Waukon tastes sweet revenge, on to semis

NEW HAMPTON — Same teams, same location. Different result.

Emphatically.

Parker Hesse had 21 carries for 160 yards and two touchdowns last night as Waukon defeated New Hampton, 36-0, in a Class 2A quarterfinal football game. Hesse also completed seven of 10 passes for 105 yards and a touchdown.

Waukon's defense held New Hampton to just four first downs and 122 total yards of offense.

The game was a rematch of a regular season game Oct. 25 when New Hampton upset then-No. 1 Waukon, 19-14.

Waukon plays Albia (12-0) next Saturday in the UNI-Dome.

Elsewhere around the area:

• Washington (Iowa) defeated Pella, 28-0, and will play Solon in the Class 3A semifinals.

• BGM defeated Pekin, 29-8, and will play Wapsie Valley in the Class A semifinals.

Hawks start strong

By Jason Brummond, correspondent

IOWA CITY — The season of great expectations started with a big bang.

Iowa opened the game with a 52-12 run and Jarrod Uthoff scored a team-high 14 points in his Hawkeye debut in Iowa's impressive 82-39 victory last night over UNC-Wilmington.

Freshman Peter Jok added 11 points in his first game as eight Hawkeyes scored at least five points.

Iowa (1-0) dominated the opener in a year when many are predicting a return to the NCAA tournament. Iowa looked sharp with an aggressive defense and quick, up-tempo offense.

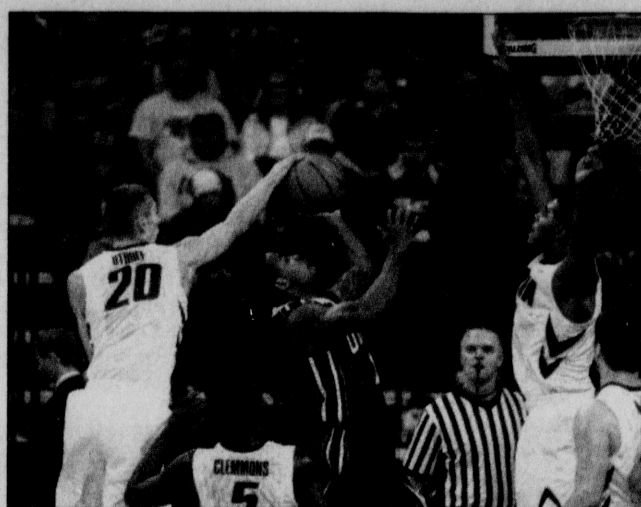

This game was over early. The Hawkeyes led 23-4 midway through the first half. At one point early in the second half, Iowa had nearly as many dunks as UNC-Wilmington had field goals.

The Hawkeyes shot 46 percent from the field, compared to 23 percent for the Seahawks. Iowa won the rebounding battle, 55-43.

Uthoff, a former standout at Cedar Rapids Jefferson, didn't waste any time in a college debut that was three years in the Cedar Rapids Xavier's Wesley Gardner looks downfield as he tucks the ball away on a 73-yard punt return for a touchdown last night in a Class 4A quarterfinal game against Cedar Rapids Kennedy at Saints Field. Xavier advanced with another shutout, 21-0.

Xavier gains Class 4A semifinals with eighth shutout this season

By Jeff Johnson, The Gazette

CEDAR RAPIDS — They held hands and walked from end zone to end zone. A couple of them stopped at midfield and kissed the turf, more than a couple of them jumped and hung on one of the goal-post crossbars.

Needless to say, all of them were smiling. The last home game for a memorable senior class at Cedar Rapids Xavier ended successfully. Probably appropriately successful.

"These guys have believed and worked hard their entire careers here," Xavier Coach Duane Schulte said after his team's 21-0 win over Cedar Rapids Kennedy in a grind-them-out Class 4A playoff quarterfinal last night. "It's a tribute and a reward for them."

Third-ranked Xavier (11-1) scored three touchdowns in the third quarter to move on to the semifinals a second straight year. The opponent next Friday at the UNI-Dome is Bettendorf (9-2).

With a defense as good as the Saints have, they really need to score only 10 points or so to win games. This was Xavier's eighth shutout this season.

"At least they keep us in the game," Schulte said. "Trust me, we're still trying to score points offensively because you never know."

But we're just trying to get those guys to execute and do their jobs. They at least give us a chance."

Kennedy played nearly a perfect first half but couldn't score. The Cougars (8-4) posted a seven-minute drive to start the game but came out of it empty, with a Mark Schulz 30-yard field-goal attempt coming up short thanks to a gusty wind that was straight in his face.

Regina claws a step closer to title No. 4

By K.J. Pilcher, The Gazette

DELHI — Survive and advance.

Iowa City Regina realizes how crucial the former is and how fortunate it is to be able to do the latter.

The top-ranked Regals scored 21 unanswered points, including 11 in the final quarter to defeat No. 4 Maquoketa Valley, 24-7, last night in a Class 1A quarterfinal. Regina plays No. 8 North Fayette Valley (11-1) in a semifinal contest next Saturday at the UNI-Dome in Cedar Falls.

"I think they're learning now that you have to cherish it," Regina Coach Marv Cook said. "The road to the Dome is a difficult thing. Fortunately enough, tonight our kids made enough plays to move us one step closer."

The Regals (12-0) won their 54th straight game, pulling within one game of the state's record winning streak by Waterloo East (1965-71), but more importantly still contending for a fourth straight championship. Regina won the 1A title last season after two straight 2A crowns. The Wildcats (11-1) threatened the streak for three-and-a-half quarters.

Black sparks Spartans back to semifinals

By Jeremiah Davis, The Gazette

DECORAH — There's an old saying: you don't know what you've got 'til it's gone.

Five straight trips to the state semifinals, four straight championships and 42 straight wins had spoiled the Spartans.

A two-year state semifinal drought since Solon's last title — Class 3A in 2010 — ended last night in a 28-20 win over Class 3A No. 2 Decorah, and the Spartans aren't about to take this one for granted.

"I think sometimes you don't appreciate the fact that when you go there for five straight years, what it is to be there," said Solon Coach Kevin Miller. "And now being away from it for a couple years, being away from that magical experience, I think you respect it that much more."

Solon earned its way back to the UNI-Dome on the strength of a young man who is new to the Spartan tradition. Quarterback Jacob Black, a transfer from Monticello, carried the ball 25 times for 112 yards and two touchdowns and hit 7 of 10 passes for 133 yards and two more scores.

Black also had the game-ending interception of Decorah's Bryce Pierce.

Miller pointed to how difficult task it can be for a teenager to enter a new school for his senior year and adapt as one of many reasons he's proud of his quarterback.

"His knowledge on both sides of the ball, Miller said, keeps the Spartans in line and is one of the biggest reasons for their success.

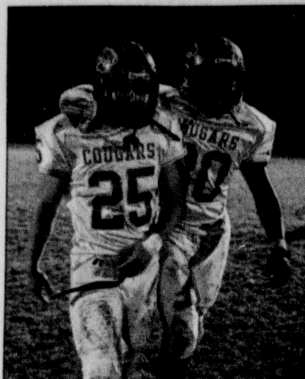

"It says a lot about his leadership. We put a lot on his shoulders, obviously, a lot of the things we do go directly through him," Miller said. "He leads by example. He's a positive leader. I can't say enough great things about what he's meant to our program.

"He's been a natural fit, and the kids have embraced him as a leader."

Solon will play Washington (Iowa) in the semifinal round next Thursday.

drive in the second quarter got to the Xavier 26 but ended when quarterback Derek Jacobus was stopped short on a 4th-and-1 sneak attempt.

"Yep, that hurt when we didn't score in the first half," said Kennedy Coach Tim Lewis. "We felt really good about the way our defense was playing. It was just the short field. We knew we couldn't give them a short field, and we knew that wind would be a factor in the second half."

Xavier took the second-half kickoff and put together its only consistent drive of the night, a 62-yarder that was culminated by running back Brendan Miller's 22-yard TD run off a counter left. Later in the quarter, Jacobus was sacked and stripped by Xavier's Hunter Baldus, with the ball recovered by the Saints' Matt Nelson at the Kennedy 4.

Wes Gardner scored on a run up the middle on the ensuing play to make it 14-0.

It was a terrific postseason run for the Cougars, who beat Cedar Rapids Prairie and Davenport Assumption. They lose some important players but return several combined with an 8-1 sophomore team.

"Just a whole bunch of guys in this senior class that really loved football," Lewis said. "Loved practicing it, loved meeting about it. That's the hardest part of my job, having to tell them goodbye."

8-MAN

No Dome this time for Orioles

By Jeff Linder, The Gazette

GILBERTVILLE — It had come so easy and so often for Elias Nissen and Springville Orioles this season.

The yards. The touchdowns. The wins. Nothing came easy last night.

Third-ranked Don Bosco kept Nissen out of the end zone and the fifth-rated Orioles out of the UNI-Dome with a 36-21 eight-man football quarterfinal playoff conquest.

"We talked about it all week, playing the full 48 minutes," said Don Bosco's Jake Hogan, who ran for three touchdowns, passed for two, and ended the Orioles' last gasp with an interception in the end zone with a minute left. "Offense wins games, and defense wins championships. We held one of the best running backs in the state to no touchdowns."

Last year's state runner-up, Don Bosco (12-0) advances to Thursday's semifinal game at the UNI-Dome against No. 4 Adair-Casey (12-0).

Springville retired at 11-1. Coach Joe Martin summed it up tearfully:

"We're losing 12 seniors who created a lot of great moments here. Look at where we were. Four years ago, 2-7 would have been a great season. Now we're mad we didn't make it to the Dome."

The Orioles had averaged 66.5 points, and Nissen had scored 59 touchdowns. But the Dons tracked his every move, holding him to 84 yards on 23 carries.

Don Bosco jumped in front 14-0 on Hogan touchdown runs in the first 8 1/2 minutes before the Orioles got some traction. Tyler McDowell's 72-yard kickoff return cut the margin in half, then Sam Scriver connected with Kolton Markley for a 19-yard touchdown pass to knot the game at 14.

After a stop and a short punt gave Springville the ball at the Don Bosco 21, it seemed the Orioles had all the momentum.

But four plays covered only five yards, the Dons got the ball back and marched it downfield for a score late in the half to regain the lead, 22-14.

Regina/Stingy second-half defense

Jake Brinkman said. "That was a great football team and to beat them ... that was a great win. We have to make sure we get focused this week."

Points were at a premium. Regina hasn't allowed a second-half point this postseason.

"I'm glad to hear that," Cook said about the stat. "We needed that tonight."

The Regals received a little cushion with 6:59 remaining while leading 13-7. With good field position, they drove 58 yards. Brinkman, who led Regina with 106 rushing yards, turned the right corner and dove for the pylon to finish a 12-yard TD.

"It was huge," said Brinkman, noting the defense's confidence. "We did a nice job blocking. The outside edge was open, what we emphasize on that run, Payton Raso made a great block and I read it."

The defense allowed the Regals to breathe a little easier. Bryan Amelon, who forced an earlier key fumble, picked off Ben Dzaboff near midfield.

Regina iced the game with Jacob Adam's third field goal of the game. He connected from 30 yards to give Regina a 17-point lead with 3:11 left. He accounted for the Regals' first-half edge with Drew Cook's 20-yard TD pass to Nick Phillips. Adam made field goals from 34 and

North Fayette Valley rides run game to next round

By Orlan Love, The Gazette

WEST UNION — North Fayette Valley ran the football down the throat of South Winneshiek last night in a 49-14 Class 1A playoff victory.

The TigerHawks outscored South Winneshiek 29-0 in the second half of a quarterfinal contest to earn a berth against Iowa City Regina in the semifinals next Saturday at the UNI-Dome in Cedar Falls.

"We can pass, but we chose not to," said North Fayette Valley Coach

"We wanted to run the ball and eat the clock, and that's what we did."

Bob Lape, North Fayette Valley coach

Bob Lape, whose team threw just one pass in the contest.

"We wanted to run the ball and eat the clock, and that's what we did," he said.

Avoiding turnovers

was also a key to the victory, Lape said.

Junior running back Derrick Kuehner, who rushed for 195 yards in the first half, scored five of the TigerHawks' seven touchdowns.

Fullback Josh Mackey took over much of the rushing load in the second half, carrying the ball nine straight times in the TigerHawks' opening third quarter scoring drive.

South Winneshiek Coach Jason Ohrt said the strong southeast wind did not hamper the Warriors' passing game.

South Winneshiek scored first on a 53-yard pass from Logan Schweinefus to Jordan Rommes.

Jared Schroeder scored the Warriors' last touchdown on a 10-yard run with 4:06 to play in the half.

After that it was all North Fayette Valley, which defeated South Winneshiek in early October in a Class 1A District 4 matchup.

South Winneshiek finished with a 9-3 mark, while the TigerHawks improved to 11-1 with title hopes still alive.

Mauer returning to Kernels in '14

By Jeff Johnson, The Gazette

CEDAR RAPIDS — Jake Mauer didn't win the argument.

Mauer tried and tried to persuade his wife, Rachel, to have doctors reveal the gender of their baby, due in February. Just like a good manager, huh?

Be fully prepared for everything. Have all the information you can, don't deal with any surprises.

"Yep, lost on that battle," Mauer said with a laugh Friday.

It'll be a busy late winter/early spring for the soon-to-be father of three. A baby in February and a trip to Fort Myers, Fla., less than a month later to get ready for the 2014 baseball season.

The parent Minnesota Twins officially announced Friday that the 34-year-old will return for a second year as skipper of the Cedar Rapids Kernels.

"We're excited to come back," Mauer said.

"We" is he and hitting coach Tommy Watkins. Ivan Arteaga will be the club's pitching coach, replacing Gary Lucas, who will be at high-Class A Fort Myers this season.

"I've talked to Tommy already, and we're locked and loaded, ready to come back," Mauer said. "It's sad to see Luke go, but I've been with Ivan Arteaga for a couple of years in the Gulf Coast League, and he'll be an excellent, outstanding pitching coach. We're going to have a very solid staff."

It's impossible to know the 2014 roster at this point, but an early scouting report shows it's likely that pitching, not hitting, will be the Kernels' strength. Rookie-level Elizabethton, the club directly below the Kernels in the minor league hierarchy, finished 37-31, leading the Appalachian League with a 3.10 earned run average.

E-Town had some good young arms, many of them from Latin America, which could explain why Arteaga, who is from Venezuela, is moving from Fort Myers to Cedar Rapids.

"They had three or four starters that put up some very good numbers," Mauer said.

Mauer said he'll always fondly recall his first Kernels team, which lost to champion Quad Cities in the first round of the Midwest League playoffs.

"That was a lot of fun, no doubt," he said. "We had a lot of talented players. They came together and did very, very well."
