Tigers survive a scare at West

By Jeff Hare

IOWA CITY — They say the true mark of greatness is how one responds when the back is against the wall.

That's just where Cedar Falls was last night, trailing Iowa City West 16-0 with 40 seconds left in the first half of a Mississippi Valley Conference prep football game.

It was all Tigers after

Cedar Falls stormed back with 34 unanswered points for a 34-16 victory

As the half wore down, Cedar Falls got the ball and moved 60 yards in five plays, capped by a 14-yard Jordan Doyle pass to Bobby Brummel with five seconds left, cutting the lead to 16-7. That play changed the momentum of the game.

"They came out ready to play," Cedar Falls cocoach Brad Remmert said of West. "We were fortunate they got three field goals instead of touchdowns.'

Remmert said the

"We knew that we had the ball to start the sec-ond half," he said. "Our coaches made some big adjustments in our blocking schemes along the

In the third quarter, Cedar Falls got a 34-yard touchdown pass from Doyle to Andrew Stone and took the lead for good late in the third on defensive lineman Nick Borsay's 16-yard interception return.

'Borsay made a great play on the ball, and it was a great score," Remmert said.

Barkley Hill led the Tigers with 147 yards on 27 rushes and Doyle completed 11 of 14 passes for 165 yards.

Tiger co-coach Pat Mitchell said his team needed a game like this before the playoffs, which start Wednesday.

"We needed to be tested by a good football with great athletes," he said. "That's the kind of football team Iowa City score before the end of the first quarter with more help from Linn-Mar. Jer Garman fumbled on the second play of the drive, and Xavier took over at the 18. After a penalty and a steady diet of running plays early in the game, Didio connected with Nathan Even on a nice flag pattern in the back corner of the end zone for a 23-yard TD and a 21-0 lead one second before the second quarter.

The Lions' third fumble led to Chad Gilmer's 30-yard field goal that let the Saints take a 24-0 lead.

Running back Pat Chizek was a work horse for the Saints, carrying on the first seven plays and 10 of the first 12. One of those early runs was a nifty 45-yard jaunt to give the Saints a 7-0 lead. Chizek rushed up the middle, finding a seam to the left, cutting to that side and receiving a nice block downfield as he reached the goal line.

Chizek added two fourth-quarter TDs.

The Lions (7-2) battled back late, scoring three touchdowns in the final quarter. Garman scored on runs from 10 and 5 113 total yards. Josh Montague hauled in a pair of touchdown passes from Atwater.

Montague made a great leaping catch in the back of the end zone, dragging one foot in, for the Lions' first score, coming with 27 seconds to go in the
