Dall equal opportunity when it comes to end zones

By Andrew Bassman Correspondent

SOLON - Solon's Austin Dall caught passes in both end zones in the first quarter at Spartan Stadium, a touchdown pass in the east end zone and an interception in the west end zone.

"Once you make one play you just want to be all over the field and make some more," Dall Solon (2-1) grabbed control in the second quarter and held firm to beat Benton Community, 36-7, in 3A-6 last night.

A scary moment late in the game tempered the celebration. The running clock stopped with 7.2 seconds left when Benton's Isaac Hopkins was injured and left the field on a stretcher. A nearly 15-minute delay ensued while medical personnel tended to Hopkins. Further information on Hopkins' condition was unavailable at press time.

Dall's 4-yard touchdown reception from quarterback J.J. Hanus capped Solon's 12-play, 66-yard opening drive. Benton answered by moving the ball, and on thirdand-10 on Benton's 34. quarterback Jake Stenberg threw a pass that slipped through the fingers of Solon's Cody Fritz, mark but the pass slid with open space in front of him, into the hands of Benton's Brandon Beaver for a 40-yard gain.

streaking down the hash off his fingertips. Benton went to Solon's 7-yard line but on the next play fumbled the exchange from center to quarterback as time expired in the first quarter.

Solon started to run away near midpoint in the second quarter, when Hanus broke free on a run around the left end for a 40-yard touchdown. Solon got the ball back after when Benton again fumbled the snap. Solon wrapped up a four-play, 34-yard drive on a 10-yard run bounced outside by Andy Klouda.
