DeVries out again for Detroit Lions

ALLEN PARK, Mich. — The Detroit Lions placed defensive end Jared DeVries on injured reserve, meaning he will miss a second consecutive season because of injury.

DeVries signed a one-year contract in April after being released in February. He missed last season following surgery on a ruptured Achilles tendon.

He started 29 games the previous three seasons for the Lions and has played in 120 games since they drafted him out of Iowa in 1999.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

Iowa-Ohio State games on national TV

IOWA CITY — Both Iowa-Ohio State women's basketball games will be televised to a national audience this winter.

The game Jan. 8 in Iowa City will be on CBS, the game Jan. 24 in Columbus will be on ESPN2.

Iowa's schedule was released Friday. Eight of Iowa's opponents were in the NCAA tournament last season.

The Hawkeyes (20-14 overall, 10-8 Big Ten in 2009-10) will play a 16-game Big Ten schedule.

Cedar Rapids takes on Iowa City in Ryder Cup

CEDAR RAPIDS — The 12th annual Cedar Rapids-Iowa City Ryder Cup golf tournament begins today at Ellis Golf Course. Cedar Rapids holds a 6-3-2 lead in the series.

There are rounds today at 7:30 a.m. and 12:30 p.m., with singles starting at 8 a.m. Sunday.

The Cedar Rapids team includes six former City Am champs, led by current winner Chris James. The Iowa City team is led by 2010 City Am champion Chad McCarty.

"Brandon Wegher has not returned to the team and has not indicated any intentions of doing so in the immediate future," Ferentz said.

During media day Aug. 6, Wegher spoke of confidence, preparation and shot down rumors about his academic standing. A 2010 return seems unlikely, especially with the season opener a week from today.

The Hawkeyes still have Adam Robinson, who rushed for 834 yards last year, and Jewell Hampton, who returns after missing '09 with a torn ACL after gaining 463 yards as a freshman.

Warriors' Tann turns it around

EDAR RAPIDS

— On a season-opening night feeling way more like summer than fall, there couldn't have been a more appropriately named kid to make a game-changing play than Tann.

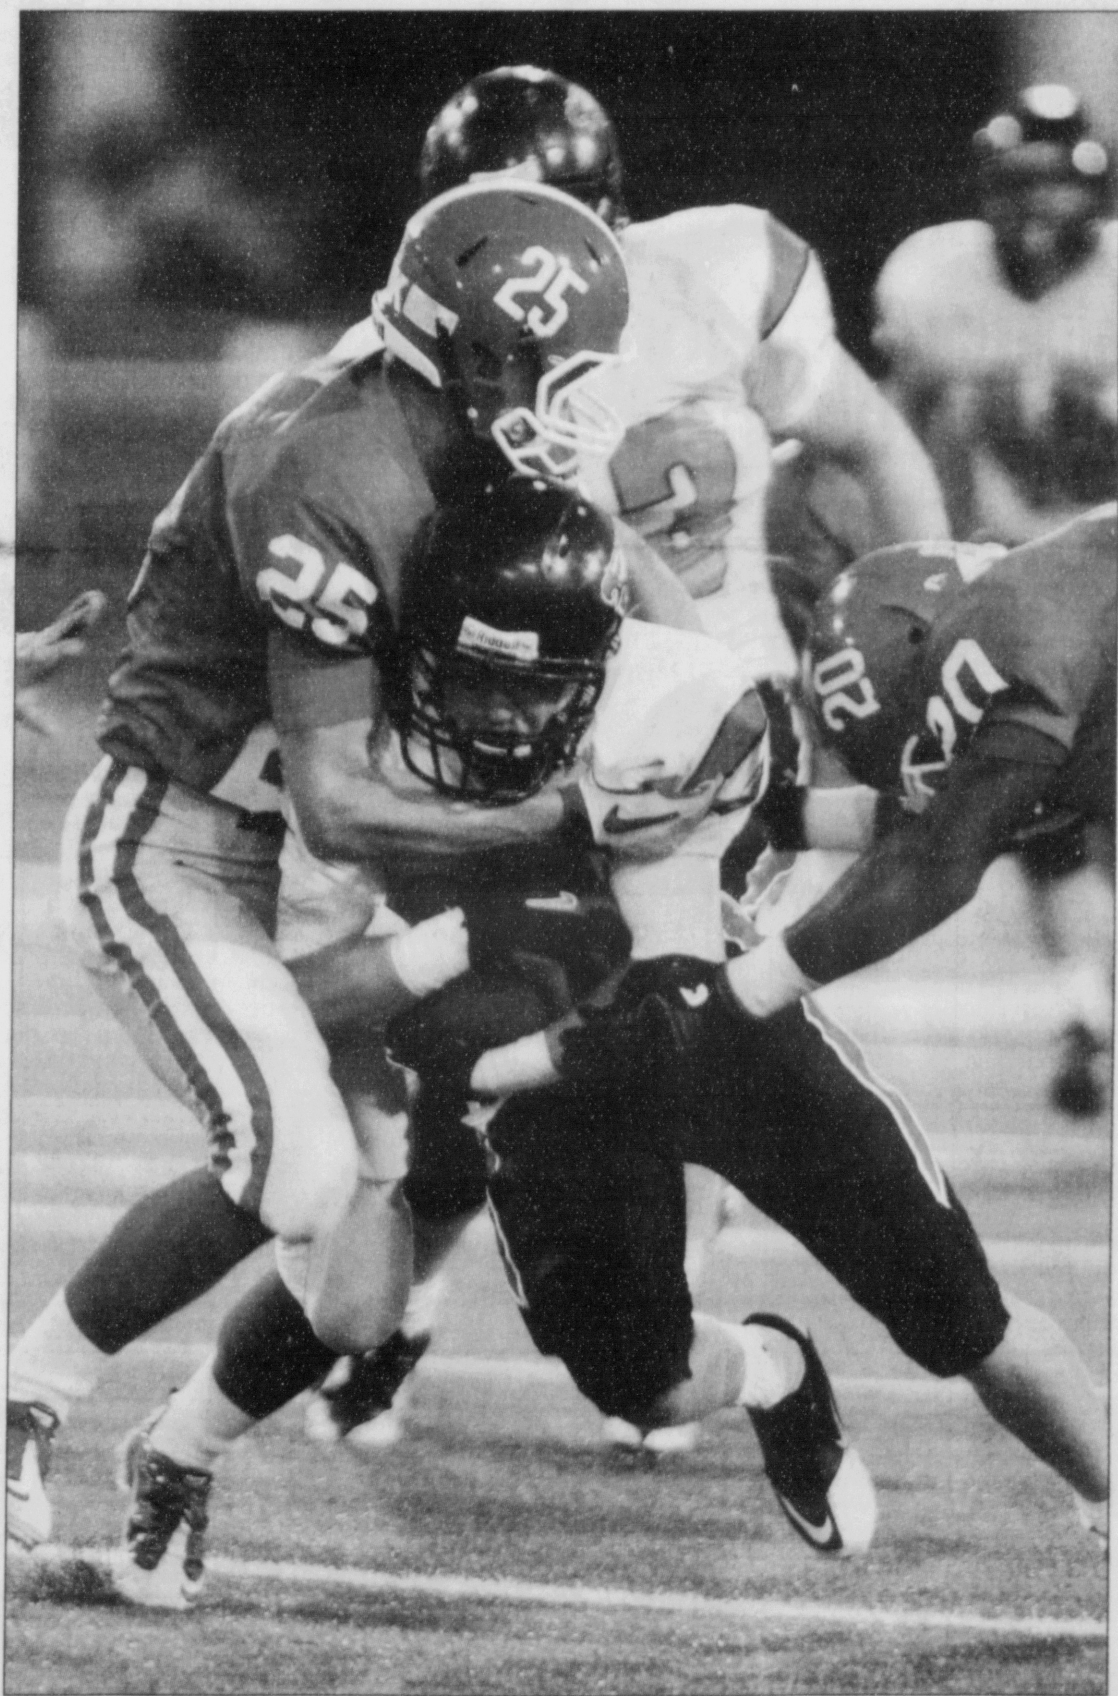

Junior safety David Tann's 32-yard interception return a for touchdown in the third quarter was the highlight of a strong defensive performance that lifted Cedar Rapids Washington past Cedar Rapids Prairie, 41-21, last night at Kingston Stadium.

Washington's usually high-octane offense wasn't all that high octane until late, although it didn't need to be considering the guys on the other side of the ball. That included Tann, who deftly stepped in front of an intended receiver over the middle, picked off a Chaz Boots pass and negotiated his way to the end zone to create hard-fought separation for his team.

The ensuing extra point put Washington up 14-3 midway through the third. A fourth-down stop at midfield and interception by defensive lineman Toby Ziemer led to an avalanche of offense, as the teams combined for six touchdowns and 42 points in the final 12 and a half minutes.

Alex Carr was anticipated to be the next terrific Washington tailback and he definitely didn't disappoint. The

Saints' Schulte hits 100

CEDAR RAPIDS — Welcome to the Century Club, Duane Schulte.

Class 4A third-ranked Cedar Rapids Xavier repeatedly took advantage of a short field in the first half and clobbered 42nd Street rival Cedar Rapids Kennedy, 35-7, in a Mississippi Valley Conference battle last night at Saints Field.

The victory was the 100th of Schulte's career, now in his 17th season.

"I've been fortunate enough to have great assistant coaches and outstanding players," Schulte said. "And I'm fortunate to have a wife like mine (Sherry) who more or less raised our four kids."

Schulte is 100-62 overall, including 76-48 at Xavier. This one came surprisingly easy.

The Saints (1-0) had the lead barely two minutes into the game, extended it to 14-0 soon after, and built a 28-0 halftime advantage.

Four players scored the four first-half touchdowns.

way, decisively and irreversibly, on the first play of scrimmage.

Kennedy's Anthony Crawley fumbled, and the Saints recovered at the Kennedy 22. Four plays later, a 2-yard touchdown run by fullback Jared Volz got Xavier on the board.

"The early turnover set the tone for the game," Schulte said. "It helped us establish a little momentum."

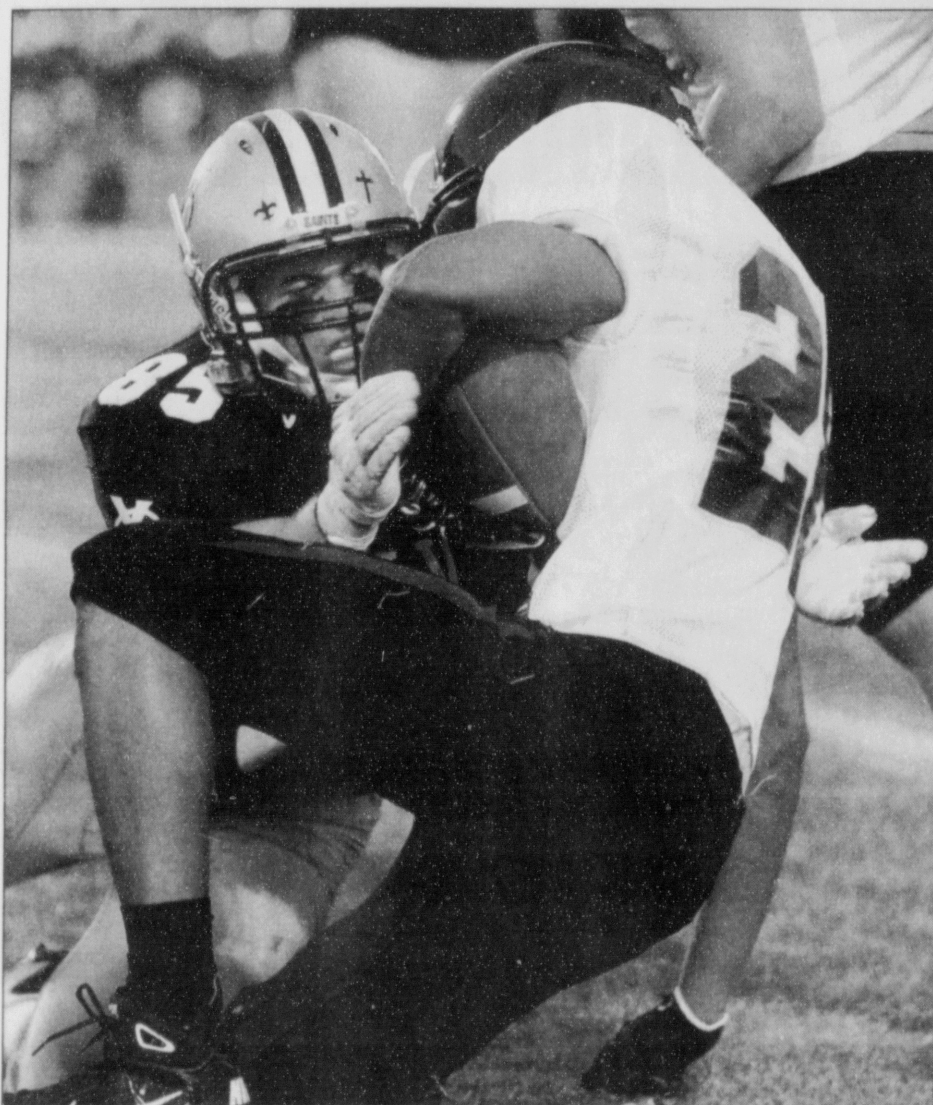

The Cougars (0-1) went three-and-out on their next possession, then a 47-yard punt return by Nathan Even put the Saints back in business. Even caught an 8-yard TD pass from Andy Didio on the second play of the drive to make it 14-0.

Didio was effective in his varsity debut at quarterback. He completed 11 of 12 passes for 112 yards and two touchdowns.

"I was a little nervous beforehand," he said. "But the line came out and did their jobs, the receivers ran great routes. The defense gave us great field position. It made my job pretty easy."

Kennedy drove to the Xavier 15 before Nicholas Bruns missed on a field-goal attempt early in the second quarter, then Xavier went back to work, driving 80 yards for another score. Pat Chizek did the honors from 5 yards out.

A bad snap on a punt attempt allowed Xavier to set up shop at the Kennedy 25, then Didio located Ryan Mains for a 19-yard TD pass to make it 28-0 with 0:34 left in the first half.

Xavier finished with 269 yards of offense, Kennedy 151.

Chizek finished with 74 yards on 16 carries, including an 11-yard scoring dash with 2:40 left in the third quarter that allowed the continuous clock to run.

It stopped when Rossi Adams scored a consolation touchdown for the Cougars, a 12-yarder with 2:30 remaining in the game.

MARION — If Linn-Mar's Mark Atwater is looking for a new nickname. He gave his friends, teammates and Lions fans plenty of examples to draw from last night.

"Big-Play" Atwater would fit. The junior quarterback produced plenty of big plays, powering Linn-Mar past Cedar Rapids Jefferson, 43-15, in a Mississippi Valley Conference prep football game at Armstrong Field.

Atwater threw for 275 yards and three touchdowns and rushed for 163 yards and a score. The "big-play" moniker has a good ring to it.

"That sounds good," Atwater said before being ushered into the locker room for the team's Hokey Pokey.

Running is his strength, but he has developed into a fine passer as well. He's proven to be a double-weapon and can loosen the defense for running back Jer Garman.

"Passing is really starting to pick up over these last couple weeks," Atwater said. "Last year, (starter) Will (Roth) helped me out so much. Coach (Matt) Case (bolt) and all those guys have pushed me to throw the ball better."

Atwater wasted little time getting the Lions on the board. After a penalty on their first play from scrimmage, Atwater kept the ball on an option play to the right. He burst through the line and then outran three J-Hawks defenders for an 88-yard touchdown run. Garman took a pitch to the right on the conversion, putting the Lions up 8-0 less than three minutes into the game.

The key all night was great line blocking and a simple game of pitch and catch with reliable targets.

"Up front and those receivers, man," Atwater said.

The J-Hawks fought hard, driving deep into Lions territory routinely in the first half, but they couldn't convert, missing a pair of field goals and turning the ball over on downs.

Jefferson finally got on the board when Tanner Unkel scored on a 29-yard run to make it 29-7 with 4:57 to go in the third.

speedster scored four TDs and literally sprinted his way to 257 yards, including scoring bursts of 84, 67 and 43 yards — all in the second half.

At times this was a workmanlike effort for the 5-foot-9, 175-pounder, with Prairie having eight defenders in the box much of the game. That led to a host of small gains, but when he broke free he wasn't going to be caught.

On the flip side, it was certainly an oh, oh Riley night for Prairie. Tanner Riley kicked three field goals, including a school-record 47-yarder to open the scoring.

He also had a 39-yarder in the second that made it a 7-6 game at halftime, adding a 43-yarder to conclude the scoring. In between he had a 5-yard touchdown run.

Always living and dying by the rush, Prairie was held to 99 yards on the ground. Washington countered with 292. The overall yardage spread was 391-211 in favor of the Warriors.

Sophomore quarterback A.J. Puk completed 9 of 19 passes for Washington for 99 yards. That included a 20-yard touchdown toss to Flynn Heald, who caught five balls for 63 yards.

Cedar Rapids Washington's Flynn Heald (2) misses a pass in the end zone and goes flying last night at Kingston Stadium in Cedar Rapids.

Little Hawks open with 48-6 rout of Dubuque Senior

By Erin Murphy

Dubuque Telegraph Herald
DUBUQUE — Through one week of the regular season, at least, the new-look Iowa City High Little Hawks bear a striking resemblance to their championship predecessors.

With just eight of 22 starters back from the team that won the Class 4A state title last fall, City High is a team of intrigue in 2010. These Little Hawks passed their first test with flying colors, demolishing Dubuque

Senior, 48-6, last night at Dalzell Field.

On a team with many unknowns, one certainty for the Little Hawks is their offensive line. That unit, which returns three starters, absolutely dominated last night's game. Iowa City rushed for 299 yards and racked up 21 first downs.

The Little Hawks led by 20 points after one quarter and 34 at halftime.

Senior running back Ronald Thompson followed the punishing blocks of an offensive line that averages 241 ½ pounds. That's 20 pounds heavier than the average of Senior's defensive line. Thompson rushed for 92 yards and a score while quarterback Andrew McNulty carried the ball three times for 91 yards.

"The offensive line was great. They were blocking for me perfect, and I hit the holes hard," Thompson said.

The Little Hawks' defensive line was pretty stout as well. Senior, which is trying to break a string of three consecutive one-victory seasons, barely inched across the 100-yard mark for total offense in the game and was just 1-for-9 converting third downs.

All in all, not a bad debut for the new-look Little Hawks.

"It's great, because it's definitely a different roster," Thompson said. "We've got to just go out and play our game and dominate."

West answers in second

By Jeff Hare

IOWA CITY — After a sluggish first half, Iowa City West came out strong in the second to defeat Waterloo East, 35-14, on a beautiful opening night for Mississippi Valley Conference football.

West opened the scoring late in the first quarter with quarterback Charles Rogers scampering in from seven yards out on a broken play. West continued the scoring in the second quarter as Rogers hit sophomore Ezra Reiners on a 20-yard pass completion for a touchdown.

With a 14-0 lead at halftime, West Coach Brian Sauser said he got on his team.

"I challenged them to respond and we did," he said.

West responded very quickly.

Mondo Williams returned the second half kickoff 78 yards for a touchdown. On East's next possession, Reiners picked off a Desmond VanArsdale pass and West was able to convert that into a Gradey Gramball 2-yard touchdown run.

East's next possession was more of the same as Richard Bryant picked off another VanArsdale pass and took it to the 2-yard line. Colin Baker did the rest.

"All in all it was a great way for us to start," Sauser said. "The third quarter was big for us and I thought our defense played well for us all night long."

West travels to Dubuque Hempstead next Friday.
