week.

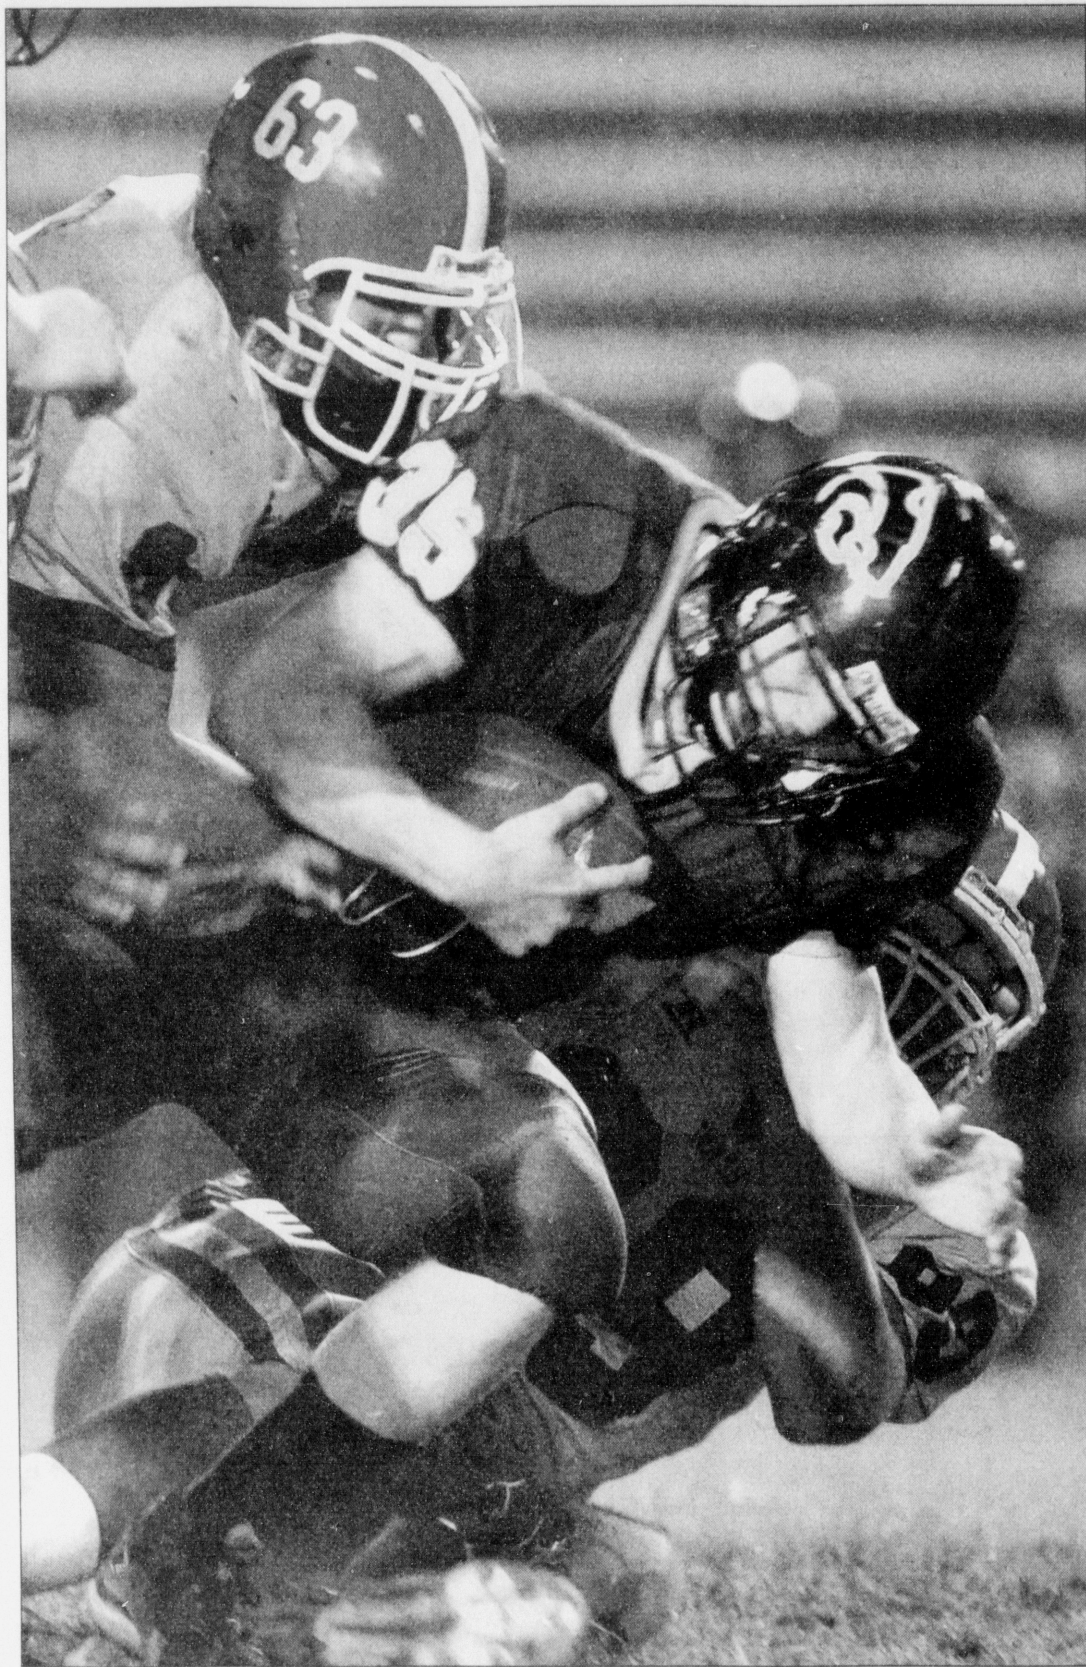

"I never want to say too many good things, because I don't want anybody satisfied, but we're just trying to grind it out and get some wins," Schulte said.

With the clock running and a conservative approach in the second half, Xavier finished with 373 yards.

West finally got on the scoreboard with 5:27 left in the fourth quarter when Jud Wienke hit Dan Petullo with a 17-yard touchdown pass against the Saints' reserves.

Wienke finished 12 of 22 for 166 yards, but the Wahawks were held to 16 yards rushing on 20 carries.

West travels to the UNI-Dome next week to face 10th-ranked Cedar Falls, and Xavier returns home to play Dubuque Wahlert.

preparing our team for later in the season and I just believe in order for us to be successful in November ... we've got to be able to run the football when we want to run it."

Both teams played without key injured personnel.

Washington all-state wide receiver Keenan Davis missed his second straight game with a lower leg injury. Kennedy senior quarterback Derek Thomas was in street clothes with an undisclosed injury incurred in last week's loss to Xavier, and several other Cougars saw limited action.

Sophomore Jed Haycraft filled in for Thomas at QB and acquitted himself nicely, completing 14 of 27 for 143 yards with touchdown passes of 34 yards to Josh Erceg and 14 yards to Andy Petersen. Senior Anthony Cooper played tailback, quarterback and wide receiver for the Cougars and finished with 63 yards on 10 carries and caught a pass for 12 yards.

Kennedy (3-2) finished with 234 yards of total offense, 160 in the second half. The Washington defense was pretty darn good.

"We're a family. We work together," Washington senior linebacker Jerome Strong said. "Everybody does their part, everybody gets some dirt, and we just get the job done."

Class 4A seventh ranked Washington (4-1) dominated the first half on both sides of the ball but had only a 14-7 lead to show for it at half.

Dawson had 109 yards and a 28-yard TD on 20 punishing carries in the first two quarters and Suess threw for 111 yards with a 19-yard scoring pass to Shay Gutman by the break.

Kennedy, meanwhile, didn't pick up a first down until the 1:36 mark of the second period, but it was part of a 10-play, 76-yard drive the Cougars capped with a flurry.

Facing a fourth-and-4 on the Washington 34, the Cougars pulled of a wild double-reverse flea-flicker with Haycraft eventually throwing deep to a wide-open Josh Erceg for a TD with 25.2 second left in the half.

Kennedy hosts Iowa City High and Washington is at Iowa City West Friday.

Prairie jumps on West High early, romps

By Jeff Johnson
The Gazette

CEDAR RAPIDS — The flash pots and fireworks shot off before the game were impressive, but nothing compared to the fireworks in the first quarter of the game.

It took Cedar Rapids Prairie's football team all of seven minutes to score three touchdowns that cinched a 21-6 win over mistake-prone Iowa City West last night. Prairie took advantage of two early West turnovers, electrifying the atmosphere at John Wall Field so much that a bank of lights temporarily went out.

"Coming out, the fireworks really helped us out," said Prairie receiver-defensive back Scott Schebler. "The crowd was really into it, so that got us pumped. That helped out a lot, too."

So did Prairie's special teams. Schebler hauled in a 37-yard touchdown pass from Alex Hanna on the opening possession of the game, then Jordan Aune recovered the ensuing muffed kickoff at the West 5, leading to a Nate Lindley 1-yard TD run.

The center snap on West's next possession eluded punter Austin Otto long enough for him to be tackled at the Trojan 41. Prairie used the short field to score again, this time a 1-yard Hanna rollout.

With 5:05 still on the clock in the first quarter, this one was o-v-e-r.

"We've got very nice kids, but we really, for whatever reason, have been unable to find a way to motivate our guys to get ready to play," said disappointed West Coach Brian Sauser, whose team dropped to 0-5. "I guess maybe we need to do a better job coaching because that was embarrassing at the start of the game."

Taylor Bontrager to Otto late in the second quarter, but Otto's extra-point attempt hit the upright and that was it offensively. Prairie chose to pound Lindley the rest of the game, as he accumulated 113 yards on 35 carries.

Bontrager completed 10 of 24 passes for 227 yards. West had only 38 rushing yards on 35 attempts.

"That's always the number one (priority). No matter how well a team passes, you want to stop their running game," Prairie Coach Craig Jelinek said. "Then, number two, I thought we made their quarterback uncomfortable."

Linn-Mar pounds Waterloo East, 45-6

By J.R. Ogden
The Gazette

MARION — The bell-ringer at Armstrong Field got quite a workout last night.

Nobody was complaining.

"It means a lot," running back Jer Garman said after rushing for 103 yards and a touchdown and catching two passes for 54 more and another touchdown as the Lions won for just the second time in three years, whipping winless Waterloo East, 45-6, in a Mississippi Valley Conference prep football game.

The Lions snapped a 24-game losing streak Sept. 12.

"I don't really remember the hard times," said Garman, a 5-foot-8 sophomore with slashing speed.

First-year coach Bob Forsyth doesn't remember the bad times either. But he's loving this team, this year.

"The best thing about everything is we're getting better," he said. "We have ups and downs, but we're better."

Linn-Mar (2-3) wasted little time against the struggling Trojans (0-5), blocking a punt after East's first possession. Jordan Nelson fell on the ball in the end zone and, less than two minutes into the game, the Lions owned a 7-0 lead.

Linn-Mar marched 55 yards on its first possession with German scoring on a 36-yard pass from junior quarterback Will Roth. It was 17-0 at the end of the first quarter after a beautiful 43-yard field goal from Dailey Johnson and 31-0 at halftime.

"Linn-Mar did a good job tonight, a real good job tonight," East Coach Antonio Mays said.

Roth connected with Mitch Mahmens from 6 yards out midway through the third quarter, giving the Lions a 38-0 lead and starting the continuous clock. It was 45-0 three minutes later when Matt Kearney scored for the second time, this one a 5-yarder with 3:53 left in the third.

Linn-Mar's star were many — Garman with his 103 rushing yards, Kearney with 27 rushing yards and two TDs and Roth with his 134 and two scores. The defense picked off three East passes and picked up two fumbles.

"Number two is the next step," Forsythe said. "We've got to keep walking forward."

Linn-Mar hosts Prairie next Friday in a homecoming clash.

recruit Josh Lenz with 4:14 remaining in the third quarter. Lenz finished with 60 yards on 14 carries.

With City High leading 21-7, the teams combined for four touchdowns in the final three minutes of the game.

Derby had both Little Hawk scores on a 1-yard run and a 62-yard kickoff return on an onsides kick. The Mustangs scored on a 6-yard run by Brock Haas and a 1-yard pass from quarterback Matt Ehlers to Brad Duwe.

"They are an excellent football team," Coach Ehlers said of City High.

"And I think we're showing some signs. We were coming back and we're moving the ball on them. I saw some encouraging things."

City High travels to Cedar Rapids Kennedy next Friday.

"There are some things we have to get better at. The focus was there, but it's not where it needs to be," Little Hawk Coach Dan Sabers said.
