Kennedy's 1-2 punch pounds Waterloo West

Cougar backs each post 100-plus games in rout of Wahawks

By Jeff Johnson

The Gazette CEDAR RAPIDS Safety didn't exactly come first last night for Cedar Rapids Kennedy. It just got buried in the middle of all the touchdowns.

HIGH SCHOOL FOOTBALL

Rossi Adams and Trevor Heitland ran for 100 yards each as Kennedy brutalized Waterloo West, 57-7, last night at Kingston Stadium. The Cougars (4-4) have won four of their last five to all but guarantee themselves to be part of the postseason field of 32 in Class 4A.

Now it's about improving their seeding going into the regular season finale next week at Dubuque Wahlert.

'We're not satisfied,' said Kennedy center Ross Ellsworth. "We want to continue to get better. We have a goal every week that you always want to get better. We don't want to have any dropoff, especially going into the playoffs. You want to keep that momentum going in, and you want to keep rolling.

Kennedy picked up

three safeties last week in a romp over Iowa City West and had another one last night when a bad center snap on a punt by West (2-6) led to the football going out of the end punishing ground attack that produced 392 yards.

Senior Adams had three touchdowns and a 116-yard night, junior Heitland two TDs and zone. But this was about a 123 yards. Neither one seemed to meet anv defensive resistance until they were at least three or four yards downfield, a testament to the guys up front: Ellsworth, guards

Jacob Dunne and David Kaiser and tackles Nathan Castek and Andrew Paulsen.

'That's a great 1-2 punch," Kennedy Coach Tim Lewis said of his backs. "We're just rotat-ing them by series right now. We started R.J. tonight because it was senior night. Last week, Trevor got the start. It kind of goes by the week of practice that they have. They're both always there; it's never an issue of who's there and who's not there. It makes for great competition in practice.

West actually scored on the initial possession of the game, but it was 13-7 Kennedy by quarter's end and 36-7 at halftime. The continuous clock began rolling after Heitland's 5-yard TD run to begin the third quarter.

ennedy also got TD runs from Anthony Crawley and Chase Fergus and a special-teams touchdown when Jacob Losch fell on a fumble in the end zone after a botched Wahawk kickoff return.

"I'm excited about the ways these kids have bounced back," Lewis

Kennedy's Christian French missed his second consecutive game with a right elbow injury. He said has eliminated Texas A&M from his college list and is down to Iowa, Oregon, Notre Dame, Missouri and Nebraska.
