Pacers won't comment on rumored Tinsley deal

INDIANAPOLIS — The Indiana Pacers declined to comment Friday on a report that point guard Jamaal Tinsley, a former Iowa State stand-out, would be traded to Denver for Steven Hunter and Chucky Atkins.

No trade yet

Pacers president Larry Bird downplayed the report, which appeared in Friday's New York Post, saying the team wouldn't comment on "trade rumors" involving any of its players. Hunter's agent, Mark Bartelstein, denied his client was involved in the reported deal.

"There's nothing happening with that trade," Bartelstein told The Associated Press.

Duncan will return as Cards' pitching coach

ST. LOUIS — Pitching coach Dave Duncan will be back with the St. Louis Cardinals next season.

The Cardinals announced Friday that Duncan has agreed to a one-year contract with an option for 2010. Terms were not disclosed.

Duncan has been the Cardinals' pitching coach since Tony La Russa arrived as manager before the 1996 season.

He has been credited with turning around the careers of several pitchers, including Kyle Lohse, who earlier this week signed a four-year contract to stay with the team.

Duncan is 62 and has been a major league pitching coach for 29 seasons.

Florida's Donovan finally signs contract extension

GAINESVILLE, Fla. — Florida Coach Billy Donovan has finally signed a contract extension he agreed to more than a year ago.

Donovan had agreed to the contract extension last June after deciding to return to Florida just days after signing a deal with the Orlando Magic.

The contract he signed Friday will pay him $3.5 million a season through 2012-13.

Donovan is 285-115 in 12 seasons at Florida.

Rays rally, put Sox on brink

Iwamura's home run propels Tampa Bay to 2-0 series lead

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — The young, resilient Rays are one win from breezing into the American League

MAJOR LEAGUE BASEBALL

Championship Series.

All-Star Scott Kazmir settled down after a shaky start, Akinori Iwamura hit a go-ahead, two-run homer and the AL East champions beat the Chicago White Sox, 6-2, last night for a 2-0 lead in their first-round playoff series.

"This is just awesome," said Rocco Baldelli, who singled in a run.

Giving many fans a close-up look of the formula that transformed Tampa Bay from a last-place team to a power, the Rays rallied for the second straight day and remained undefeated in their young post-season history.

The Rays go for a sweep when the series resumes Sunday in Chicago. Tampa Bay's Matt Garza (11-9) faces John Danks (12-9), trying to seal a match-up against World Series champion Boston or the Los Angeles Angels in the next round.

"We're a relaxed bunch," Baldelli said. "We chill out in the clubhouse. We have fun. That's what got us here."

Of the 35 teams to fall behind 2-0 in the division series before this year, just five have come back to advance, according to the Elias Sports Bureau.

It's been a bleak October for both Chicago teams. The Cubs lost their first two NL playoff games at home to the Los Angeles Dodgers.

"We're against the wall," White Sox Manager Ozzie Guillen said. "We've got to fight like a cat, and now it's a must-win game."

Chicago started quickly, scoring twice in the first on Jim Thome's RBI single and Alexei Ramirez's sacrifice fly, but Kazmir struck out Juan Uribe with the bases loaded after three straight foul balls.

CEDAR RAPIDS — It took Iowa City High a half of football to get its offense and quarterback A.J. Derby up to speed.

And it was Derby's speed and ability to seek holes on a couple of punt returns that jump-started that offense, the highest ranked in the Mississippi Valley Conference. Derby had punt returns of 30 and 11 yards to give Class 4A third-ranked City High great field position in Cedar Rapids Kennedy territory, and the Little Hawks turned both possessions into touchdowns in last night's 14-0 win over the Cougars at chilly Kingston Stadium.

"We've been stressing good blocking (on returns) in practice and we came out an blocked well," Derby said. "The holes were there and I just had to run through them. It was an easy way to get the yards."

Derby's 30-yard return gave the Little Hawks (6-0) a first-down at the Kennedy 39 at the 9:40 mark of the third quarter, and nine plays later Derby found Noah Cmiel with a 4-yard scoring pass.

Rare air for Hawks in victory over Lions

By Jeff Johnson
The Gazette

MARION — You could swear you saw the Cedar Rapids Prairie football team lighting up Linn-Mar through the air last night, but that's not the way the power-running Hawks usually roll.

Maybe those were balloons released into the air to celebrate the Lions' homecoming instead of footballs. It was difficult to see much of anything, considering a bank of lights in the middle of Armstrong Field malfunctioned and remained out the entire game.

That didn't stop Air Prairie from passing its way to a 28-7 win.

"Essentially we are a running team. We are a big power team," said Prairie fullback-linebacker Jace Kremer. "But we try to expand that because you can only run so many times before the defense just gets you. The passing game helped out a lot tonight."

Hawk quarterback Alex Hanna completed 13 of 16 passes for 189 yards, including two touchdowns, as Prairie (5-1) pulled away from a 14-7 game

Ex-Prairie prep Reutzel having big year for Simpson

By Jeff Johnson
The Gazette

INDIANOLA — Adam Reutzel's football career at Simpson College has been very good.

He was a second-team all-

COLLEGE FOOTBALL

Iowa Conference running back as a freshman in 2005. He ascended to first-team honors as a junior.

He's four games into his senior season, and it looks to be his best. Reutzel ran for 209 yards and a pair of touchdowns in a 28-9 win over Luther last Saturday to earn conference player of the week honors and gain a spot on the D3football.com team of the week.

So who does the former Cedar RapidsPrairie prep have to thank for his big game? Well, there's his parents, Larry and Becky, his brother, Ben, who is a starting defensive end for the Storm, his coaches and the rest of his teammates, especially his offensive line.

And there's Duke. Duke?

That's the English bulldog Reutzel picked up over the summer. Duke's been a great companion, although he's a bit spoiled. He refuses to sleep on the floor, so Reutzel leaves room for him on the end of his bed each night.

"He's a worse snorer than I am," Reutzel said with a laugh. "He's pretty bad."

But as far as good-luck charms go, Duke apparently has been the best. Just look at the 544 yards rushing Reutzel has through four games, including a 6.1 per-carry average and six touchdowns.

Simpson hosts Coe this afternoon at 1, and you'd have to think the Kohawks will focus on trying to contain No. 2 (his jersey number).

"The thing with Adam is that he's kind of indicative of the team we have," said first-year Simpson Coach Jim Glogowski. "He's not overly big, he's not overly fast. But he works very hard, very hard to improve. And he's very coachable. You tell him something once, and he gets it."

Reutzel burst onto the Iowa Conference scene right away, compiling 937 yards and seven TDs as a freshman. He split carries with another back as a sophomore, which explains his rushing total dropping to just over 500 yards.

But he got back within sniffing distance of 1,000 yards last season, finishing with 946. He was second on the Storm with 31 pass receptions.

Reutzel's solid at 5-foot-11 and 205 pounds. His speed

No. 4 Warriors keep Trojans winless

After slow start, Washington comes on to topple West, 28-7

By Jason Brummond
News correspondent

IOWA CITY — Cedar Rapids Washington is still undefeated without star Keenan Davis, but it wasn't easy last night against winless Iowa City West.

The fourth-ranked Warriors survived a slow start and a second-half threat from West in a 28-7 victory in high school football at West.

Washington running back Andre Dawson ran for 104 yards and two touchdowns, and quarterback Wyatt Suess threw for a score and ran for another.

Yards weren't easy early on for the Warriors (5-1), who didn't score until midway through the second quarter. But Washington but together three long scoring drives behind Suess and Dawson and controlled most of the second half.

"Offensively, we just found a way to move the ball," Washington Coach Tony Lombardi said. "When we get a lead in the second half, we were able to control ball with Andre and our offensive line."

Trailing by two touchdowns at the half, the Trojans (0-6) cut the deficit in half on a 41-yard touchdown run by Jamal Thompson with 5:27 left in the third.

The Warriors responded with an 11-play scoring drive that ended in an 8-yard touchdown run by Suess with 39 seconds left in the third.

West threatened to score in the fourth from the 7-yard line, but Avery McBride intercepted Tayler Bontrager's fourth-down pass in the end zone.

Davis, a future Iowa Hawkeye, missed his third game with a lower leg injury.

Lombardi said he would be questionable for next week's game but said the receiver made strides this week. Washington was also without receiver Derek Giesking, but six Warriors caught passes in their absence.

"That just shows how good of a team we have," said Dawson, who added a 7-yard touchdown run late in the fourth.

West had a chance to jump ahead with an early second-quarter field goal attempt before a delay-of-game penalty pushed the try back five yards.

It proved costly distance when Austin Otto's 40-yard attempt fell short by just a couple of feet.

Washington looked very sluggish in the first quarter but responded with a quick pair of touchdowns in a three-minute span in the second.

Dawson scored on a 1-yard run with 7:47 remaining in the first half to cap an 80-yard drive following the missed field.

After West was forced to punt, Suess found McBride in the middle of the field for a 30-yard touchdown and a 14-0 lead.

Suess completed 13 of 26 passes for 214 yards.

'Lucky' Travis leads Xavier past Wahlert

By Jim Ecker
The Gazette

CEDAR RAPIDS — In a perfect world, Steven Travis would have been named the homecoming king at Cedar Rapids Xavier High School last night.

He did just about everything else for the Saints.

Travis ran for a 65-yard touchdown, passed for an 11-yard score and intercepted two passes for the Saints in their gritty 17-10 victory over Dubuque Wahlert in a Mississippi Valley Conference football game.

His reaction?

"I just got lucky," he said.

Lucky, perhaps, but good.

"Steven was up and down, to be honest," said Xavier Coach Duane Schulte. "The bottom line, he led his team to a victory."

The game was tied, 10-10, when Travis faked a handoff, circled to his left and raced 65 yards for the go-ahead score down the far sideline.

"It's just our guys doing their jobs and I got free," he said, saluting his blockers.

Wahlert quarterback Eric May completed 22 of 40 passes for 280 yards and a touchdown, but those two interceptions by Travis helped keep the Golden Eagles (2-4) away from the end zone most of the night.

"Eric May is just an athlete," Travis said. "Hopefully, he'd make a mistake. I just got lucky twice."

Lucky on the 65-yard run, lucky on the two interceptions, and presumably lucky on his 11-yard touchdown pass to Logan Hollingsworth in the second quarter.

That's a lot of luck for one guy. It helped the Saints (4-2) move a step closer to clinching a spot in the Class 4A playoffs.

Xavier did not do anything special to put pressure on May, a 6-foot-4 senior who plans to play basketball at the University of Iowa next year. The Saints relied on their four defensive linemen to pester May, which let them drop seven players into pass coverage.

"We know how good he really is," said Xavier defensive tackle Dan Thorsteinson. "We tried to give him a hard look every time."

Wahlert took a 3-0 lead on a 43-yard field goal by Mike Meyer. Xavier grabbed a 7-3 edge on the touchdown pass from Travis to Hollingsworth, then Wahlert took a 10-7 lead on May's 16-yard strike to Nick Bautigan. Mike Andries tied the game, 10-10, with a 43-yard field goal for Xavier with 1.1 seconds left in the first half.

It stayed that way until Travis, playing only his third game at quarterback, broke loose for his 65-yard gallop with 4:40 left in the game.

Lucky.

at the half.

A 16-yard screen pass to Scott Schebler set up Prairie's first TD, a Ross Siemering 1-yard run midway through the first quarter. Hanna connected with Kremer out of the backfield for an 11-yard touchdown pass in the second quarter, then hit Schebler with a 52-yard TD bomb in the third.

The play-action bootleg worked all night, as Linn-Mar (2-4) concentrated on trying to stop tailback Nate Lindley and the Prairie running game. Lindley still got his, rushing for 105 yards and a TD on 32 hard carries.

"If you look at our stats, (passing) is just something we haven't had to do, yet," said Prairie Coach Craig Jelinek, who picked up his 99th-career win. "We put Alex in a position to make passes tonight."

Jelinek credited assistant coaches Eric Anderson and Jeff Kean for the way the Prairie defense took care of the rest. Linn-Mar was held to 118 yards, with sophomore back Jer Garman running for 111 of those.

A 46-yard run on a quick pitch in the first quarter set up Linn-Mar's lone score, a 5-yard pass from Will Roth to Josh Montague. The Lions were limited to 34 second-half yards.

"We went in (at halftime) and tried to make some offensive adjustments," said Linn-Mar receiver-defensive back Mitch Mahmens. "I don't know what it was. Prairie came out tough and just stuck it right to us. That's all that happened."

City/Derby's punt returns set up both TDs

His 11-yard return — coming on a Kennedy punt from its 7 after a terrific goal-line stand by the Cougars — enabled City High to set up shop at the Kennedy 29, and six plays later Clay Embree rumbled in for a 1-yard touchdown.

Those two scores were enough on a night when a dynamite City High defense held Kennedy (3-3) to 161 yards. Cougar quarterback Derek Thomas was sacked three times for minus-31 yards, twice by senior tackle Kevin Harp.

"We were just playing very disciplined ball and we practiced all week on being fundamentally sound," Hart said. "We haven't always been disciplined ... and if you just play straight up and do your job, food things will happen."

The Little Hawks took control in the second half when the Cougars had just four offensive possessions — three three-and-outs and a lost fumble. Derby, meanwhile, completed seven straight passes during one stretch in the third quarter as the Little Hawks controlled the clock.

Derby completed 14 of 22 passes for 140 yards and carried 17 times for 77 yards.

"Is he special or what," City High Coach Dan Sabers said. "A.J. is a special, special player ... and he made some tremendous plays for us."

Tailback Eric Washpun rushed 17 times for 91 yards.

Kennedy lost its third straight and was unable to get anything going offensively. Thomas passed for 109 yards, Max Martino caught four passes for 79 yards and junior tailback Royce Bell rushed 17 times for 88 yards.

"Anytime you play a good football team like that you've got to put some points on the board," Kennedy Coach Tim Lewis said. "I was happy with our defense. If you can hold City High to 14 points with the guys they've got, then you should be excited about the way your defense played."

The first half was scoreless as defenses bent but never snapped.

Both offenses were able to accumulate yards but had no points to show for them. Each team's most effective drives ended with missed field goals.

Kennedy took its first possession 41 yards to the City High 20 before stalling, and Tyler Sievertsen missed a 38-yard field goal left. City High took a late second quarter possession from its own 20 to the Kennedy 21 then watched as Philip Riley's 37-yard kick missed right.

Kennedy plays at Waterloo West and City High is at Dubuque Wahlert next Friday.
