Linn-Mar led 2-0 after a snap went over the West punter's head and out of the end zone for a safety. Garman made his longest run of the night on the ensuing drive - a 40-yard scamper to the left when the junior shook an ankle tackle and outran everyone else.

After another team safety, Lions quarterback Will Roth completed his first pass, a 51-yard quick strike to tight end Ian Mc-Brayer on a seam route for a touchdown and an 18-0 lead just two minutes into the second quarter of

C.R./Saints rolling into substate with 7-2 mark

► FROM PAGE 3B

It was a battle the Saints ruled.

Prairie (3-6) had zero yards of total offense until its final drive of the night and lost for the fifth straight time.

'Prairie's a good team, but our line got a great surge tonight, on both sides of the ball," Chizek said

"They got a great push, and when they do that, it's easy to see the holes and run through them.'

The Saints capitalized on Prairie mistakes for their first two touch-

A roughing-the-punter penalty prolonged Xavier's second possession, and the Saints scored five plays later on Chizek's 3yard run.

An interception by Colin O'Connor set up the next TD. Joe Savre hooked up with Chizek for a 12-yarder to make it "In (the Mississippi Valley Conference), sometimes you need a break or two. If you take advantage, maybe you can set the tone," Schulte said.

Chizek's third touchdown of the game, on a 3-yard run, extended the margin to 21-0 just a few seconds before halftime.

Sayre connected with O'Connor for a 17-yard pass completion and Chizek ran for 3 yards for the Saints' second-half touchdowns

CEDAR RAPIDS Shay Gutman was oh-so close to perfection last night at Kingston Stadium.

Gutman, Cedar Rapids Washington's senior quarterback, completed 5 of 6 passes for four touchdowns in less than a quarter and the Warriors steamrolled Waterloo East, 59-6. in a Mississippi Valley Conference prep football regular-season

Washington (7-2) qualified for a Class 4A substate game Wednesday. The Warriors will host the game at 7 p.m. in Kingston Stadium. Gutman tossed three touchdown passes to senior wide receiver Ronnie Henderson as Washington bolted to a 19-0 lead less than six minutes into the game. Henderson, who came into the game with 12 catches, raced past the East (2-7) defense for strikes of 61, 55 and 29 yards. The latter two were one-play TD drives.

"Our game plan is to run the ball usually, but we saw on tape that (East) usually plays manto-man," Gutman said. "We ended up over and up on them in the first worked. Gutman could have had five touchdown passes, but junior Alex Carr dropped a pass in the end zone. Carr redeemed himself with a 19-yard touchdown reception and 14-yard scoring run. Gutman, nearly recovered from a sprained knee suffered three weeks ago, called it a night after his scoring strike to Carr with 2:48 left in the first quarter boosted the Warriors' lead to 33-0.

'Alex was pretty upset when he dropped that ball," Gutman said. "I told him I'd get him the ing for him." Washington senior tailback Andre Dawson, who entered as the state's leading rusher, carried the ball 11 times for 118 yards and three touchdowns. His night was over after his 34-vard scoring dash boosted the Warriors' lead to 46-0 with 11:06 left in the sec-
