Iowa City Regina's Jacob Vollstedt tries to avoid the tackle attempt of Solon's Cody Fritz last night in a battle of defending state championships at Iowa City. Regina prevailed for the second straight year, 35-9.

An extremely Regal moment

By K.J. Pilcher
The Gazette

IOWA CITY — A huge matchup turned into just as big a mismatch. Iowa City Regina took on and then took down rival Solon to win a battle of defending state championship football teams. The Class 2A second-ranked Regals used big plays from a potent rushing offense to handle 3A second-ranked Solon, 35-9, last night at Regina High School. Regina (2-0) extended its winning streak to 16 games. Solon, which won the 3A title in 2010 after winning three straight 2A titles, has lost twice since the 2006 2A state championship — both at the hands of the Regals. Regina showed big-play ability, scoring at light speed. It built a 21-3 halftime lead on three scoring drives of four plays or less. The opening driving started from good field position, thanks to a kickoff return into Solon territory, and the final drive of the half was set up by a George Sehl interception when he grabbed an overthrown pass by Spartan quarterback J.J. Hanus. The Regals rolled 46 yards in four plays with bookend Jacob Vollstedt runs. Vollstedt scored on a 6-yard run after quarterback Nate Streb scur-

Lions settle into new home with rout of Cougars

By Jeff Linder
The Gazette

MARION — New home, sweet home. Andy Henry returned the opening kickoff 95 yards for a touchdown, and Class 4A eighth-ranked Linn-Mar routed Cedar Rapids Kennedy, 42-14, in front of nearly 6,000 at shiny, new Linn-Mar Stadium last night. "What a way to kick off the new place," said Linn-Mar's Mark Atwater, who passed for two touchdowns and ran for another. Five Linn-Mar players scored (Zach Martins got in the end zone twice on passes from Atwater) as the Lions improved to 2-0. Linn-Mar dominated from the start. Literally, the start. Henry, who collected three touchdown receptions in a season-opening win over Cedar Rapids Jefferson, got the new joint jumping immediately, and the Lions didn't let the Cougars (0-2) up for air. The speedy senior took the opening kick at the 5-yard line, sprinted to the 20, cut right and sprinted untouched for the Lions' first score. "We set up a return to the right," said Henry, who scored Linn-Mar's first special-teams touchdown in Bob Forsyth's three-plus years at the school. "The front line gave me a hole, and I just took it." Twelve seconds in, and Linn-Mar was on the board. It was 35-7 by halftime, and the majority of the second half was played under a continuous clock via the 35-point mercy rule. All in all, it was a festive night

Upper Iowa ushers in FieldTurf era today at Eischeid Stadium

By K.J. Pilcher
The Gazette

FAYETTE — When Upper Iowa takes the field for its football season opener today against Texas A&M-Commerce at Eischeid Stadium, the Peacocks will step on recently installed FieldTurf, which is part of a $7.5 million facilities renovation project. Kickoff is 1 p.m. "All around campus there are a lot of things changing," Peacocks Coach Tom Shea said. "We had a very generous donation to redo our stadium, so we got the first phase of that done with the turf. It's pretty exciting. Our kids are pumped." The project got financial support from former Steve and Diane Harms. He's a 1973 Upper Iowa graduate who played football for the Peacocks and is on the school's board of trustees. She's a former UIU cheerleader. Other changes expected by the start of next season include field lighting, running track, additional seating, an improved sound system, a scoreboard with large video screen and a multi-purpose press box. What's the thinking on the best of the upgrades? "Depends on who you talk to," Shea said with a laugh. "For our players, it's the field turf." Fayette had more than an inch of rain early this week. The Peacocks practiced without muddy conditions and a torn up field the next day. "We practice on it every day. If it rains it doesn't matter," said running back Jordan Odoerfer, a former Starmont prep. "It's nice to have something that doesn't

Saints get the 'job' done in shut out of Prairie

By Ryan Pleggenkuhle
Correspondent

CEDAR RAPIDS — A combination of Cedar Rapids Xavier's toughness on defense near the goal line and two big touchdown runs led the Saints to a 14-0 victory over Cedar Rapids Prairie last night at Xavier.

Prairie was just one yard away from being the first to strike, moving close on a 76-yard screen play from Jace Hanna to Tristian Beyer. The pass set up first-and-goal from the 1, but the Saints held on first and second downs. On third down, Xavier forced and recovered a fumble to take away Prairie's scoring threat.

"We try to get guys to do their job and on that particular defense stand they did their job," said Xavier Coach Duane Schulte.

After Prairie's fumble at the goal line, the Hawks held Xavier's offense to a fourth down. But after committing a costly penalty during Xavier's punt attempt, Prairie gave Xavier's offense new life. From there, Xavier running back Carter Valentine made sure the Saints capitalized.

With just under five minutes left in the first quarter, Valentine finished the drive for Xavier with a 32-yard touchdown run. He struck again two minutes later, this time tacking on a 56-yard touchdown run.

In the first half alone, Valentine rushed for 146 yards.

"The offensive line did a great job opening huge holes and I just followed them up," Valentine said.

"It was all a credit to my line."

"Carter ran hard. He had some good blocking on those runs and his linemen did their job," Schulte said.

Xavier began the second half with some trickery.

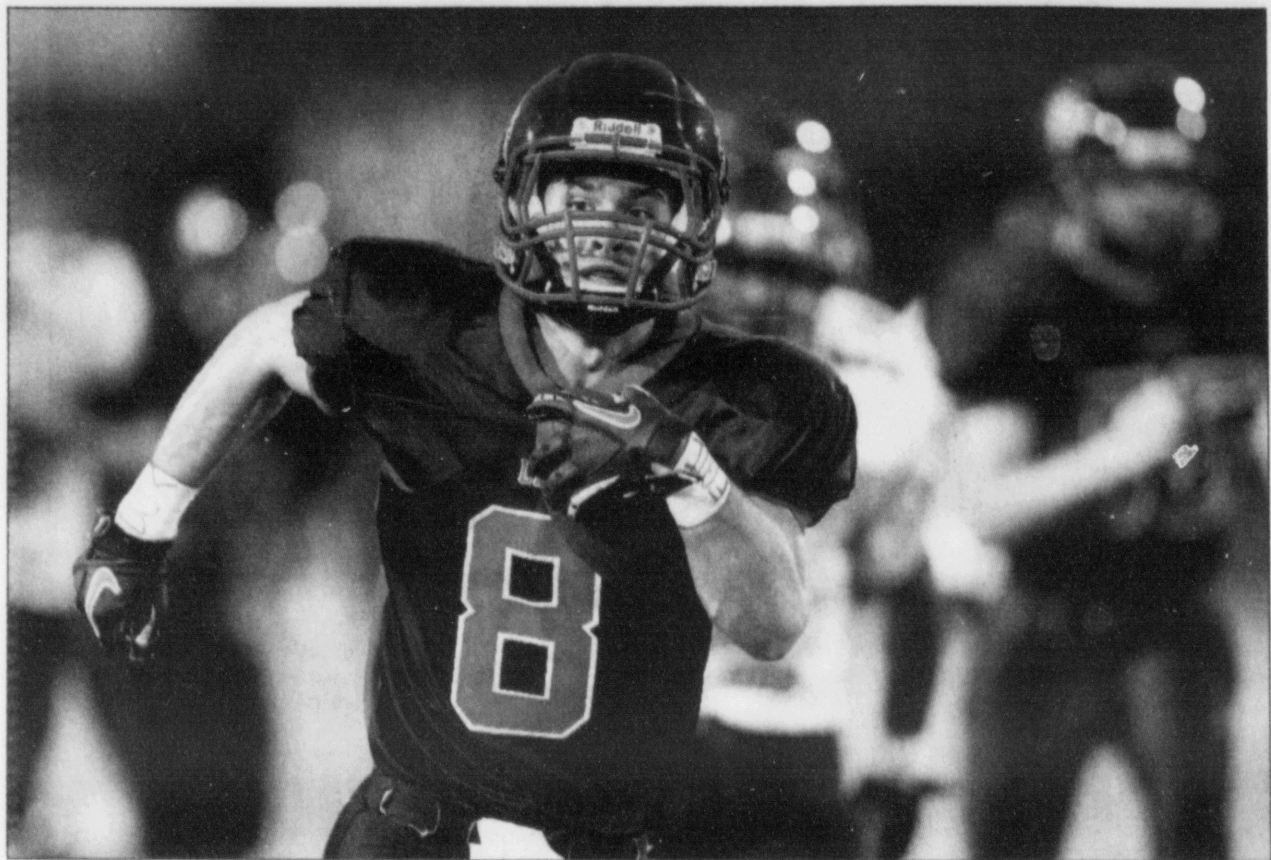

After being faced with a fourth-and-4 on their 22-yard line, the Saints gained 23 yards on a fake punt pass to Jack Boland.

The Saints drove to Prairie's 24-yard line before missing a 41-yard field goal attempt.

The Saints' defense has shut out its first two opponents.

"The defense is doing great. We have two shut-outs so far and hopefully we can keep that going," Valentine said.

The Saints play at Dubuque Hempstead next Friday.

for the home team.

"The kids were really excited for this," Forsyth said. "They came out and exploded."

Linn-Mar accumulated 375 yards, compared to 123 for the Cougars, who have been outscored 70-14 in their first two games.

Atwater completed 12 of 17 passes for 177 yards.

After Kennedy went three-and-out on its first series, Mitch Wantock added a 15-yard TD on a draw play to put the Lions up 14-0.

Alex Hillyer's 3-yard run made it 14-7 early in the second quarter, then the Lions answered immediately, moving quickly downfield and scoring on Brandon Ophoff's 7-yard run.

Atwater hit Martins for a 20-yard scoring pass, then kept it himself for a 20-yard TD run to make it 35-7 at the half.

Martins' second TD — a 5-yard aerial from Atwater — set the clock ticking nonstop with 5:53 left in the third quarter. It stayed that way until Kennedy's Trevor Heitland scored on 1-yarder with 28 seconds remaining in the game.

Linn-Mar makes its lone trip outside the Metro all season next week at Dubuque Wahlert. Kennedy faces Cedar Rapids Washington at Kingston Stadium.

ried for a 30-yard run to create first-and-goal from the 8.

"Our team effort was superb," Vollstedt said. "I've never seen a team more dedicated to winning than this team."

Vollstedt also ignited the Regals with 1:51 left before halftime, going 39 yards on the first play from scrimmage after the turnover.

After two Joe McCaffery runs, Streb capped the drive with a nifty fake, keeping the ball around right end and sprinting to the end zone in the final minute.

Vollstedt and Streb put the nails in Solon's proverbial coffin in the fourth quarter. Vollstedt scored from a yard out and Streb added a 3-yard TD run, expanding the lead to 35-9.

Vollstedt had a 62-yard jaunt that highlighted a six-play, 91-yard drive resulting in his touchdown. Vollstedt powered the big-play rushing attack with 154 yards on 15 carries. McCaffery finished with 87 and Streb had 67 rushing yards. Streb also completed 6 of 8 passes for 85 yards.

McCaffery also contributed to the quick-strike offense, Solon's Josh Proehl connected on a 34-yard field goal to close Regina's lead to 7-3 in the first quarter. On the opening play of the ensuing series, McCaffery took his first handoff, burst through the line and made a couple of impressive cutbacks for a 72-yard touchdown.

Solon (1-1) answered in the second half with a 76-yard drive capped by a 5-yard pass from Hanus to Cody Fritz on a 4th-and-2, making it 21-9.

That was the closest the Spartans got.

Trojans sputter, roll

By Andrew Bassman

IOWA CITY — The Iowa City West offense showcased a high-flying attack last but clipped its own wings with penalties.

The Trojans still defeated Dubuque Hempstead, 41-17, in a Mississippi Valley Conference game at West.

Quarterback Charles Rogers threw for three touchdowns and ran for two more. West had seven plays for more than 20 yards but also racked up 10 penalties.

"We were ragged and a little bit soft," said West Coach Brian Sauser.

"We're fortunate we have some guys who can make big plays on the outside."

Mondo Williams turned in the most remarkable play. Williams appeared snowed under on the right side then cut back all the way across the field, jitterbugging and shedding tacklers, and dashed down the left side for a 9-yard touchdown run to put West ahead 13-0.

In the second half, Rogers found the end zone with a goal line sneak to capitalize a six-play, 45-yard march. He scored

Simpson carries Lions past Bears

Tait Simpson scored two first-half touchdowns to help propel Lisbon to an 18-8 prep football victory over West Branch last night in Lisbon.

LOCAL ROUNDUP

The Class A fourth-ranked Lions set the tone early when Simpson took the opening kickoff 48 yards to the West Branch 36 and, five plays later, scattered around right end for 10 yards and the touchdown.

After a West Branch fumble on their first possession, the Lions marched 46 yards capped by Simpson's nine-yard TD run. The Lions added a safety late in the second quarter to take an 18-0 lead into halftime.

"This is a big win for us," Simpson said. "West Branch is a good team, We just hope to build off this momentum."

The Class 1A third-ranked Bears marched down the field on their opening drive of the second half. After a nine-play 56-yard drive, Cade Jones barreled over the right side into the end zone, making the score 18-8 after a two-point conversion.
